Go to San Diego-Paul Thomas | Coming Events

Durnin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Paul Durin, and Gilbert Andrew Noffsinger, son of Mrs. Ellen S. Noffsinger, both of Salem, have enlisted as apprentice seamen and gone to the US naval training station at San Diego. Upon the completion of an eightweeks training course, they will be sent to one of the navy trade schools. Enlistments are now open in all branches of the navy for men between the ages of 17 and 31, and in the naval reserves for men between 17 and 50, according to Chief Quartermaster Robert B. Fallon, US navy, Salem.
