

Church School Convention Set At Salem Heights Sunday

Strike Does It

Donald Olson

Deferred last January as a worker in an essential defense industry, Donald Olson of West Hartford, Conn., has been notified by his selective service board that since he was on strike and no longer working he has been placed in Class 1-A and is eligible for immediate military service. The strike at the plant where Olson works was called two weeks ago.

Airlie School Gives Program

AIRLIE—On Friday Airlie school will sponsor a full day in commemoration of Oregon day, Mother's day and National Music week.

A pageant by the grade school, based upon early history of Oregon, is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. It will feature several vocal selections by members of the high school.

Following the pageant, track and field events will be conducted until noon, when lunch will be served. A double header baseball game will immediately follow.

All schools of the Polk county B league, together with Pedee and Kings valley have been invited and will participate in the athletic events.

The public is invited. Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Ploub, Francis and Lucille motored to Eugene Sunday and spent the day at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Parsons and family, and also visited their son, Jacob Ploub, jr.

MONMOUTH—Officers elected at the business meeting of the OCE Alumni association were: Wendell Van Loan, Eugene, re-elected president; vice-presidents: Glenn Gething, Portland; Albert Beardsley, Portland; and Burton W. Bell, Dallas; executive secretary, Cecilia Brennan, Monmouth; corresponding secretary, Genevieve Coad, Dallas.

Lodge Gives Two Jewels

Fifty Year Membership Noted; Grand Officers Expected Saturday

SILVERTON—Silver Lodge IOOF is celebrating the 50th anniversary of membership of Roscoe Langley, who was initiated on May 3, 1891, at the Saturday meeting. A 50-year jewel will be presented to him by J. P. Watts, Oregon City, who is grand master of the Oregon grand lodge. Another 30 year jewel will be presented at the same time to Carl D.

Madsen, Salem, who has been a member of the order for 30 years. Other grand lodge officers are expected to be at the meeting, which will take place after the regular lodge session Saturday night.

This will be a meeting of all branches of the order, Rebekahs, encampment, and the subordinate lodge. All members are requested to come.

After the presentation of the jewels the "Old Maids convention" will be presented by the members of the Willamette encampment, Salem.

The committee in charge is composed of George Busch, Roy Skalte and George M. Christenson. The supper committee will include, Burrell Mills, B. C. Bennett, S. Tegland, Charles Amos and Roy Skalte.

The intercity visitation committee of the grand encampment which consists of Homer Morgan, Amity, C. A. Nichols, Salem and George Christenson, Silvertown, is announcing a last visitation meeting at the hall of Falls Encampment, Oregon City, honoring the grand master, J. P. Watts and the grand patriarch, E. D. Bowman, Hillsboro. The meeting will open at 8 o'clock Friday night. Each encampment is requested to bring a number for the evening program. Those expecting to attend from Silvertown are Mrs. E. S. Porter, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gay and Mr. and Mrs. George Christenson.

SILVERTON—The Silvertown

Townsend club will meet Friday night when a report of the convention at McMinnville will be given. There will also be a speaker. The meeting is open to the public, members report.

SILVERTON—Nina Fedorova, Eugene, author of "The Family," was the luncheon speaker at the Wednesday luncheon at Memorial Union building at Corvallis when the various libraries of the district were gathered for their spring convention.

Attending from Silvertown were Mrs. H. B. Latham, chairman of the Silvertown board, with Miss Lillie Madsen, librarian, and Miss Althea Meyer, a city employee, as her guests. They reported enjoyment in Madame Fedorova's talk on "American Literature Aboard." Madame Fedorova explained that the books of Fenimore Cooper, "Uncle Tom's Cabin," and the work of Oliver Curwood were among the popular books abroad, but that while they rather lacked style in their native language, they had gained literary quality in their translations.

SILVERTON—The Silvertown high school faculty has selected a group of students eligible, because of scholastic standing, to the high school honor roll. The student body will vote on these Friday for selection for the honor plaques. However, the outcome of the vote will not be announced until graduation night.

Candidates are Marjory Maulding, Juanita Moe, Phyllis Gragan, Alice Cunningham, Donna Krug, Jerome Tasto, Dick Adams, Robert Neal and Irving Kuenzi.

SILVERTON—The social event of the Parent-Teacher association year-calendar at Silvertown will be the Mother-Daughter tea to be arranged by Mrs. Ralph Larson for May 7 at the Eugene Field auditorium. It will be open to all mothers and daughters of the district.

Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre will be in charge of decorations and will also serve as hospitality chairman. Miss Hanna Olson will arrange the program and Mrs. S. Olson is tea chairman.

Oregon's Sugar GETS TO THE "CORE" OF THE OREGON APPLE QUESTION

Oregon apples lead the world for quality. In the upland orchards of Hood River, Medford and the Rogue River area, apples of matchless flavor, color, and size grow in abundance. In normal years, Oregon grows and sells millions of packed boxes of Yellow Newtowns, delicious Spitzenberg and Ortley apples. And don't overlook the thousands of tons of canned apples, and pressed apples for wine, juice and cider! Yes, Oregon is a famous apple-producing state—and Oregon apples are important to every citizen, for they bring new wealth to our state every year.

GUARANTEED FOR CANNING

Oregon's Own and Only Sugar, likewise, plays an important role in the lives of thousands of Oregon sugar beet farmers, farm and factory workers; is an important wealth-producing Oregon crop that is important to everyone in Oregon... and that's not "applesauce!"
