

Speaker Farrell Reveals Names Of Appointees to Committees Created by '41 Legislature

Other Members of Interim Groups Will Be Selected by Senate President and Gov. Sprague; Three From Marion

Robert S. Farrell, jr., Portland, speaker of the house of representatives, Wednesday announced his appointments on interim committees created by the 1941 legislature.

The largest of these committees, to be composed of 18 members, will conduct a study of the Oregon tax structure, compared to tax structures of other northwest states, and methods of attracting additional industries to this state.

Farrell's appointments on this committee include Representatives C. T. Hockett (R-Wallowa), J. D. Perry (D-Columbia), Frank Longergan, (R-Multnomah), William M. McAllister (R-Jackson) and John B. McCourt (R-Multnomah).

Five other members of this committee will be appointed by President Dean Walker, Polk county, president of the state senate, and eight by Governor Charles A. Sprague.

Appointments by Farrell on a committee to study taxes paid by motor and rail transportation companies to determine if they are paying their just share of taxes include Representatives Burt K. Snyder (R-Lake), William H. Hedlund (D-Clackamas) and Roy E. Carter, (D-Curry).

Representatives James A. Rodman (R-Lane), Manley J. Wilson (D-Clatsop), Richard L. Neuberger (D-Multnomah), Alfred F. Cunha (R-Umatilla) and Allan G. Carson (R-Marion), were appointed on a committee to investigate the operations of the state public welfare commission. Rodman is chairman of this committee.

Farrell appointed Representatives Carl Engdahl (R-Umatilla), Dr. J. F. Hosch (D-Deschutes), George R. Duncan (R-Marion), Phil Brady (D-Multnomah) and Stanhope Pier (R-Multnomah) to conduct a survey of the state institutions with a view of improving their facilities.

Other appointments by Farrell: To investigate insurance rates and contracts to correct practices detrimental to the state industrial accident commission—Representatives Harvey Wells (R-Multnomah), chairman; William B. Morse (R-Crook), Erling L. Brauti (D-Tillamook), Orval N. Thompson (D-Linn) and John Steelhammer, (R-Marion).

To work with Washington and Idaho interim committees to study Columbia river fisheries—Representatives Donald E. Heisler (R-Wasco), Frank J. Lonergan (R-Multnomah) and Fred Thiel (D-Clatsop).

Study Roadside Problems

To study Oregon roadside problems—Representatives Herman H. Chindgren (R-Clackamas), Harvey Wells (R-Multnomah) and R. C. Frisbie (R-Baker).

To study suggested revision of judicial procedure—Representatives Stanhope S. Pier (R-Multnomah), Donald E. Heisler and E. Riddell Lage (R-Hood River).

Intestate cooperation commission—Representatives Earl T. Newbury (R-Jackson), V. B. Staples (R-Malheur), Giles L. French (R-Morrow), Warren Erwin (D-Multnomah) and George C. Huggins (D-Cool).

To prepare voters pamphlet argument for repeal of the rural credits loan fund—Representatives Allan G. Carson (R-Marion) and Orval N. Thompson (D-Linn).

Argument for More Pay—To prepare argument for increasing legislators' pay from $3 to $8 per diem—Representatives Richard L. Neuberger (D-Multnomah) and Herman H. Chindgren (R-Clackamas).

To prepare argument for constitutional amendment to prohibit diversion of highway funds—Representatives E. Riddell Lage (R-Hood River) and Ned H. Callaway (D-Linn).

President Dean Walker of the senate was expected to announce his appointments on the committees within the next few days.

Tea Planned By Students

DALLAS — Mothers of Dallas high school students will be honored guests at a fashion show and tea to be given by the students of the home economics department on Thursday at 3 o'clock and again at 4 p. m.

Family Given Many Gifts

HAZEL GREEN — Friday afternoon at the school house the community gave a shower for the Looney family. Many friends brought gifts of china, glass and silver. The Ladies Aid society of Labish Center sent a gift. The Sunshine Sewing club gave china to serve eight.

It is found that 40 choice budded roses one and two years old were destroyed by the recent fire which destroyed the Looney home. Also a 30 foot Japanese flowering cherry tree, 13 years old, given the family by Mr. and Mrs. Yada. It is thought the 64 year old grapevine, five feet in circumference, will grow from the roots. It is of the Isabella variety and was planted by A. J. May, who also planted the black walnut, four feet in diameter, which is 100 feet tall. Some lumber may be salvaged from the tree.

HAZEL GREEN — Glen Looney is having a modern milk house built to replace the one destroyed by fire. The building will be 10 by 14 feet. The cooling unit just installed was saved.

Looney had bought from Frank O. Johnson the Sims house. Repairs, including rebuilding the flue and replacing the windows, will be made. Ben Clemens and son Arthur moved the building to the Looney farm.

N. P. Williamson and daughter, Miss Carolyn, and son, Victor, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bart-ruff, Everett, Wash.
