Monmouth Display of Lambs Is Large; Features Popular

MONMOUTH—The Polk county lamb show held here Saturday was judged the best since the first four years ago. More lambs were entered and were of good size and in excellent condition, according to Claude Steusloff, Salem, judge of the show. The attendance of spectators was increased.

Among distinguished guests present were Leo G. Spitzbart, Salem, and J. R. Beck, Oregon State college, former Polk county agent.

In the sheep dog trials only one dog, Jack, owned by F. M. Chapman, Cottage Grove, was able to approximately maneuver his allotment of sheep into corral in the seven minutes time given. Pete, owned by Dr. W. Frum, Halsey, was a close second winner and Laddie, owned by Ed Goth, Turner, winner of last year's trials, made third place. Judges of sheep dog trials were C. J. De Armond and A. H. Craven, Monmouth; Homer Link, Airlie.

Champion lamb of the show was the property of Justin Rowland, Rickreall. Champion lamb of single class, Justin Rowland; champion pen of three lambs, Eldon Riddell, Monmouth.

Junior judging of 4H and Future Farmers, Perry Carmichael and Albert Riney, both of Monmouth, tied for first. Don Rowland, Rickreall, and Bob Lorence, Monmouth, tied for second. H. A. Lindgren of OSC judged the junior classes in the morning.

Junior commercial single lamb class: Don Rowland, Rickreall, first; Perry Carmichael, Monmouth, second. Pure bred medium wools, Evelyn Wells, Rickreall, first; Donnal Tomkins, Monmouth, second. Pure bred long wool, Jackie Wells, Independence, first; Bob Lorence, Monmouth, second; John Lorence, Monmouth, third. Jackie Wells had the champion lamb in the junior division.

Adults' commercial single lamb class: Justin Rowlan, Rickreall, first; Roy Clark, Monmouth, second; H. N. Dickinson, Independence, third; Elmer Bork, Monmouth, fourth.

Commercial pen of three lambs: Justin Rowland, Rickreall, first; Roy Clark, Monmouth, second; Elmer Bork, third; Wilmer Powell, Monmouth, fourth.

Pure bred medium wool single class, Eldon Riddell, Monmouth, first; Joe Harlan, Rickreall, second. Pure bred medium wool, pen of three, Jimmie Riddell, Monmouth, first; William Riddell and son, Monmouth, second; Bob Lorence, Monmouth, third; L. E. McCaleb, Monmouth, fourth.

Pure bred long wool, pen of three, Jimmie Riddell, Monmouth, first; Bob Lorence, Monmouth, second; William Riddell and son, Monmouth, third; L. E. McCaleb, Monmouth, fourth.

One of the features was the presentation, in suitable pieces for cooking, of four fat lamb carcasses, which were donated by James Riddell, Monmouth; C. J. de Armond, Monmouth; James Lewis, Airlie; and Russell Hogg, West Salem. These were drawn through a lucky number arrangement, giving the visitors an opportunity to participate directly in the show program.

Weather Holds Back Berry Picking

Rainy weather and cool days had their effect on the strawberry crop and harvesting, which at one time was scheduled to start on Monday, will probably not get well under way until the middle or latter part of the week, depending on the weather.

According to County Agent Robert E. Rieder, prospects still point to a bumper crop but warm weather is needed to ripen the berries, and very much rain would seriously damage them.

Inspection of certified strawberry plants of 14 growers were made the latter part of the week by Rieder and Dr. O. T. McWhorter, extension horticulturist from Oregon State college.

Gooseberry picking will probably start in about 10 days, Rieder said, and a good crop is forecast with little mildew in evidence.

Filbert aphis, which usually do not show until the middle of June or July, have infested nearly all the orchards in the county, Rieder said. He blamed the mild weather for the rapidly developing aphis and recommended a 5 per cent nicotine dust be used for their control. Farmers are also reminded that they should be applying their second spray for the control of walnut blight, the county agent said.

Grangers' News

MACLEAY—A large crowd attended the "Print Dress-Overall" entertainment and dance given by the grange home economics club Saturday.

The program was put on by Dizney's tumbling and acrobatic cutups. Performing were Elizabeth Simmons, Loreta Deacon, Eldores Einfeldt, Patricia Riches and Clarence Dizney. Music was furnished by Burton brothers.

Stocks Slip After Rally

European Conditions One Factor; Tokyo Exchange Slumps

NEW YORK, May 12.—(AP)—Aside from scattered oils, utilities and aircrafts, stocks generally slipped a notch or so when it became evident at the start there was little inclination to follow through on Saturday's rally.

While selling never was urgent, bidding also was of the timid sort and, at the close, the Associated Press average of 60 issues was off .2 of a point at 40, a concession of just one-half of the weekend upturn. Transfers amounted to 435,320 shares compared with 397,380 last Friday.

Intensification of the British and German air bombings aroused some nervousness in the financial sector, brokers said, and inspired cashing in here and there on last week's recovery. Business news was fairly cheerful but not especially motivating marketwise.

A slump on the Tokyo stock exchange was blamed on rumors the United States was about to enter the European conflict.

Producers Coop Names Officials Monday

Three directors for a two year term and officers for the coming year were elected by the Producers Cooperative Packing company when they met Monday at the plant on North Commercial street.

W. H. Bowden, Marc Saucy and Emil Etevens were chosen directors, and with Paul B. Wallace and Max Kleman make up the five-man board.

President of the organization is Wallace. Other officials, all re-elected, were Bowden, vice-president; Elizabeth Stockhausen, secretary-treasurer, and W. H. Wood, manager.

When packing will start at the cannery depends on the weather, Wood stated. Warm days may bring strawberries to the plant by the latter part of the week, he thought.

Wool in Boston

BOSTON, May 12—(AP)—(USDA)—Medium fleeces were receiving inquiries from a few users. Most bids were around 45 cents, in the grease, delivered from combing three-eighths and quarter blood bright fleeces, although a few users were willing to pay 46 cents. Sales were slow because most offerings were quoted at 46-47 cents, in the grease, delivered. Fine Australian and South American wools were receiving a fair demand at steady prices compared with last week's sales.

Wheat Drops Three Cents

Loan Rate Question Brings Nervousness to Grain Mart

CHICAGO, May 12—(AP)—A drop of almost three cents a bushel in wheat prices reflected market nervousness due to Washington reports of proposed additional controls over commodity speculation and uncertainty concerning loan rates to be offered on new crops.

Profit taking and liquidation continued the wheat reaction which began Saturday and spread to other grains, soybeans and lard, most of which closed at or near the low points of the session.

Wheat finished 2⅜-2¾ cents lower than Saturday, May 95⅛, July 93⅝-¾.

Blackberries Go at Control Board Price

Sale of the blackberry pool of the Woodburn Fruitgrowers association at the control board price of 5 cents a pound was reported Monday afternoon by William J. Linfoot, secretary of the Oregon Blackberry Control board, which met Monday to set the 5 cent minimum price on both the Himalaya and evergreen varieties.

Buyers of 75 per cent of the tonnage of the Woodburn concern was the Oregon Fruit Products company, West Salem. The remainder of the crop was taken by the Starr Fruit Products company, Salem.

Blackberries did not suffer as much from the weather as many of the small fruits did. However, this year's acreage is reported somewhat smaller than before, and it is believed that cannerymen have been awaiting the control board's price decision and that the entire harvest will soon be contracted for. The Woodburn Fruitgrowers control about half the blackberries in the state, Linfoot said.

Requirements set by the control board provided for berries that are clean, free from mold, decay or excessive moisture.

North Marion Sells Fruit

Tonnage from the North Marion Fruit company will be divided between a number of canneries, according to John Ramage.

Hunt Brothers were reported to have bought approximately 105 tons of youngberries at 5¾ cents and about 35 tons of boysenberries at 5½ cents, as well as the Red Heart strawberries at 6½ cents.

About 35 tons of boysenberries were bought by the Starr Fruit Products company at 5½ cents. They also purchased about half the output of gooseberries.

Approximately 10 tons of blackcaps went to Paulus Brothers, who also purchased gooseberries from the concern.
