Pattern

These active outdoor days are just around the corner - greet them blithely with this vivacious young sports outfit. It's an Anne Adams style, Pattern 4739, and as easy on the eyes as it is on the sewing needles. The bolero, which you'll slip on for street wear, ends briefly to show off your lily white waistline. Let it have a jaunty sailor collar, or just use neat revers. The dress alone is perfect for tennis and golfing, for its slim, easy-to-do princess lines give unhampered, unbinding freedom. No side placket is necessary with that button or zipper opening just below the sunhat back. Star buttons and ric-rac edging make a cheery trim. Here's a perfect "first-try" style - it's so simple!

Pattern 4739 is available in misses' sizes 12, 14, 16, 18 and 20. Size 18, entire ensemble, takes 4 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 1 1/2 yards ric-rac.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams style. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STYLE NUMBER. Order the William Adams Adams 1941 Pattern Book today, and get your wardrobe ready for the turn of the fashion season! There's real dress-making fun and satisfaction for you in this collection of unmissably simple-to-sew styles for every age and purpose. You'll find seasonal ensembles, garden-party wedding and graduation gowns, a lingerie set, accessories, and a copy of the 32 page, 50-cent Pattern Book and FIFTEEN CENTS PATTERNS TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Oregon Dress Pattern Department.
