

Diz Dean Named Cubs' Coach at Double Pay

Tries to Quit but Is Given Boost From Field to Bench

By EARL HILLIGAN

CHICAGO, May 14—(AP)—The inimitable Dizzy Dean tried to quit baseball today but wound up by moving from the Chicago Cubs' bench to the club's coaching lines—at double pay.

In a surprise move which climaxed a day on Dean developments and actually left the once-great pitcher momentarily speechless, the Cubs refused Dean's request for voluntary retirement, gave him his unconditional release and signed him as a coaching aide to Manager Jimmy Wilson.

DIZZY DEAN

"Boy, has this club been good to me," said Dean when the Cub general manager, James Gallagher, announced Dean would remain with the team.

That short remark sufficiently summed up Dean's case. For the Cubs gave Dean a new contract as a coach, starting his pay today, and will also give him the remainder of his reported $10,000 player contract at the end of the season.

"Thus ends—for at least a year—the playing career of one of baseball's great pitchers, one who won 30 games and lost only seven for the St. Louis Cardinals in 1934 and who in six seasons as a Cardinal averaged 22 wins a year.

That was before Of Diz, whose colorful escapades, suspensions and salary holdouts made him the "newiest" figure in the game, came to Chicago in April, 1938—costing the Cubs $185,000 cash and three players.

But even today, as he decided to quit as a player, his heart would not allow him to say "this is final."

"I'm going to coach a year," he said, "and try to pitch once more after a year of rest for my arm. If I can't pitch then I'll be through for good."

Gallagher and Manager Wilson both paid tribute to that Dean spirit, Gallagher remarking: "He's too valuable a baseball man to wind up in the minors—or picking cotton. He'll be of great value helping young pitchers."

Dean, whose graying hair belies the 30-year age the record book lists for him, was the first player to sign with the Cubs for the 1940 season and his reported $10,000 contract caused a rumble of discontent among some players. In his only start this season he lasted one inning against Pittsburgh, allowing three hits and three runs. To date he has been pitching in batting practice, and he'll continue that as part of his new job.

Marion, Polk Out on June Draft Call

Parrish Track Squad Bests Greens 69-17

Owen Garland, but an eighth grader, took three first places as well as running on the winning relay team to aid Tom Drynan's Parrishers in defeating the sophomore Greens' cinder team 69 to 17 Wednesday.

Garland took first in the 100 and 50 yard dashes and in the broad jump. He tallied 16 1/2 points.

Eldon Lappin, Green's hurdler, broke the only record of the day when he stepped them off in :15.4, bettering the old mark by five-tenths of a second.

Results:

100-yard low hurdles—Won by Lappin, G. in :15.4. Wenger, P. second; Fouts, P. third. (New record, old :15.9.)
50-yard dash—Won by Garland, P. in :9.9. Warren, P. second; Wehrli, P. third. (Ties old record.)
100-yard dash—Won by Garland, P. in :11.1. Taw, P. second; Warren, P. third.
200-yard dash—Won by Fouts, P. in :25.6. Brykitt, G. second; Wehrli, P. third.
Shot—Won by Warren, P. with heave of 43 feet 5 1/2 inches. Nist, G. second; Brown, G. third.

Broad jump—Won by Garland, P. with jump of 18 feet 4 1/2 inches. Carter, P. second; Wenger, P. third.
Relay—Won by Parrish's team of Taw, Wehrli, Garland and Warren in :49.2.

Oregon Logger Conclave Opens

EUGENE, May 14—Loggers from all parts of Oregon will gather in Eugene Friday and Saturday for the third annual Willamette valley logging conference.

Early registration figures indicate that attendance will be the largest in the history of the conference. H. J. Cox, secretary of the Willamette Valley Lumbermen's association, declares. Sessions open Friday morning at 9:30 with an address of welcome by Mayor Elisha Large of Eugene.

Stewart Holbrook, noted author of logging stories, will speak at the Friday night loggers dinner.

"Recent Legislation Affecting Logging and Forest Practice," will be the topic of an address to be given Saturday morning by Warren Tilton, Seattle, representing the West Coast Lumbermen's association.

Machinery display will be the largest in the history of the conference. Arthur W. Prialux, exhibition manager, indicated. More than 40 logging machinery and equipment firms have planned displays at the meeting.

Wives of the logger delegates will hold a "loggerette" dinner Friday night in the dining room of the Eugene hotel. Olive Barber, Coos Bay writer, will be the featured speaker.

School Closes At Webfoot

Turner, Peterson Sign For Six-Rounder on Proctor Benefit Card

Buddy Peterson, the former titlist from Independence and Leo "The Lion" Turner, present state middleweight champion, signed Wednesday for a six-round slugfest on the May 20 VFW benefit boxing card for Powder Kid Proctor.

Promoter Tex Salkeld, in making the announcement, said Peterson signed a contract calling for a return match with Turner within 30 days if he makes an appreciable showing, holds Turner to a draw or beats the colored champ.

Turner, surprisingly, was tickled to get the match. The Oregon brown bomber said he owed Peterson a pasting for the decision that Buddy scored in winning the title in the ball park scrap last summer.

"I'm not worried about that return match," said Turner. "I'll beat him so badly he won't want any more of me, ever."

Salem's Keller Wagner, unbeaten in three professional starts, meets big Dan Smith of Longview in a second six-rounder, while popular Johnny Woods of Dallas takes on Little Dempsey, hard-hitting Filipino, in the third.

Proceeds from the card are to be used to help defray expenses incurred by Powder Proctor when he suffered a broken jaw in his titular battle with Tony Kahut.

Pacific Winner

MCMINNVILLE, May 14—(AP)—Linfield college trackmen were defeated here Tuesday by Pacific university 74 to 57.

The winner will meet Harold Philan of Linfield, while George Dambacher, Whitman, and Ed Young, College of Idaho, both of whom drew first round byes, will tangle in a semifinal match in the other bracket. Pacific has no singles entry.

In doubles CPS meets Whitman with the winner playing Linfield in one bracket, while College of Idaho takes on Pacific with the winner meeting Willamette in the other.

Mrs. Frank Osborn, Amity, has been elected to teach Webfoot next year.

Unity school will close Monday but the all-day picnic will be held at Hirtler's park Friday.

Bearcats Sweep Portland Series As Richards Hurls 4 to 0 Win

Lefty Jack Serves Six Hit Ball, Hits in Two

Lefty Jack Richards pitched a 4 to 0 shutout victory over the Portland U Pilots for Spec Keene's Bearcats at Geo. E. Waters park Wednesday afternoon, giving the Salem collegians a clean sweep of their annual three-game series with the Portlanders. Other Willamette wins came by 6-4 and 9-6 scores.

The 'Cat clubbers got behind Richards to score three runs and ice the game in the first inning. Richards, himself, drove in the first two tallies with a scorching single that counted Gene Stewart and George Hochstetler, both of whom had singled in front. "Pappy" Walker drew a walk to advance Richards, and Jimmy Robertson drove his battery mate across.

Run number four came in the fifth, Stewart doubling and Hochstetler driving him home. Stewart, Hochstetler and Robertson got six of the eight hits given up by Vince Pesky, brother of Johnny Pesky of Silverton Red Sox fame.

Richards, who hurled WU's ninth win in 12 college games, struck out nine and was never in serious trouble.

The 'Cats move to Monmouth today for a game with Oregon College of Education. Friday they wind up western division, Northwest conference play at Pacific.

Portland 0 6 1
Willamette 4 8 1

Four athletes will return to defend last year's titles and three may equal or break records. Ray Johnson of Medford has been threatening to crack the 49.5 second mark he set last year in the 440-yard dash and Wally Still of Mac-Hi has run the 100 in 9.9, equal to the record held by Grayson of Portland's Jefferson and Leslie of Klamath Falls.

Schweizer of Adrian may better his mark of 22.8 in the low hurdles but the other champion, Hoover of Toledo, isn't expected to out-shoot the javelin distance of better than 200 feet made by Demaris of Prineville in 1931.

The mile record may be broken by Grace of Clatskanie who qualified in 4:29.9, within 9 of a second of the mark, and Anderson of Imbler has cleared six feet in the high jump to be a threat in that department. A new light-weight discus makes a new record for that event almost a certainty.

Viking tennismen won all matches Wednesday afternoon when they met the Milwaukie Maroons on the Salem high school courts.

Scores:
Singles — Downs, S, defeated Allison, M, 6-2, 5-7, 6-12; Crockett, S, defeated Brown, M, 6-1, 6-2; Sanders, S, defeated Wrights, M, 3-6, 7-5, 7-5; Carrow, S, defeated Cooper, M, 6-1, 6-0; Williams, S, defeated Martinson, M, 14-12, 6-2.

Doubles — Downs and Crockett, S, defeated Brown and Allison, M, 6-2, 5-7, 6-3; Ransom and Carrow, S, defeated Wright and Martinson, M, 6-3.

Merchants Asked to Redeem Food Stamps Through Wholesalers

L. H. LeGarie, chairman of the Willamette Valley Retail Food Dealer's food stamp committee, urged Wednesday that retail merchants redeem their food stamp cards through wholesalers instead of through banks.

LeGarie said he had received a letter from Louis Belangie, food stamp administrator for this area, saying that over half of Oregon food stamp redemption cards are going through banks. Belangie's letter said this is contrary to plan and is imposition on the banks.

Here's the way to get better attendance at your meetings

Hold your meetings at the hotel. Attendance is better, because the air of additional importance the hotel gives your meetings makes them meetings your members want to attend. People generally like to go to hotels and the hotel is usually more convenient too. Add the good food, the extra service and you have an almost perfect formula for increasing attendance. Try the hotel for that next meeting and see what a difference it makes.
