

ASSOCIATED PRESS

PICTURE NEWS

SEASONING TRIP—Led by motorcycles, the first armored brigade of the first armored division moves along a highway from Fort Knox, Ky., to Mammoth Cave, Ky., during a seasoning trip.

CORRIGAN RIDES AGAIN—Frank H. Powers, Jr., up on Rhadamanthus and leading the national hunt cup race up to this point at the 14th jump in Berwyn, Pa., finds himself looking the other way and on the way down. His mount stumbled, tossing Powers.

FEEDING TIME FOR CUDDLES—Geraldine Mensing, 13, of Rochester, N. Y., watches intently as baby squirrel Cuddles takes a drink of milk from a doll's nursing bottle. She adopted Cuddles after it fell from its nest.

SUGGESTION—A "suggestion box" government is being tried by President Manuel Prado of Peru (above). People make proposals, agency studies their practicability.

GAL-LONS—The gal is Mary Jane Griffith, candidate for the title of Queen of the Las Vegas Helldorado, and 16 gallon hats are for those attending fete May 15 to 18 marking that Nevada town's early days as Union Pacific construction camp.

STAR—Dorothy Comingore, film star, is more concerned about her infant, whom she's feeding, than her own career.

104 YEARS IN INFANTRY—Boasting aggregate service of 104 years, these sergeants display an impressive array of service stripes. They're in the 18th infantry regiment, first division, based at Camp Devens, Mass., and are (left to right) Nathan Rosenstein, 26 years; Wade Hitchcock, 25; William Lipskie, 23, and Homer S. Smith, 22.

POPPY GIRL—Joan Leslie (above), actress, has been named by Veterans of Foreign Wars as National Buddy Poppy Girl.

HERE'S HOW—"Fat Freddy" Fitzsimmons, veteran Dodge hurler, shows Ezra Stone, (left), a rabid fan, how it's done.

IMPROVING—Fritz Kreisler, 66 (above), renowned violinist who suffered a skull fracture in a New York traffic accident, is improving. He was a captain in the Austrian army during the first World War.

MASTERPIECE TO CATHEDRAL—This 1515 Italian masterpiece by Andrea del Sarto, entitled "Holy Family," has been presented to St. Patrick's Cathedral in N. Y., by Major Edward Bowes. Its reported value, $151,000.

HOPES—With Bonneville and TVA electric power, R. S. Reynolds (above) hopes to produce 100,000 pounds of aluminum annually by July, 1942. He's first to try production in competition with Aluminum Co. of America.

STRESS AND STRAIN—His brows knit but feet cuddled like those of a little boy, New York's Mayor F. E. LaGuardia listens intently as Wendell L. Willkie stresses a point at a Freedom Rally they both addressed in New York.

YOU'RE WRONG, THEY'RE DUST MASKS—Sgt. F. J. Lewandowski (left) of Maple Heights, O., adjusts a new type of dust protector on Corp. Joseph F. Jury of Bardonia, Ky., at Camp Forrest, Tenn. Looking on are Private G. L. Bradley of Corbin, Ky., and H. E. Arnold (right). All are members of the 68th field artillery, battery D, Fort Knox, Ky.

DEBUT—Philadelphia Girls' Rowing club members prepare for first workout on Schuylkill river. L. to r.—Stella Sokolowska, Helen Muldowney, Lynn Porlan, Marge Cantwell.

BIGGERS AND BETTER BOMB—John Biggers, OFM production director, views new type fragmentation bomb held by Virginia Herwine at E. G. Budd plant in Philadelphia. Bomb has been called more effective than similar bombs made.