

Mrs. Bell Is Honored by Matrons

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil L. Sexton was the scene of a delightful surprise party Tuesday night when a group of matrons entertained for the pleasure of Mrs. Winnie J. Bell. Mrs. Bell and her two children are planning to leave in early June for San Francisco to join Lt. Bell, who is at the Presidio. The first of July the Bells will sail for Honolulu where Lt. Bell will be stationed.

Bridge was in play during the evening in the recreation room and a late supper was served. Bouquets of spring flowers were arranged about the rooms. The group gave Mrs. Bell an au revoir gift.

Honoring Mrs. Bell were Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. W. L. McCormick of Eugene, Mrs. Louis Arens, Mrs. Walter Spaulding, Mrs. Lawrence Lister, Mrs. Donald Blake, Mrs. Roy Anderson, Mrs. William Parker, Mrs. Merrill Falkenhagen, Mrs. Joseph Merrill, Mrs. Joseph Harvey, jr., Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, Mrs. Ward Davis, Mrs. Donald Madison, Mrs. Howard Pickett, Mrs. Rex Kimmell, Mrs. Joseph J. Gallagher, Mrs. Francis Wade, Mrs. Silas Gaiser, Mrs. Paul Hale, Mrs. John Picklin, Mrs. Glenn Seeley, Mrs. Gene Vandenberg, Mrs. George Bagnall and Mrs. Virgil Sexton.

Boulier-Clardy Vows Said

The marriage of Miss Isla Clardy, formerly of Myrtle Beach, S. Carolina and Mr. F. Loren Boulier of Salem, was solemnized at 6 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Jason Lee Methodist church. The Rev. S. Raynor Smith performed the ceremony.

The bride wore a powder-blue crepe dress with a full-length dawn-blue wool cape. Accessories were powder-blue and the corsage was gardenias.

Miss Merle Terry, her only attendant, wore a beige crepe dress with British-tan accessories. Her corsage was gardenias. Mr. Jack McNeil served as best man for Mr. Boulier.

After a wedding breakfast, the couple left for a trip to British Columbia. Upon their return they will be at home at 1069 Leslie street.

The bride, a graduate of Columbia hospital, Columbia, South Carolina, with post graduate study at the Chicago Lying-In hospital, Chicago, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Clardy, Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. The bridegroom, with the Oregon state highway department, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Boulier, Leaburg, Oregon.
