

Yeast Makes Fascinating Recipes

Yeast doughs are fascinating, partly because of the flavor, partly the texture. Granular yeast is being featured by manufacturers of the product, and have sent several interesting sounding recipes to use this type of leavening. Here are two (better invite company over, from the size of the first):

DATE YEAST WAFFLES
(About 12 to 15 waffles)
1/2 package fast granular yeast
1/4 cup lukewarm water
1/4 teaspoon sugar
2 1/2 cups milk
2 tablespoons butter
1 quart flour (sifted)
1 teaspoon salt
3 eggs
2 ounces chopped dates

Pour the granular yeast into the 1/4 cup lukewarm water and add the 1/4 teaspoon sugar. Scald the milk and allow to cool. Rub the butter into the sifted flour and add salt, the milk which has been cooled, and the softened yeast. Beat for several minutes until smooth. Cover and set to rise in warm place until light.

Beat egg whites and yolks separately. Add yolks to the batter, mixing well. Then stir in the beaten egg whites and beat vigorously. Set to rise again until you are ready for breakfast. Just before cooking, mix in the finely chopped dates, slightly floured. Serve with honey, sirup or jam.

GRANULAR YEAST CHEESE MUFFINS
(About 15 muffins)
1/2 package fast granular yeast
1/4 cup lukewarm water
3/4 teaspoon sugar
1 3/4 cups milk
3 cups flour (sifted)
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs
1 tablespoon butter
2 or 3 tablespoons grated cheese (American)

Pour the granular yeast into the 1/4 cup lukewarm water and add 1/4 teaspoon sugar. Scald the milk and allow to cool. Sift the flour with the salt and stir in the scalded milk (well cooled)

Pattern

Coming or going, here's a dress to capture all eyes with its saucy young style! It's Pattern 4751, an Anne Adams design, which means the most style for the least sewing effort. That buttoning down the back not only looks new and effective, but is convenient for sewing and ironing as well. The broad waistband curves in front to match the curve of the smart rounded yoke and the pert little cuffs. Take special note of the unusual softness through the bodice, gathered below the yoke and above the waist. One simple panel goes down the skirt front. Use ric-rac trim on this dress that would be so smart in shantung or linen. And let the Sewing Instructor show you the short-cuts!

Pattern 4751 is available in misses' and women's sizes, 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28 and 30. Size 16 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 2 1/2 yards ric-rac.

and the softened yeast. Beat well, cover and set to rise about two hours. Beat the eggs very light with the balance of the sugar and mix with risen batter, adding the butter, melted but not hot. Mix in the grated cheese and stir well but do not beat. When smooth, fill greased muffin tins two-thirds full with mixture and allow to stand in warm place about 15 minutes. Bake 20-25 minutes in quick oven (about 425 degrees F.). Serve hot.

Potato Creamed For Dinner

It's rather new, this way of preparing creamed potatoes, but it works just fine with the new ones.

BERKELEY CREAMED POTATOES
1/2 cup mayonnaise or salad dressing
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup milk
3 cups hot diced potatoes
1 tablespoon minced chives or 1 teaspoon grated onion
Combine mayonnaise, mustard, salt and pepper in top of double boiler. Gradually add milk, stirring after each addition until smooth. Cook over boiling water about 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Add potatoes and chives. Mix carefully. Reheat about 10 minutes; if overcooked, sauce will curdle. Serve immediately. Yield: 6 portions.

Today's Menu

Bananas will be the salad for today, and the meal will end with an orange dessert.
Banana salad
Vegetable plate
Orange Marlow

On the plate arrange the banana salad, asparagus with cheese sauce, buttered new cabbage with nutmeg to flavor it, sliced tomato and a piece of crisp celery.

ORANGE MARSHMALLOW DESSERT
1 1/2 cups orange juice
32 marshmallows (1/2 pound)
1 tablespoon lemon juice
Sections from 2 oranges
Heat marshmallows and juice in top of double boiler until marshmallows are melted. Pour into serving dishes over orange sections. Chill until stiff. Serves 4.

HAYESVILLE—A simple but impressive wedding was performed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Berns Christofferson when Audrey Ingeldue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ingeldue of Stayton, became the bride of Albert Koehler. The couple stood beneath an arch of yellow and white roses where the ceremony was performed by Bishop Wall of the Latter Day Saints church of Salem.

The couple was attended by Minnie Koehler and Franklin Ingeldue. Pauline Ingeldue acted as ring bearer.

A reception was held at the Christofferson home following the ceremony. The young couple will be at home at the house located next to Christofferson's.

Benefit Work Done by Club

JEFFERSON—An interesting program was presented at the meeting of the Jefferson Woman's club Wednesday at the home of Mrs. M. D. Looney and daughter, Eleanor. Mrs. Hal Wiley, president, presided.

Delegates who attended the convention of the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs, gave reports. Announcement was made that one afghan was finished and sent, and 39 blocks toward another have been made for the Bundles for Britain.

Each member donated 50 cents for the library fund. During the program hour, a musical program was presented. Three music students from Willamette university gave musical numbers.

Twenty-one members were present. Guests included Mrs. Roy Nelson, Maxine Goodenough, Betty Cooper and Mary Martin of Salem; Louise Looney, Mrs. James Pate, Mrs. John Henderson, Gene Mary Redmond, and Mrs. Lorena Brockway. The meeting, May 28, will be held in the library rooms, with Mrs. J. G. Fontaine and Miss Marjorie Fontaine, hostesses.
