Church Group Votes Change

Conference Slated for Mid-August; Budget Plan Is Altered

Meeting at the First Evangelical church Thursday for the second day of the 58th annual Oregon-Washington Evangelical conference, 120 laymen and ministers agreed to change the time of the yearly meeting from May until mid-August and to hold it in conjunction with the annual camp meeting, to be held next year at Jennings Lodge.

Another important change, according to Rev. William Gold, Spokane, reporter for the parley, was the adoption of a "one factor system" for determining the amount each local congregation will pay upon the general budget of the conference.

Presiding at the daily meetings, which will be completed Sunday, is Bishop E. W. Praetorius, St. Paul, Minn., bishop of the northwestern area. Today at 9 a. m. the bishop is scheduled to speak on "In All His Offices: As a King."

Roy H. Stetler, manager of the church's publishing house at Harrisburg, Pa., was among the speakers Thursday.

SCIO, May 22.—(AP)—The receiving station at the Morrison warehouse was being made ready Wednesday for the annual crop of fruits and berries, the Scio Fruit Growers' association said. Delivery of strawberries will begin this week.

Song Contest Fair Feature

A grange song contest will be staged at the 1941 Oregon state fair, making the third consecutive year that such an event has been a feature of farm organizations' day at the fair. The contest will be Friday of fair week, which opens September 1.

Participants in the grange song contest will be selected through local, county and regional eliminations. Cash prizes totaling $150 for nine divisions will be awarded by the fair. Only members of Oregon subordinate and juvenile granges will be eligible.

County contests, in charge of Pomona lectures, will be held before July 15 and regional contests before August 5. Centers tentatively selected for the regional eliminations are Forest Grove, Salem, Roseburg, Bend, Baker and The Dalles.

Only songs written prior to 1900 may be used for the contests.

finished. The program included round-table discussion on flowers led by Mrs. Abbut Mader; modern humorous child literature, Mrs. Lloyd Keen; proverb contest, with Mrs. J. F. C. Tekenburg and Mrs. M. Train Wrecks Turner Auto

TURNER—Emory Howe, employed at the Carl Williams farm, narrowly averted a serious accident Thursday when a north-bound freight train sideswiped his light coupe, practically demolishing the car, but with no injuries to the occupant.

Howe was driving into Turner and as the Battle Creek crossing is somewhat obscured by buildings erected near the right of way, he failed to see the approaching train. He was able to swerve his car alongside the track but with insufficient clearance so that the double-header freight hooked a bumper and hurled the car around.

This crossing, which has no signal device, is considered quite dangerous, as six deaths and several near fatalities have occurred there in the past few years.

Town Hall Meet Set at Swegle

"Should the United States Convoys Aid to Great Britain and Her Allies" will be the subject of a public town hall meeting being arranged by the executive committee of the Salem grange, according to Fred C. Klaus, lecturer. It will take place at the Swegle school, about a mile and a half east of Salem, on Monday.

After the presentation of argument on both sides, questions and answers will follow and a ballot taken.

Mrs. Fred Denham and Mrs. Clara Condit will entertain the group in June.
