Verse Builders Read Poems

Verse Builders, poetry study club, held its regular monthly business meeting on Tuesday at the chamber of commerce. Poems submitted by the members at the April meeting, which are criticized by Elna L. von Pingel of Portland, were read and discussed.

A report on the life and writings of the late Hazel Hall was given by Miss Marian Moore. Evelyn Erickson reported the acceptance of one of her poems by the poetry magazine, "Beat of the Wings." The group plans to hold the June meeting at the home of Ruth Norris and a dessert luncheon will precede the business meeting.

Those present were Evelyn Erickson, Dolores Bradbury, Ruth Norris, Marian Moore, Fleeta Helmhout and Ruby E. Farley.

Women's Corps Has Drill

The Salem unit of the Oregon Women's Ambulance corps accompanied by Sergeant Jirak, corps military advisor and drill instructor, visited McMinnville Wednesday night when a corps was organized there. The local corps is holding drill every Thursday at 7:30 p.m. on the CCC grounds near the state highway shops on State street.

Polka Dots and Geometric Designs Are Popular

Left, polka dot cotton print frock; center, black bengaline dress; right, cardigan type dress in doughnut pattern.

Polka dots and geometric designs are style favorites in spun rayon and cotton prints for this spring and summer. Colors spotlighted are jungle greens and the palest of pastels. Left above is a polka dot cotton print frock with ruffled edging around the notched collar and below-elbow length sleeves. Black with touches of white is always a favorite theme at all times of year. Center is shown a rayon bengaline black dress with long torso, full gathered skirt and white collar and cuffs trimmed with crisply pleated edging. A perfect costume for the collarless, casual dress is the geometric print that look for all the world like miniature doughnuts, right. The frock dramatizes the new sloping shoulder with shoulder yokes and below-elbow mandarin sleeves made all in one piece.

Pictures Viewed On Tuesday

The dinner meeting of the Business and Professional Women's club will be held at the Golden Pheasant on Tuesday at 6:30 p.m.

Motion pictures, in sound and color, will be shown by Mr. W. D. Crookes, Sun valley representative of the Union Pacific railroad, and will include "Rainbow Trails" depicting scenery in Bryce, Zion and the Grand Canyon national parks, and "Summer at Sun Valley." Members of the club are invited to bring guests.

Reports of the state convention will be given at the dinner meeting. Reservations for the dinner must be made with Mrs. Effie Arehart, phone 8893 from 9 to 5, or phone 3409 at other times. The executive board will meet tonight at 7 p.m. at the chamber of commerce.

Mrs. F. N. Jordan of Seattle arrived in the capital Thursday night to be the house guest of Mrs. Henry W. Meyers for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wymetalek, jr., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son Wednesday at the Salem General hospital.

Miss Harrison Is Married

MONITOR—At a lovely ceremony on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Miss Hazel Harrison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilnot Harrison, became the bride of Mr. Charles Tyler, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Tyler, of Woodburn. The wedding took place at the Elliott Prairie church with Rev. Van Winkle officiating.

Before the wedding Mrs. Myers sang "O Promise Me," and "I Love You Truly." Miss Anna Jack played wedding marches and accompaniments.

The bride given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of white lace, she carried a bouquet of cala lilies. Miss Aileen Brown was the maid of honor and she wore an orchid gown and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Mr. Emerson Baldwin was best man, and the ushers were Ralf and Merton Harrison. After the wedding, a reception was held at the home of C. W. Oasthout.

Mrs. Tyler was a graduate of the Elkton high school in Minnesota, where she was active in 4H club work. Since she moved to Oregon she has been with the county agent office at Oregon City.

Mr. Tyler was a graduate of the Woodburn high school, Monmouth Normal school and Oregon State college, where he has been active in forestry.

Breakfast at Utley Home

Mrs. Arthur Utley will be a breakfast hostess this morning at her home on the Wallace road when she entertains members of the public affairs committee of the YWCA. A business meeting will follow.

Guests will be Mrs. Karl Becke, president of the YWCA, Miss Helen Bocker, executive secretary of the YWCA, Mrs. Ralph Barnes, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff, Mrs. E. B. Daugherty, Mrs. Rex Putnam, Mrs. Ira L. Darby, Mrs. William Merriott, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. N. J. Lindgren and Mrs. Roy H. Mills.

Mrs. Ray Yocom entertained members of her club at the last meeting of the year on Tuesday afternoon at her North Summer street home. A salad luncheon was served with bridge following. The yearly prizes were awarded to Mrs. Moses Adams and Mrs. Ray Yocom.

Onions Now In Polite Society

They are raffing off onions and giving them for prizes in England. But we are treating them with far less respect than they deserve.

The humble onion clan is really one of the world's first families. Cleopatra knew about them, and great sums of money were spent on them, according to news bulletins found in the pyramids.

The onion and its cousins—chives, leeks, scallions, shallots—have been inhabiting the earth for over 4000 years and are at last in polite society.

Onions and their popular cousins make vegetable, seasoning, garnish; they are raw, broiled, baked or boiled.

In the first place, serve onions and oranges as a salad treat. Slice both thinly and let stand awhile, top with French dressing.

French onion soup of course is a cold weather dish but it turns into a spring special when served with a salad and chilled drink.

Green onions mustn't be forgotten as a fried vegetable, as a raw one or as a seasoning for meats.

Mrs. Sanderson Reed and her daughter, Sally, of Portland were visitors in the capital on Wednesday.

The auxiliary to the Carpenters' union met on Thursday night at Labor temple.

1½ cups sliced onions
¼ cup fat
2 teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon pepper
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
3 tablespoons chopped parsley
2 tablespoons flour
2½ cups water
2 cups diced raw potatoes
1 recipe bran pastry

Cut meat into 1-inch cubes, add onion and brown in fat. Stir in seasonings, parsley and flour; mix well. Add water slowly, stirring constantly. Add potatoes; cover and simmer about 30 minutes. Pour into greased 8½-inch casserole. Cover with all-bran pastry rolled ¼ inch thick. Bake in hot oven (450 degrees) about 20 minutes.

BRAN PASTRY
¼ cup bran
1½ cups flour
4 tablespoons cold water (more or less)
½ teaspoon salt
½ cup shortening

Roll bran until fine; combine with flour and salt. Cut in shortening. Add water, a little at a time, until dough is moist enough to hold together. Roll out on lightly floured board. Yield: 6 servings.

Today's Menu

Strawberries will be the day's dessert.
Shrimp Louis salad
With sliced tomatoes and cucumber
New carrots in cream
Potato chips
Strawberries and cream
BANANA OATMEAL COOKIES
1½ cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon soda

1 teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoons cinnamon
¼ cup shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg
1 cup mashed bananas (2 to 3 bananas)
1½ cups rolled oats
½ cup chopped nut meats

Use fully ripe or all-yellow bananas. Sift together flour, soda, salt and spices. Cream shortening well. Add sugar gradually and continue creaming until light and fluffy. Add egg and beat well. Add bananas, rolled oats and nut meats and mix thoroughly. Add flour mixture and blend. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto ungreased cookie pans about 1½ inches apart. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) about 15 minutes, or until cookies are done. Remove from pans at once. Makes about 3½ dozen.

In the lively old City of PILSEN men learned to brew the King of Beers

Beer from the pleasure-loving City of Pilsen had a brilliant clarity—a liveliness that came from long-lasting tiny bubbles rising continuously in your glass.

It possessed a flavor neither strong, bitter nor sweet. A light, mellow taste—marvelously satisfying.

A new appetizing smack that refreshed the drinker as no beer had done before.

The old-time City of Pilsen—renowned for 300 years for the quality of its beer. It is unlikely that those in America who relished this Pilsener beer will ever forget its flavor...

Will you accept an invitation? Will you taste at our risk a true-to-type Pilsner brewed in America?

We will leave it to you, after that, whether our Brown Derby Pilsner is twins with imported Pilsner.

We believe you will find in Brown Derby the sparkling lightness of Pilsner. The remarkably keen taste. The depth of flavor.

But you decide. After you've set lips to a cool glassful—after you've rolled Brown Derby Pilsner on your tongue, and tasted it in company with your favorite food—you judge Brown Derby for us.

WHEN you come to taste Brown Derby Pilsner, study the golden color, the crystal-clarity of the beer itself. Notice the tiny bubbles that race up to join the fragrant "collar." These are true Pilsner signs. Then drink... and judge! Unless you find Brown Derby Pilsner all we claim here—unless it satisfies you in every way—return it to the store where you bought it and they will refund your full purchase price.
