

Bride-Elect Honored At Tea

Mrs. William H. Lytle entertained with a lovely informal tea on Friday afternoon at her North Summer street home for the pleasure of Miss Martha Sprague, the June bride-elect of Mr. Melvin Timothy Hurley of San Francisco.

Guests called at 4 o'clock and a handkerchief shower honored the bride-to-be. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. Howard Gattie of Portland and Miss Rovena Eyre.

Presiding at the tea urns were Mrs. Ronald Jones and Mrs. Dean Walker of Independence. The tea table was attractive with an arrangement of Cecile Brunner roses and forget-me-nots.

Bidden to honor Miss Sprague were Mrs. Frank Jordan of Seattle, Mrs. Howard Gattie and Mrs. Robert Stanfield of Portland, Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Ronald Jones, Mrs. Brazier Small, Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, Miss Mabel P. Robertson, Miss Elizabeth Lord, Miss Edith Schryver, Miss Josephine Conroyer, Mrs. Henry A. Conroyer, Mrs. Louis Lachmund, Mrs. Frederick Lampert, Mrs. Daniel J. Fry, Jr., Mrs. Lowell Kern, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Miss Rovena Eyre, Mrs. Henry W. Meyers, Mrs. Helen Webster Beeler, Mrs. Dean Walker of Independence and Mrs. William Swindells of Dallas.

Arriving in the capital this afternoon will be Mrs. Russell Catlin and Mrs. Frank H. Spears, who have been on a two month's trip which took them to New York City, where they visited with Mr. Frank H. Spears, jr., Washington, D. C., Kansas, Arizona and California.

Pi Phi Alumnae Entertained

The home of Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry on West Lefelle street was the scene of the Pi Phi alumnae meeting on Thursday night with Mrs. Wolcott Buren and Mrs. Vern Miller assisting. A dessert supper was served and at the business meeting which followed Mrs. James Clayton reported on the district Pi Phi conference which she attended.

New officers of the group are Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, president; Mrs. Louis B. Schoel, vice-president; Mrs. Floyd Thompson, recording secretary; Mrs. Elbert Roberts, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harold Ladd, treasurer.

The group voted to buy a senior high school girl her graduation outfit and to send a Salem girl to the YWCA camp.

Attending were Mrs. Leslie Whitehouse, Mrs. Chester Zumwalt, Mrs. Floyd Thompson, Mrs. Edward Roth, Mrs. Carl Rickson, Mrs. Harold Ladd, Mrs. Edwin Keech, Mrs. James Humphrey, Mrs. Charles Huggins, Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Charles Coleman, Mrs. James Clayton, Mrs. Lee Bown, Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, Mrs. Elbert Roberts and the hostesses.

Miss Wade Hostess Today

Miss Corinne Wade, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis T. Wade, has bidden a large group of her friends to a May tea this afternoon at the Wade home on Hayden avenue. Calling hours are from 2:30 to 5 o'clock.

A group of Miss Wade's friends who will assist her informally are Miss Florence Lewis, Miss Jeanne DeMyt, Miss Rosemary Gaiser, Miss Roberta Paulus, Miss Jeanne and Miss Janice Myers, Miss Mary Ann Brady and Miss Jean Sechrist. Bouquets of spring flowers will be arranged about the rooms carrying out the blue and pink color scheme.

Salem Folk to Go East

Leaving today for an eastern trip are Mrs. David Wright, Mr. and Mrs. Claire Vibbert and daughter, Leota Claire, and Miss Jo Andrews of Portland.

The travellers are going east in the Wright car to South Bend, Indiana and there the Vibberts will pick up a new car and go on to the east coast. They plan to return via the southern route and will be gone three weeks.

Mrs. Wright and Miss Andrews will be in Pittsburgh the first week in June to attend the supreme temple of the Daughters of the Nile. Mrs. Wright is a past queen of Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile in Portland. They plan to drive west shortly after the sessions close and will be gone about three weeks.

Credit Women At Breakfast

Members of the Salem Women's Breakfast Club met at the Argo Tuesday with Ruth Norris presiding. Special guests were Miss Norma Short, Westley McWain and Francis Smith, newly elected president of the Associated Credit Bureaus of the Pacific Northwest, who spoke on happenings at the Conference in Tacoma. Mr. McWain was the feature speaker of the morning. Miss Lena Blum, newly elected president of the Pacific Northwest Council of Breakfast Clubs, announced Miss Velma Strain as her corresponding secretary.

Reports were given by several members of activities at the conference in Tacoma, and the Salem Club brought back the attendance trophy. Those attending were Ruth Norris, Lena Blum, Irene Simpson, Alta Meyers, Lillian Kayser, Marion MacLachlan, Doris Mattison, Medora Hyett, Josephine Sharping, Dorothy Frahm, Isabelle Leeper, Velma Strain, Jenny Clark and Bessie Kayser. Josephine Sharping sang special selections in Tacoma accompanied by Mrs. Medora Hyett.

Miss Eberly to Wed Mr. Abbott

At a luncheon for which Mrs. Howard Eberly was hostess at Barclay House on Saturday for her daughter, Miss Elaine Eberly, announcement was made of her engagement to Mr. Harold Abbott, son of Mr. Clyde Abbott of Portland. There was no date set for the wedding but it will probably be an event of next winter.

Miss Eberly, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Eberly of Oregon City, attended Willamette university and is a member of Delta Phi sorority. Mr. Abbott is now attending the university and is a member of Alpha Psi fraternity.

Willamette coeds attending the luncheon were Miss Billie Jean Gillilan, Miss Shirley Caulfield and Miss Eloise Winn. Quaint corsages of Cecile Brunner roses and bouvardia bearing scrolls told of the betrothal news.

Mrs. Walling Is Hostess

Mrs. Jesse Walling was hostess to members of the KCKT club Thursday afternoon at her home. Roses provided the decorative note and the hostess was assisted at the tea hour by Mrs. Ray Clark and Mrs. Harry Rowe.

Members attending were Mrs. Fred Barker, Mrs. Ray Clark, Mrs. E. J. Donnell, Mrs. Mary Rogers, Mrs. Nellie Knox, Mrs. Della Schellberg, Mrs. Roy Wassan, Mrs. Harry Rowe, Mrs. A. A. Graber, Mrs. C. W. Stege and Mrs. G. A. Saunders.

Shower Fetes Miss Clark On Friday

Mrs. Harrison W. Elgin, jr. and Miss Lucile Brainard were hostesses for a smartly arranged party Friday night at the former's apartment at the Glendora. The affair complimented Miss Marguerite Clark of Portland, who has recently announced that her marriage to Mr. Louis Stutt, formerly of Salem, will be an event of the early summer.

Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Clark of Portland and her fiancé is the son of Mrs. J. O. Stutt of Woodburn. The bride-elect is a graduate of Willamette university and a member of Beta Chi sorority. Mr. Stutt attended Willamette university and was affiliated with Sigma Tau fraternity. He is now with the Portland Gas and Coke company and the couple will reside in Portland after their marriage.

A dessert supper was served by the hostesses and pink roses centered the small tables. Other bouquets of roses were arranged about the living room. Bridge was in play during the evening and a bathroom shower feted the bride-to-be. Honoring Miss Clark were her sister, Mrs. William Bradford of Salem, Mrs. Joseph E. Harvey, jr., Mrs. Wheeler R. English, Mrs. Kenneth G. Manning, Mrs. George Abbott, Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren, Miss Charlotte Kallander, Miss Eleanor Trindle, Miss Melva Belle Savage, Miss Lucile Brainard and Mrs. Harrison Elgin.
