Storm Brings Heavy Rains

FOX VALLEY—The electric storm, that visited this vicinity Monday afternoon, was severe. Lightning hit trees at the Hobson and Cornforth places. No serious damage was done.

A heavy hail and rain accompanied the thunder and lightning. Water stood on fields like a lake and the highway resembled a good sized creek for sometime.

Unionists Give US Defense Poster to Roosevelt

An original oil painting, bearing the legend "AF of L. 100 per cent for Defense" was presented to President Roosevelt in Washington by William Green (left, standing), president of the American Federation of Labor, and George Meany, secretary-treasurer.

Silverton IEU Disbands and Ex-Members Sign With AFL

SILVERTON—Industrial Employees Union, local 50 of district number two, voted at a meeting lasting until after midnight Tuesday to disband, according to a statement issued Wednesday morning by Ed Lambert, secretary. Mr. Lambert gave "action taken by the parent body of the IEU" as the reason.

Before the former IEU members left the hall Tuesday night, 95 per cent of them had signed membership application cards with the AFL, Mr. Lambert said.

While there is as yet no local AFL it is expected that meetings for this purpose will be held early in June.

The IEU was the outgrowth of the old Loyal Legion of Loggers and Lumbermen, which was disbanded following the passage of the Wagner act. Since its organization it has been the bargaining agency at the local mill.

SILVERTON—The 106 seniors of the Silverton high school completed their examinations Tuesday and will not be required to go to class any more. Annual class night was held Tuesday, and two other events remain for the group as high school students.

First of these is baccalaureate services Sunday night at 8 o'clock when Rev. O. C. Olson, Calvary Lutheran church, will give the sermon at the high school auditorium. He will speak on "The Governing Principle of Life." This year's class numbers eight less than that of a year ago.

Commencement will be held June 4 and Dr. O. R. Chambers, department of psychology, Oregon State college, will give the address.

Miss Marjory Maulding won valedictorian honors from Gerome Tasto by one-hundredth of a point. Both of these students are from the Silverton Hills rural district.

Eight others who received scholastic honors are Juanita Moe, Dick Adams, Robert Neal, Irving Keunzi, Phyllis Grogan, Alice Cunningham, Donna Krug and Vera Janik. These have averaged a grade of two or better during their four years of high school.

A business meeting was held with the president, Mrs. Roy Woodman, presiding. During the afternoon a grocery shower was held for the new minister and his family, who are to arrive in Dallas the first of the month.

Mrs. E. E. Frederick and Mrs. Henry Friesen were guests. Members present were Mrs. J. G. Van Orsdel, Mrs. Fred Stinnett, Mrs. E. V. Dalton, Mrs. J. F. Spooner, Mrs. V. W. Grant, Mrs. Delwin Reimner, Mrs. Oramel Shreeve, Mrs. Irene Adam, Mrs. E. B. Bossatti, Mrs. Roy Donahue, Mrs. C. H. Greenwood, Mrs. Donald Gabbert, Mrs. E. W. Cruson, Mrs. Carl Bales, Mrs. Morris Walton, Mrs. W. C. Leth, Mrs. Roy Woodman and the hostess, Mrs. Maurice Dalton.

This will be the last meeting of the season and will be held at the Dickerson cabin on the Abiqua. Mrs. S. A. Pitney is the assistant hostess.

Timber Land Is Purchased

Mill City Firm Tells of Second Buy; Road Under Construction

MILL CITY—Purchase of 320 acres of private timber land by the Mill City Manufacturing company was announced Wednesday by J. F. Potter, manager. Two 160-acre tracts of yellow fir and hemlock between the Blowout Creek and North Santiam river watersheds two miles south of the Hal L. Cutler and George Danfel estates. Sum involved in the transaction was not disclosed by Potter.

Acquisition of the 320 acres follows by a few weeks the purchase of 1,200 acres of timber from the forest service for $85,000. The forest land, now being cut by the Mill City company, is three miles south of the new holdings and 21 miles from Mill City.

Construction of a new road into the private land is being started this week with a "160" caterpillar tractor and shovel. Two miles of graveled logging road will be built north from the present company road seven miles southeast of the North Santiam highway, and cutting on the 320 acres is expected to start early next year, said Potter. Road is also being constructed into the forest service land for one mile.

The Mill City Manufacturing company has purchased more than 3000 acres of timber since it began operation in 1936. All except the 1200 acres of government land was bought outright, according to Potter.

MILL CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Davis, West Fir, visited in Mill City over the weekend with the A. F. Roda family.

Mrs. Charles Howe is visiting friends and relatives in Longview, Wash., this week.

MILL CITY—Twenty-seven piano students of Mrs. Robert Schroeder were presented Tuesday night at the Church of Christ in a piano recital. During the intermission Delores Chitwood, Betty Chitwood and Virginia Johnson, accompanied by Ken Thompson, all of stayton, sang two selections.

MILL CITY—Thirteen grade school pupils from Mill City were awarded scholarships to the 4H summer school at Corvallis, June 9 to 20, at the eighth grade commencement Monday.

Those who will attend the school are Keith Grimes, Robert Daves, Bird Davis, Phyllis Mundt, Virginia Daves, Cleone Kaplinger, Mary Ann Bruder, Clifford Swift, Dale Hoeye, Isabel Mason, Ursula Witt, Beulah Comer, Maxine Probst.

Awards of three Rice system writing certificates, the highest writing honors possible for grade school students, were made to Mavis Mundt, Phyllis Mundt and Nadine Hurt.

Guest of Parents

KEIZER—Mr. and Mrs. Thippis and son, Donald, Portland, and Mrs. Floid Kester and sons, Van and Ralph, were weekend guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Thompson, Keizer. While here they attended the Evangelical conference in Salem.

Couple Leave On Trip East

LAKE LABISH—Mrs. J. W. Burr, Lake Labish teacher, accompanied by her husband left immediately after the close of the school for a trip east, which will take them to Washington, D.C. The Burrs will buy an automobile at the factory in Springfield, Ill., and will drive home by way of Yellowstone Park, arriving the first of July.

LAKE LABISH—Donald Mears, Fred Lee and Shirley Girod completed the eighth grade and received diplomas from Herman Hahn.

Last Thursday a neighborhood picnic marked the closing of the work at this 50-year-old school district.

Money Given by Club for Books

DALLAS—A meeting of the Junior Woman's club was held Monday with Miss Velma Schroeder, president, presiding.

Mrs. Oscar Hayter, who will take the place of Mrs. A. R. Hartman as advisor to the club, was present. Other guests were Mrs. Edward Janzen and Miss Mary McLaughlin.

The club voted to contribute some money for the purchase of books for the public library for the use of children between five and 10 years.

Mrs. Lloyd Hughes was elected delegate to the meeting of the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs to be held in Corvallis the first of the month.

This was the last business meeting of the club until fall.

Members present were Mrs. George Gould, jr., Mrs. Morris Walton, Mrs. Lloyd Hughes, Miss Velma Schroeder, Miss Julia LaBarr, Miss Laura Marsh, Miss Jo Greenwood, Miss Dorothy Palmer, Miss Ruth Betts and Miss Gertrude Kliever.
