Arntz-Piatz Vows Said

MT. ANGEL—Against a background of white peachbells in the sanctuary of St. Mary's church the marriage of Miss Mathilda Piatz of Mt. Angel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Piatz of Napoleon, North Dakota, and Norman Arntz of Portland, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Arntz of Benton Harbor, Mich., was solemnized at 8 o'clock Saturday morning, June 14.

Rev. Father Alcuin read the vows and was celebrant at the nuptial high mass. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding march and accompanied St. Mary's choir. Miss Pauline Saalfeld sang the solos.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Joseph Piatz. Her gown was a model of white satin with square neck and long train and a row of satin buttons down the back. She wore a short, lace-edged veil with double face veil and a coronet of corded tulle and seed pearls, and carried a bouquet of gardenias and white bouvardia.

Her only attendant was the groom's sister, Miss Loretta Arntz of Benton Harbor, Mich. She wore a gown of pink organza with full skirt, square neck and short puffed sleeves and a matching hat. Her bouquet was of pink rosebuds and lavender sweet peas.

Jack White of Salem, cousin of the groom, was best man.

Immediately after the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's brother. At noon covers were placed for 25 guests at the wedding dinner in the Legion hall. Pink and white carnations and white tapers decorated the table which was centered by the wedding cake.

Miss Tony Baker and Miss Christine Eberle assisted with the serving. The reception from 2 to 4 o'clock was held at the hall.

After a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Arntz will be at home in Portland. For going away the bride wore a navy blue ensemble with white accessories.

SOCIAL

Convention Attracts Many

Of special interest to the Salem Lions club members and auxiliary this week is the annual state convention to open today and continue through Tuesday in Bend.

The auxiliary sessions will be held at the Orpheum theatre and Mrs. Harry W. Scott of Salem, president, will preside. Slated for tonight is a banquet and concert to be given by the Tournament of Roses Pasadena band. On Monday there will be a barbecue breakfast and a governor's banquet and ball. Highlight of Tuesday's session will be the election of officers.

Attending officially from Salem will be Mrs. Harry Scott, Mrs. Ronald Jones, state secretary, Mrs. George Rhoten, publicity chairman, and Mrs. A. C. Haag, president of the Salem Lions auxiliary. Other auxiliary members planning to attend are Mrs. Roy Stewart, Mrs. C. F. Putnam, Mrs. Vinton Scott and Mrs. William Newmyer.

Miss Elizabeth James, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. James, arrived in Salem Friday to spend several days with her parents. She looks graduate work in library science at the University of Denver this year and will return there on Wednesday to take a temporary position at the Denver public library.

A benefit card party will be held for members of the drill team of the Neighbors of Woodcraft at the home of Mrs. D. D. Olmstead at 245 Union street at 8 o'clock Monday. Pinochle and 500 will be in play.

Etika club members will meet at 9 o'clock on Tuesday morning to eat a picnic breakfast at Silver Creek falls. Mrs. E. M. McKee is in charge of transportation.

Mrs. Henry G. Carl's home at 965 E street will be the scene of a garden luncheon for members of the East Central circle of the First Methodist church on Wednesday. A covered dish luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock.

The Cheskchamoy Camp Fire girls' group from the First Presbyterian church enjoyed several days camping this last week at their Camp Kilowan. Several members of the Odako Camp Fire group were in the party. Mrs. George Bagnall, guardian for both groups, accompanied the girls and was assisted by Mrs. George Lewis and Mrs. Silas Gaiser. Girls going included Rosemary Gaiser, Mary Parker, Florence Lewis, Corinne Wade, Leona Wallace, Ardie Mae Phillips, Jeanne De Mytt and Delores Birch.

Six of the girls have registered for the summer camp to be held at Camp Kilowan in July. Mrs. Bagnall will serve as assistant camp director and nature counsellor at the camp. Of interest to parents of Salem girls who are in this age group is the fact that girls can attend this camp even if they are not members of a Camp Fire group. Further information for those who are interested may be secured by calling Mrs. George Bagnall.

The Spinsters will meet on Monday night at the home of Miss Alice Unruh at 7:30 p. m. Regular business in on the evening's schedule. College members will be present.

The social afternoon meeting of Hal Hibbard auxiliary has been postponed from Tuesday afternoon.
