

Lebanon Sets Bible School

Four Churches Joined in Enterprise With Cruise Theme

LEBANON—A union Bible school will be held by the Baptist, Methodist, Christian and Presbyterian churches. Classes will begin Monday, June 16, and will be held in the Sunday school rooms of the Methodist church.

The plan of the work is to have the children officers of the Gospel ship, which is to make a two-week cruise. All projects will be built around this theme.

In previous years only grade school children were provided for. This year there will be a department of pre-school grade also.

Another new department this season is the special invitation to children who live out of town.

Mrs. William Forster is in charge of the school, which is being sponsored by the ministerial association, of which the Rev. Lawrence Bixler of the Church of Christ is president. Arlo Robbins will have charge of the older children; Mrs. Ralph Gilson of the juniors; Mrs. Don Landstrom of the primary group and Mrs. Dove Smith of the pre-school department.

No tuition is charged and all children are invited regardless of church affiliations.

Pro-America met Wednesday in the garden of Mrs. J. C. Mayer's home and heard Mrs. Roy T. Bishop of Portland explain to new members the purposes and accomplishments of the organization.

She stressed particularly the efforts of the groups to study the background of our government and social organization as well as the probable effects of policies voted on.

Marry at Vancouver

SILVERTON—Miss Virginia Bee and Harlan Loe were married at Vancouver, Wash., Friday night with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Loe as attendants.

They will make their home at Portland.

Suver News

SUVER—Dick Maxwell of Portland came down Saturday afternoon to spend the summer helping his uncle, Alton Benedict, with harvest.

Those from here who went to Alpine Friday to attend the Saturday luncheon club at the home of Mrs. Ed Larsen were Mrs. W. Vanderpool, Mrs. R. Kester, Mrs. S. Benedict, Mrs. Sam Suver, Mrs. John Heffle, Mrs. A. Flickinger and Mrs. Earl Conkey was a guest.

Miss Dorothy Anderson is working in the office at Meier and Frank's in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Larsen were to leave the first of the week for a trip to Wisconsin to visit her mother and other relatives. They are driving through and going by way of California.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Penter of Oregon City are the parents of a son, born May 29 in the Oregon City hospital. He has been named Kent Howard. Mr. Penter is a former local boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kester attended the high school graduation exercises at Rickreall, to see their niece, Barbara Kester, graduate and sing a solo at the exercises.

Mr. Frank Johnson of The Dalles spent the week end here with his husband and at the Alfred Flickinger home.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Flickinger entertained friends Tuesday evening from dinner, serving fresh trout from Gold lake. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hamner of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. W. Vanderpool, Mr. and Mrs. John Heffle, Mr. and Mrs. Benedict, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kester and Frank Johnson. Mr. Johnson entertained the group with piano accompaniment following dinner.

Mrs. Walter Vanderpool is attending the first six weeks of summer school at OCE, driving back and forth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Flickinger and Darrell Winn spent Wednesday night at Gold lake, where they went to fish. Bonnie Jean spent the time with Patsy Kester.

Mrs. Dick Tom is much better after her recent heart attack. Miss Betty Bose, who has been helping here, has returned home.

Leo Hanthorne, timber faller for Cooper's mill, cut his index finger to the bone when his axe slipped while he was cutting a log.

"On Carpet"

Alex Balint

Alex Balint, one of the leaders of C. I. O.'s National Association of Die Casters' strike at the Aluminum Corporation of America plants in Cleveland, which are working on huge defense orders, is pictured as he addressed the strikers in a field near the main plant after returning from Washington where he faced the Dies committee on charges of having Communist leanings. A settlement of the strike was reached by negotiators in Washington to be ratified by strikers in Cleveland.

Start of New Project Set

About 60 Men to Work on Tennis Court, Woodburn Streets

WOODBURN—Woodburn's new $22,820 WPA project will get underway Wednesday, unless there is another change in plans. When the project was approved last week it was thought that work would not be started for a month or maybe longer. Work was received from Salem that the project would get underway June 10 and the last date set was for June 18.

It was indicated there will be a crew of about 60 workers, part of them on the new tennis court on library square and the rest will go to work on Hardcastle avenue. The first job there will be digging a drainage ditch.

Both Hardcastle avenue and Gatch street improvement jobs have been approved by the city council and the council plans formally to adopt an ordinance assessing the cost of material against the property owners. The WPA project takes care of the labor only.

Funeral Rites Held For Mehama Man

MEHAMA—Funeral services were held Wednesday in the Christian church at Mill City for one of Mehama's eldest settlers, Anthony Y. Myers, who died Monday morning at his home above Mehama after an illness of several months.

Mr. Myers was born in Ohio in 1856, and became a member of the Baptist church at the age of 17 years and has remained a member ever since. He and Mrs. Myers, who still lives, were married in 1880. Eleven children were born to this union.

The following children survive, Albert, Tant, Gilbert and Louis of Mehama, Steve of Grande Ronde, Ike, and Grace Marston of Gresham and Mary Stafford of Lyons; also many grandchildren.

The Myers have lived in the Elkhorn community a great many years, having come here from Texas and homesteading their large acreage.

Valley Events

June 21-22—Tour of Hampshire breeding establishments and experiment station, OSC.

August 8—Mt. Angel Flax Festival.

Santiam Bean Festival Events Listed for July

STAYTON—A queen's contest will be held for the 1941 Santiam Bean festival at Stayton. The carnival and festival will be held July 15 to 20.

Other highlights of the festival will be a log bucking contest, outdoor dances, etc.

The queen, crown princesses and the four princesses will receive United States defense bonds as prizes for their work besides representing the North Santiam valley. The queen will receive a bond with a face value of $100, the crown princesses, $50 and each of the four princesses will receive a $25 bond.

The candidate who sells the most buttons will be queen and the next highest will be the crown princess; and the four next highest will be princesses in that order.

Business houses, fraternal organizations and outside cities are sponsoring their favorite candidates for the contest.

School Meet Monday, Scio

Voters to Give Opinion on Remodeling of Grade Building

Qualified voters of Scio school district are to express, at the annual meeting June 16, their sentiments on the proposal of the school board to remodel the grammar school building here, at an estimated expense of $3000.
