Section 2, Pages 1 to 6

The fall migration of Salem personalities has begun. Pictured on this page are a number of Salem women and girls who are leaving soon, or have left, to live somewhere else.

Miss Gretchen Thielsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. William Thielsen has decided to seek sunny skies in California. She left this weekend for San Francisco and will look around for a position. She has been employed at the veteran's state aid commission for several years.

The former Eleanor Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Johnson, married Mr. Tyrone Gillespie, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Gillespie at her parents' home on August 30. She and her new husband have gone to live in Detroit.

Betty Buchanan, popular Salem coed, has a fellowship to Washington State college and leaves the middle of the month for Pullman. Betty graduated from University of Oregon where she was a Chi Omega, president of the Associated Women Students and Junior Prom queen. She's working for her Master's in English.

Mrs. William H. Hammond and daughter Constance, are to live near Tacoma and will leave Salem this week. Major Hammond is stationed at Fort Lewis.

Dr. and Mrs. Bruce Titus have moved away, to live in St. Louis, Missouri. With the children, Bruce, Jackie, Timothy and Nancy, they left the first of this month. The two older boys and their father went by car and Mrs. Titus and the twins are in Eugene for a short visit before going by plane to their new home town. Dr. Titus is to take graduate work at Washington University.

Jeanette Wieder is on her way to Chicago to attend Ferry Hall boarding school on Lake Forest. She left by train on Monday.
