NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—The team which everyone expected to go places in the American league this year went farther than anyone expected. It went from first to fourth, and possibly fifth, in about three months, and for this reason we have a hunch that the biggest battle when the annual winter shakeups occur will come from the Cleveland Indians.

We took note of an Indian box score recently, and with the exception of two or three familiar names it might have been the lineup of a team in the Tri-county league. Roger Peckinpaugh is losing no time in trying to find out what he can expect of the young fellows the club is bringing up. He knows what he can expect of the veterans, and in several bases he knows it isn't peace and quiet. Roy Weatherly has been suspended so often he's beginning to look like the George Washington bridge.

Had not so much been expected of the Indians the situation wouldn't be so bad. But when a team falls flat on its face two years in a row, it's obvious that something must be done. The club officials thought it was the manager's fault the first time. Now they should be convinced it isn't the manager, and just as a guess we'd say that Peckinpaugh will be back next year.

Cleveland fans have been educated to expect nothing short of a championship. Consequently when the team ran out of gas after its early-season spurge, the wind went out of the fans like they had been jabbed with a hat pin.

With the club hopelessly out of the race for some time, the fans lost interest entirely. With their first-place or nothing complex, they don't seem to care whether it finishes second or seventh, and this disinterest has given the officials an opportunity to start laying the foundation for next year on the crumbling ruins of this year's folding Phillips.

The club, until lately anyway, had a chance in the free-for-all for the No. 2 spot. Instead of putting the strongest lineup into the fight, the Indians virtually have given up, concentrating their efforts on building for 1942.

In one game the other day they had a fellow named Jack Conway at shortstop, a guy by the name of Bob Lemon at third base, another stranger named Jim Hegan behind the plate, and a gent listed in the lineup as Frierson in left field.

The only trouble is that Peckinpaugh may not even have Bob Feller next year. The army probably will get him on waivers long before next April.

Scrimmage Set Today At Vik Villa

First scrimmage of Harold Hauk's 1941 Viking grid turnout is set for this afternoon at Salem high school, with more than 50 padded candidates out.

Hauk said he expected from action of the boys to see better what material was available for the squad which plays the opener September 26 at Milwaukie.

So far hopeful backfield candidates over-balance the linemen who have appeared in the more than 50 boys out the past two sessions. Tackles seem to be the biggest lack.

Coast Squads Scrimmage Hard; Beaver Reserves Told to Warm Up Often and Carry Helmets

SEATTLE, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Coach Jimmy Phelan said Wednesday the University of Washington would concentrate on offensive tactics, rather than on defense, for the major inter-sectional football battle with Minnesota here September 27.

"We want to get possession of the ball and keep possession," the Washington coach snapped. "That's the only way a team stands a chance against the likes of Minnesota. We want to be loaded by the time they come to town, and if hard work will do it we will be."

Bevo Subs Warned

CORVALLIS, Ore., Sept. 17.—(AP)—The new football rule permitting unlimited substitutions is going to be tough on Oregon State college bench sitters.

Coach Lon Stiner ruled Wednesday that all subs must have their helmets with them at all times. They must also get up from the bench every five minutes and gallop about so they will be warmed up and ready for instant call.

Fight at Guards

MOSCOW, Idaho, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Hottest race in the University of Idaho football camp right now is the campaign for starting assignments at the guard posts left vacant of lettermen by graduation.

The battle at present stacks up a pair of transfers, John Cermak of Lewiston Normal and Dean Lewis of Albion Normal, against two 1940 reserves, Cleo Rowe and Bill Lockey.

Another Albion transfer, Ralph Hepworth, has been working at fullback despite his mere 175 pounds.

Cougar Backs out

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 17.—(AP)—A Washington State college football squad freshly out of fullbacks worked Wednesday in defensive tactics designed to halt the "QT" formation of UCLA in the season opener Sept. 26 in Los Angeles.

Les McLennan and Rex Bantz, regular fullbacks, were out of action with injuries and Coach Babe Hollingbery rushed sophomore Earl Brenneis into the gap.

Lineman Frank Londos also was given a crack at the job.

The squad will leave Tuesday for its Friday night tussle with UCLA.

Cal Tries Passing

BERKELEY, Calif., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Coach L. B. "Stub" Allison sent his California Bears through an extensive drill on passing Wednesday and indicated that more of the same was on the football practice slate in efforts to make the club a definite aerial threat in the St. Mary's game here September 27.

Stanfords Worn out

PALO ALTO, Calif., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Still aching from Tuesday's 90-minute initial scrimmage, Stanford's football team was ready to call it quits after a one-hour session of contact work Wednesday, and Coach Clark Shaughnessy wound up the drill with a series of sprint races. The Indians open against Oregon a week from Saturday.

Hurt Ukes Back

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Several UCLA football players who have been nursing minor injuries returned to the practice field Wednesday.

Included was hefty Bill Grubb, a guard, who has been kicked in the ribs.

A lengthy passing drill was held.

Trojans Preview

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The University of Southern California football forces staged a "preview of a preview" of a practice game Wednesday, and the first string ran wild against a collection of scrubs in the first 10 minutes.

Stronger reserves were called in to quell the varsity attack, led by Quarterback Bob Robertson, and the touchdown parade was stemmed.

Coach Sam Barry has scheduled a regulation exhibition, replete with officials, for Saturday.

Oregon Season Opens Saturday For Deer; Nimrod Allowed One

PORTLAND, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Oregon's mule and blacktail deer seasons will open simultaneously Sept. 20 and close Oct. 25, the state game commission announced Wednesday.

Each hunter is entitled to have not less than forked horns. Both deer tags on the general hunting license must be attached to the deer as soon as the kill is made.

Three thousand eight hundred doe tags have been issued already for a limited season in restricted areas. One of the doe areas will be in portions of Lake and Klamath counties, the other in parts of Grant, Crook and Wheeler counties.

The commission cautioned that all hunters must register at check-stations before entering and on leaving doe hunting areas, whether or not a kill is made.

Two areas will be opened to antelope hunting. In the first, covering that part of Malheur county south of the Burns-Ontario highway, the season will open Sept. 22 and close Oct. 5. In the second, portions of Lake and Harney counties will be open from Sept. 28 to Oct. 5. The game commission reported that the 3000 special tags authorized for antelope hunting were nearly exhausted.

Special gun regulations this year forbid use of shotguns loaded with buckshot or bird shot to hunt or kill any big game.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Cardinals edged a little nearer Brooklyn by sweeping a double header from the Boston Braves Wednesday, 6 to 1 and 3 to 2, and now trail the leaders by only one game.

Estel Crabtree, 37-year-old outfielder, smacked a home run in the ninth inning of the second fray to bring victory in a pitchers' duel between Max Lanier and Jim Tobin.

His home run in the seventh inning of the first game tied the score and then in the eighth came a five-run spurge on Brave misplays, two walks and three hits.

The pitching in the first game was topnotch and until he blew up in the eighth Tom Earley was the equal of Rookie Howard Pollet who came through with his fourth victory against one defeat in the month he has been in the majors. His first victory was against the Braves.

First game: Boston 1 8 7 1 St. Louis 6 2 2 Earley, Johnson (8) and Masi; Pollet and Mancuso.

Second game: Boston 2 5 0 St. Louis 3 6 0 Tobin and Berres; Lanier and Mancuso.

Reds Win Two

CINCINNATI, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Cincinnati's Reds took a twin bill from Philadelphia Wednesday, a hit batsman with the bases full doing the trick 3 to 2 in the nightcap after Johnny Vander Meer yielded but three hits and fanned 11 to win the opener, 1 to 0.

The first game was Vander Meer all the way running his series of strikeouts to 195. He walked none until Johnny Rizzo batted for Rube Melton in the ninth.

The nightcap was marked by three hit batsmen of which Bill Werber was the last. Harry Craft was knocked cold in the sixth and sent to a hospital for x-ray tests and Gene Thompson contributed one.

Richardson, who yesterday defeated Ted Schroeder of Glendale, Calif., staged off three match points in the deciding set to enter the semi-final round opposite Oakland Frankie Kovacs.

Kovacs won by default from William Talbert, Cincinnati, 6-4. In the second set, with Talbert leading 4-1, he pulled a leg muscle and had to retire.

Jack Kramer, Montebello, advanced to the quarter-finals to meet National Champion Bobby Riggs with a 6-1, 6-4 victory over James Wade, Stanford university.

In women's singles, Margaret Osborne, San Francisco, defeated Mrs. Midge Van Ryn, Austin, Tex., 6-1, 6-3, and Gertrude Dockstad, Los Angeles, defeated Barbara Bradley, Los Angeles, 7-5, 7-5.

Doubles results, all third round matches: National Doubles Champions Kramer and Schroeder defeated Tom Falkenburg and Arthur McDonald, Los Angeles, 6-2, 6-1; Larry Dee and Wade, Stanford, defeated Joe Bachman and Dale Isenbuth, Los Angeles, 6-3, 6-4; Surface and Douglas Woodbury defeated Talbert and John Van Ryn, 6-3, 8-6; Dorothy Bundy and Valerie Scott, England, defeated Virginia May and Joan Herrick, Los Angeles, 6-2, 6-2, and Miss Scott and Talbert defeated Patricia Rose and George Richards, 6-2, 4-6, 6-3.

Golfing Pioneer Bill Mader Dies

SPOKANE, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Willard D. "Bill" Mader, professional at the city's downriver golf course for 20 years and widely known as a teacher of long-iron play, died Wednesday.

Mader, 49, was stricken Sunday with a cerebral hemorrhage and failed to recover, although his physician said the patient "put up as stubborn a fight for life as I have ever seen."

He helped his father lay out some of the region's first golf courses and was the first professional at the Hayden Lake, Idaho, layout. Survivors include his widow and a brother, Edward Mader of Portland, Ore.

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 17.—(AP)—Lee Savold, 189, Des Moines heavyweight, abruptly ended the professional winning streak of Lou Brooks, 175½, Wilmington negro, Wednesday night in the sixth round of a scheduled 10-round bout.

Brooks, former 175 pound eastern golden glove champion, had won his first eight bouts as a professional boxer, but he was no match for the Des Moines veteran. The knockout came in two minutes and 50 seconds of the sixth.

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The New York Yankees broke up what might have been a sparkling pitching duel between Spud Chandler and Ed Smith Wednesday by blasting across four runs in the fifth inning to beat the Chicago White Sox 5 to 3.

The Bombers made six hits in their big uprising, one of them Tommy Henrich's 31st home run with two on for the runs that won the game. The Yanks made only two other blows in the entire contest, but one was a triple by Johnny Sturm for a run in the first.

Bill Dickey, seeking a major league record for catching in 100 games a year for 13 seasons, played the first two innings for the Yanks and then retired. He needs three more games to beat the 12-year mark he now holds jointly with Gabby Hartnett and Ray Schalk.

Boxox Edge Win

BOSTON, Sept. 17.—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox, surging from behind with a two-run ninth-inning rally, extended their current victory string to eight straight Wednesday as they defeated the dispirited Cleveland Indians and a former teammate Jim Bagby, 3-2.

Joe Dobson, who came to the Sox from Cleveland last winter, had much better luck than Bagby with his old teammates, limiting them to six hits, all singles, although Peck's bad boys blustered three of them in the second to collect a lead which stood up until the Boston half of the ninth.

Cleveland 2 6 1 Boston 3 10 1 Bagby and Hegan; Dobson and Pylak.

Senators Hit 20

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—(AP)—Three straight singles in the tenth inning brought the Washington Senators a 9-8 victory over the St. Louis Browns Wednesday.

The Senators combed three St. Louis hurlers for 20 blows.

Chapman previously had put the A's ahead with his 24th home run of the season in the fourth inning. Detroit 3 4 0 Philadelphia 2 7 3 Benton and Tebbetts; Marchildon, Vaughn (8) and Wagner.
