

Fall Results In Leg Injury

Classes Open Monday At Cloverdale; Dinner Given

CLOVERDALE—Mrs. A. A. Dumbeck received a painful leg injury and possibly a cracked bone of the left leg when she fell recently while assisting at the lunch at Maude Bones' sale. The injury is somewhat better but she has now contracted tonsillitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Fisher spent the past week end visiting their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fisher, West Fir.

Mrs. Joe Morris received word of the death of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Elmer Dickson, Newberg.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook and daughter Martha, Hood River were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jarmans this week end. The Cooks formerly lived in this community.

A birthday dinner party given in honor of Mrs. Henry Fellers was enjoyed Monday at the home of her mother, Mrs. Caroline Drager. Those present were Henry Feller and son, Robert, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Drager, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Drager and children, Karleen and Margie, Hilda McMahan, Mrs. Caroline Drager and the honored guest.

Gene Shilling, of this community, has been called and will leave to take his place in the army October 10.

Dinner guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Petersen were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heard and children, Dallas, and Mr. and Mrs. Neis Natsan, Boring, Ore.

The Cloverdale school will open Monday. Mrs. Gayette Barnett will again teach the primary grades and Mrs. Iverson, Marshfield, will teach the upper room.

Nazi U-Boats Hold Rendezvous in North Atlantic

German submarines meet in the Atlantic, coming to the surface to permit their commanders to map further attacks on British shipping. A small rubber boat is shown going from one U-boat to the other. Note some of the men wear shorts. This might indicate a South Atlantic location. These U-boats are the "rattlesnakes" President Roosevelt aimed the U. S. navy at in his dramatic radio address recently.

Aumsville News

AUMSVILLE—L. F. Mitchell, Arlington, arrived here the past week to take over the barber shop at Roberts store, conducting the work after Hastings moved. Mrs. Mitchell will join her husband here soon.

At present she is in Portland caring for her husband's father who is ill with an infection of the leg, necessitating its amputation. He is 94 years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mountain moved their household goods here from Coburg, Saturday and are living in the D. A. Lowe house.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Otto and daughters, Roma and Norma, Otto's mother, Mrs. Helen Otto, Portland, who is visiting them, moved back to their home here Saturday after being away for the summer.

The Christian Sunday school, which had been dismissed for several weeks, resumed work last Sunday with a good attendance.

Mrs. Claude Boone is superintendent. New assistants in the Sunday school this year are Mrs. Lester Solman, song leader, and Mrs. Donna Davidson, teacher of the intermediate class. All people of the community who are not attending Sunday school elsewhere she asked to join in this work.

Mr. and Mrs. Oakey Gillespie and children have moved from the small Gildow house to another house in the east part of town. Gildow has rented his new house to Mr. and Mrs. Bidgood. Bidgood has been elected to teach the seventh and eighth grades here.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Roberts, Beverly, Patricia and Geraldine are vacationing at coastal points for two weeks. Wilda Keith accompanied them.

The parsonage being built for the pastor of the Wesleyan Methodist church, Rev. J. B. Willis, is getting well under way and will be near enough finished for the pastor to move in by October 15. Much of the labor is being donated.

At a recent meeting of the school board, the second Monday night of each month was chosen for the regular meeting night. All patrons of the district are invited to visit these meetings and to offer suggestions for the betterment of the school system.

Party Held at West Salem

Farewell Given for Departing Families; Enrollment Down

WEST SALEM—Mrs. Carl Quistad and Mrs. C. J. Jackson entertained at the Quistad home Friday with a farewell party honoring Mrs. C. H. Brown and Mrs. Eugene Krebs, who with their families are moving to other localities.
