Couple Will Exchange Vows

The studio of Professor and Mrs. T. S. Roberts will be the setting for a wedding ceremony this afternoon when Miss Gladys Bartelle, daughter of Mrs. Agneatha Bartelle, and Mr. William Giesbrecht, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Giesbrecht of Dallas, exchange vows.

Rev. Homer Liesy of Dallas will read the service at 4 o'clock before an altar of pink and white gladioluses, delphinium and candles interspersed with palms and fern. The aisle will be marked with baskets of flowers and white satin ribbon.

Mr. R. D. Barton will be the soloist singing "O Promise Me" and "A Perfect Day" with Professor Roberts at the organ. Jimmy Bradshaw and Patricia Meisinger will light the candles.

The bride has chosen a white taffeta gown trimmed in old English lace for her wedding. The tight-fitting bodice is fashioned with a low waistline and the gathered skirt falls into a long train. The short puffed sleeves are trimmed in lace and the neckline is sweetheart shape. She will wear elbow length lace gloves.

Her full length bridal veil of tulle and lace is train length and designed with a shorter veil. It cascades from a Mary Stuart headdress. She will wear her mother's pearl cross and carry a white prayer book with a white orchid and a shower of baby roses. Mr. F. F. Bradshaw will give the bride in marriage. Bridal Party

Miss Eleanor Sherman is the maid of honor and her gown is of mist blue fashioned with a full, lace skirt and a chiffon bodice. She will wear white lace gloves and a shoulder length pink veil held to her hair with a cluster of gardenias and roses. She will carry a nosegay of roses and bouvardia.

The bridesmaids are Miss Zora Rice and Miss Dorothy Liesy of Dallas and Miss Lee Ryan. They will wear identical frocks of heaven pink taffeta made with full skirts, tight bodices and short puffed sleeves. They will wear matching veils caught with roses and gardenias and their nosegays will be of roses and bouvardia. The attendants will wear pearls, gifts of the bride.

Mr. John Schmidt will stand with the groom and ushers are Mr. Chester Anderson and Mr. Nick Neufeld of Dallas.

For her daughter's marriage Mrs. Bartelle will wear a chartreuse taffeta frock with matching hat trimmed in orchid flowers and a corsage of gardenias. The groom's mother will be gowned in a navy blue frock and will wear a corsage of roses.

Reception to Follow A reception will follow the ceremony.

The bride's table will be centered with a crystal bowl filled with small pink roses and flanked by white tapers in crystal holders. The four tiered bride's cake will be arranged on the buffet and will be topped with clusters of pastel flowers.

Mrs. Peter H. Derksen of Vancouver, BC, aunt of the bride, will cut the cake. Presiding at the urns will be Mrs. Nellie Bollman of Dallas and Mrs. T. S. Roberts. Assisting will be Mrs. Charles Sherman and Mrs. Nick Neufeld, Miss Margaret Gosen and Miss Ruby Giesbrecht of Dallas and Mrs. P. J. Bradshaw. Mrs. Karl Neuenschwander will be in charge of the gift room. Patricia Miesinger will pass the dream cakes and Jimmy Bradshaw the guest

For traveling the bride has chosen a pastel blue dress with black accessories and a black hat caught with a veil and a bow on each side. A white orchid will be pinned to the shoulder of her dress.

The couple will make their home in Portland where Mr. Giesbrecht is with the Willamette Hyster company. The bride is a former Willamette univer-

YWCA Groups To Meet

The public affairs committee of the YWCA will meet on Monday at the YWCA at 2 o'clock with Mrs. A. E. Utley, chairman, presiding. Also attending the meeting will be Mrs. Karl Becke, president of the YWCA, and Mrs. Esther Little, general secretary.

Members of the committee are Mrs. Ralph Barnes, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. Ira L. Darby, Mrs. E. B. Daugherty, Mrs. J. E. Law, Mrs N. J. Lingren, Mrs William Merriott, Mrs. Roy H. Mills, Mrs. W. W. Moore, Mrs. Rex Putnam and Mrs. Charles Ratcliffe.

This committee meets monthly to plan an educational program and classes in the interest of community problems.

The Young Business girls of the YWCA will meet on Monday night at the YW to elect their officers for the year.

Miss Zillah Frogley, daughter Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Frogley C. Frog left Thursday to take up her studies at the Advertising Art School in Portland. Miss Prog-ley has been attending Willamette university and is a member of Delta Phi sorority.

AT HOME RITES-Mrs. Fred Andrews, jr., the former Harriet Grivey before her wedding on Sunday, September 14 at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Grivey. The groom is the son of Mr. Fred Andrews, sr., of Sacramento and Mrs. Joe Black of Salem. A reception followed the service and they will be at home in the capital city.—(Kennell-Ellis).

Miss Clare Marshall to Marry John Pollock At Church Rites

At a quiet but impressive wedding ceremony this afternoon in Portland Miss Clare Marshall, daughter of Dr. L. C. Marshall, will become the bride of Mr. John S. Pollock, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Pollock, all of Salem.

The marriage rites will be performed at the Church of Our Father (Unitarian) at 3 o'clock with Rev. Richard M. Steiner officiating assisted by Dr. William H. Eliot. Bouquets of white gladioluses and candles will decorate the altar.

Dr. Marshall will give his daughter in marriage. She will wear an attractive brown faille dress fashioned with a full skirt, tight bodice, bell shaped sleeves and high neckline. Her beige coat is embellished with nutria fur collar and cuffs. She will wear brown accessories and pill box hot of nutria. To her shoulder will be pinned a white orchid corsage.

Miss Margaret Sehon will be the honor attendant and she will wear an afternoon frock of mustard crepe and a corsage of gardenias, Mr. Robert DePrez will be Mr. Pollock's best man.

Mrs. Pollock will wear a black ensemble trimmed in white with black accessories to attend her son's marriage. Her corsage will be of gardenias and roses. There will be a wedding dinner at L'Abbe, Roosevelt hotel after the ceremony for the wedding party and guests. The table centerpiece will be of white gladioluses.

The couple will spend their honeymoon at Gearhart and will return to Salem to reside at 1209 Court street.

Miss Marshall will continue her studies at Willamette university this fall and is a member of Beta Chi sorority. She is a past worthy advisor of Chadwick Assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls. Mr. Pollock will receive his degree from Willamette university this year and is now with Sears Roebuck

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crawford, Mr. and Mrs. Clinton Standish, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Felton and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mink are spending the weekend at the Crawford beach house at Pacific

Elizabeth Grant Is Hostess

Miss Elizabeth Grant was hostess for an informal party at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Grant, Friday night. After an evening of court whist a late supper was served and autumn flowers were used about

Miss Grant's guests were Miss Virginia Martin, Miss Jere Simmons, Miss June Earle, Miss Marcelle Herbster, Miss Maxine Holt, Miss Zillah Frogley, Miss Esther Mae DeVore, Miss Rowena Upjohn, Miss Clare Marshall, Miss Ruth Anunsen, Miss Jean Moore and Mrs. Phyllis Clark of Corvallis.

Falls. Minnesota will return to Salem, has arrived in the capi- ert Mills and her daughter, Mrs.

September Exodus

Students Choose Schools

Summer vacations are over, swim parties and picnics are shelved for the winter months and the young American finds school the important business of the day.

Dozens of Salem college and university students are leaving this week, or have already left for schools of their choices.

Oregon State and University of Oregon are drawing a large number of Salem students this fall. Suitcases and trunks were packed this week as rush week opened on both campuses. Freshmen week begins Monday and regular classes take up on the 29th of September.

Oregon Bound

Entering Oregon as freshmen are Evelyn Collins, Mary Jane Simmons, Betty Childs and Edna Fisher. Harriet Crawford is transferring from Willamette and will be a junior. Returning as a senior to the Pi Beta Phi house is Patricia Vandeneynde. Leone Spaulding who entered as a freshman spring term on the Oregon campus will return and will also reside at the Pi Phi house.

Elizabeth Steed, AWS president this year, will complete her senior year and wears the Gamma Phi Beta pin. Shirley Huntington, another Gamma Phi, will be a sophomore. Eleanor Sederstrom, Alpha Phi, will also be a senior student as will Helen Angell, Delta Delta Delta, editor of the Emerald. Other Tri Delts returning are Beth Siewert and Molly Jean Maison. Returning also to the Oregon campus are Barbara Jean Vincent, a sophomore in journalism and Mildred Meaney. Nancy Dutton, who has been in Salem during the summer, will be a sophomore at Oregon this fall.

Freshmen men who will be on the Oregon campus are Keith Hoppes, who has a scholarship, Robert Mundt, Robert Pope, Reed Nelson, Tom Kay and Eddie Salstrom.

Beta Theta Pi men returning are Bill Snell and Ray Farmer. Others who will be on hand include Bud Vandeneynde, Alpha Tau Omega, George Arbuckle, Pi Delta Theta; Richard Grabenhorst and Allan Siewert, Delta Tau Delta. Allan was a delegate to the national convention of his fraternity at White Sulphur Springs, West Virginia, this summer. George Otten, jr. will be a sophomore at Oregon, transferring from Willamette.

Freshmen at Oregon State

Freshmen coeds at Oregon State college are Pat Higgins, Barbara Ann Ricketts, Jean Donaldson, Betty Jean Smith, Dorothy Pyeatt, Cleda Mae Edwards, Arlene Sholseth and Doris Harrington. Transfers include Georgia Cook, a junior from Willamette university, and Peggy Reinholdt, a sophomore from Willamette. Betty Byrd, who has been attending the University of Arizona, will be on the Oregon State college campus this

At the Delta Delta Delta house are Ruth and Betty Anunsen, the latter transferring from Oregon, Mary Jane Conmy and Florence Upjohn. Kappa Alpha Theta claims Frances Ann Mott, Shirley McKay and Ilene Paulson. Also on the Beaver roll again will be Mary Ellen Bywater.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon will claim Bill Shinn, Oscar Paulson, Norman Hinges and Ron Blundell while at the Phi Delta Theta house will be Ed Bishop, Tom Hill and Gene Holstein. Jack Hayes is returning to the Oregon State campus and wears the Beta Theta-Pi pin as does Victor Gibson, a senior. Ray Wood will be on the campus this year with headquarters at the Kappa Sig house. Transferring from Willamette will be Robert Reinholdt, a sophomore.

Scheduled to go through their first Oregon State college freshmen days are Lester Peamine, Jim Hatfield, Bill Bowes, Don Bower, Robert Irish, Norman Sholseth and Denny Vere-

Marylee Fry left on Monday for the University of Washington to enter her junior year. Her first two years were taken at the University of Oregon. Marylee wears the Kappa Kappa Gamma key and has been assisting with rushing on the Washington campus this week.

Leave for Southern Schools

Southward bound the end of this week went Patricia Livesley and Betty Simmons, who will again enroll at Leland Stanford at Palo Alto. Patricia will be a senior and Betty a junior. Civilla Reeher is taking her freshman year at Occidental college in Los Angeles.

Marjorie Ann Johnson and Vera Beechler have an apartment in San Francisco for the winter months. Both formerly attended Oregon State college and Willamette university. Marjorie is enrolled at the Livingstone School for Art and Designing and Vera is attending the Institute of Dental Assistants.

Doris Harold, who has been attending Willamette, has already left for Peoria, Ill., to enter Bradley college as a junfor in business administration.

Betty Buchanan, an Oregon alumna, is continuing her education at Washington State college this winter and will work on her master's degree. She also has a teaching fellowship for the year.

Frances Paris entrained a week ago for Madison, Wisconain where she will begin her junior year at the University of Wisconsin.

being pressed by a well-meaning but thoughtless man, promised to trade his new sister Mary for a pony. Worried, he didn't tell his mother until a letter came closing the deal, and saying the pony would be delivered soon. By way of a lesson, she suggested that as long as they had had him for a long time, and Mary was so new, they had better trade him for the pony. "But"

said Johnny, desperately, "That wouldn't work, because Mary couldn't ride the pony.

OSC graduate this spring, has been teaching a kindergarten in a migrant camp this our chicken house is setting on three wooden eggs. We've seen many wooden ducks in the sporting goods windows—but, amateur farmer that we are, we never expected our hens to hatch out a flock of decoy chickens

News report . . . Isabel McGilchrist,

We wooden know . . . A hen out in Salem high school graduate. -(Kennell-Ellis). Don't Look Now ..

SCHOOL - Miss Ra-

mona Huddleston, daughter of Mrs. Lola Huddleston, who has left for Pacific university at Forest Grove to enrall for her freshman year. She is a but . . . we got an SOS telephone call about canning from a reader. She revealed that on Friday night she had two bushels of tomatoes, enough green beans to make 80 quarts, 20 pounds of cucumbers for pickles and three children with the mumps. Her beans, she thought, were about to blow up. Secretly, we wouldn't have blamed her if she had.

Willamette Heights or bust . . . The Tinkham Gilberts think war is all it's cracked up to be. All summer they have been trying to get materials for their new home, but it's always, "Sorry, used for defense you know". Now they aim to move, whether or no. They report the telephone as close as the pole in the road, but no wires to reach the house. That isn't even a long distance phone. When the war's over they can be reached by phone, until then, their friends will just have to shout.

Fair trade . . . Johnny Wilbur, after Congratulations go to Mr. and Mrs. Donald Dawson on the birth of a boy at the Salem General hospital on Saturday afternoon. The baby's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Gra-benhorst and Mr. and Mrs.

George Dawson of Joseph, Mrs.

Dawson is the former Anna Mae

Grabenhorst.

The Alpha Chi Omega alumnae will meet at the home of Mrs. Claude Steusloff on North 13th street Monday night for a dessert supper. Mrs. Vernon Gilmore will assist the hostess and Miss Dorothea Steusloff. president, will preside at the Arriving today enroute from California to their home in Ev- lar meeting day, alternat Mrs. Fred Evenson of Pergus ta Barbara, Calif., formerly of erett, Washington, are Mrs. Rob-, afternoons and evenings. A tenher home today after a visit in the capital with her brother, Mr. his mother, Mrs. Mary F. main for several days as guests handcrafts being used as a genTheodore Jesten, and niece, Mrs. Brunk, and his sister, Mrs. Ethel at the home of Mr. and Mrs. eral theme. A council fire will Donald W. Poole.

M. Niles.

But her daughter, Mrs. tative program was saction to the next three months, with the capital with her brother, Mrs. Brunk, and his sister, Mrs. Ethel at the home of Mr. and Mrs. eral theme. A council fire will be held at the next meeting.

The Cheschamay camp fire group of which Mrs. Edna Bagnall is guardian, held its first meeting of the year at the club room of the First Presbyterian church. The new officers elected were: Corrie Wade, president; Artie Mae Phillips, vicepresident; Mary Parker, secretary-treasurer; Leona Wallace,

. . . Moxine Buren

Wednesdays will be the regutative program was sketched for CHURCH CEREMONY-Mr. and Mrs. Bert Broer (Katherine Kuhn) were maried at the First Baptist church on Friday, September 12. The couple met while they were students at Wheaton college, Illinois and she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Kuhn of Belvidere, South Dakota. Mr. Broer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Broer, sr., of Salem. The couple are now making their home in the capital.—(Kennell-Ellis).

Study Course

Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff, will direct an interesting course of study for the international education committee of the Salem Branch of the American Association of University Women at 7:30 on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of each month. The course, open to the public, for both men and women, will be held in the fireplace room of the Salem public

the group on an imaginary goodwill tour to Latin America.

Tuesday night's tour will be from New York to Brazil, Mrs.

Herbert Rahe and Mrs. Lloyd L.

Hockett and Mrs. Elmer Berg will assist Mrs. Ratcliff at the

Lt. and Mrs. Reynolds Allen were the honor guests at a progressive dinner party Saturday night. The affair was a surprise and was arranged by a group of their friends. Lt. Allen is leaving around the first of the month for Georgia where he has been called to active duty.

homes of Mr. and Mrs. James J.

Hague, jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert

Needham and Mr. and Mrs.

and Mrs. Reynolds Allen, Mr.

and Mrs. Leon Perry, Lt. and Mrs. Homer L. Goulet, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hague, jr., Mr.

and Mrs. Robert Needham and.

Miss Irene Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milo H. Taylor of Salem, left Saturday night for

Los Angeles where she will visit with Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Davis, jr., (Doris Enke). Before returning home in a fortnight she will visit with friends in San Francisco. Miss Taylor makes her home in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Potts.

Covers were placed for Lt.

The affair was held at the

Surprise Party

The course of study will take

To Begin .

library.

first meeting

For Allens

Kenneth Potts

Hostesses To Fete Bride

A much feted bride these autumn days is Mrs. Russell K. Woodward, who was Margaret Bell before her marriage in early September.

For Tuesday night Miss Helen Wiedmer and Mrs. Harvey Quistad are arranging a party to compliment Mrs. Woodward. The affair will be held at the Harry Wiedmer home on North Cottage street.

Bridge will be in play during the evening and a late supper will be served by the hostesses. A linen shower will fete the honor guest and autumn flowers will provide the decorative note.

Honoring Mrs. Woodward will be her mother, Mrs. Kate G. Bell, Mrs. Harold Olinger, Mrs. Glenn Stevens, Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Russell McJury, Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mrs. Lester Carter, Mrs. Harry Wiedmer, Mrs. Meredith Huggins, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Miss Jeanne Patton, Miss Maxine McKillop, Miss Doris Drager, Miss Helen Wiedmer and Mrs. Harvey Quistad.

MARRIED RECENTLY -Mrs. E. H. Gwinn, the former Althea Jones, who was married in Kelso in August. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray A. Jones.—(Bruno photo).

Book Club Is At Smart's

The Book-a-month club met for the first fall session on Friday at the home of Mrs. J. P. Smart for a dessert luncheon. Later the book, "They Came Upon a River" by Allis McKay was reviewed by Mrs. F. S. Anunsen.

The next meeting, scheduled for October 21 will be at the home of Mrs. H. O. White, and Mrs. David Wright will review a new book.

Present were Mrs. J. P. Smart, Mrs. F. S. Anunsen, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. C. A. Ratcliff, Mrs. W. E. Kirk, Mrs. C. W. Noble, Mrs. Ray A. Yocom, Mrs. Frank Bennett and Mrs. A. A. Reed. Special guests were Mrs. Cora Dunaven, who celebrated her 75th birthday, Mrs. C. H. Fisher, Mrs. A. B. Knesss and Mrs. Robert Worral.

Redecorated - Enlarged Usual Wave $1.00 Push Wave $1.75 Complete... $1.75 Open Thurs. Eve. by Appointment Phone $663 fret National Bank Bidg. CASTLE PERM. WAVERS

Mrs. Anna Clifford has her daughter and grandson, Mrs. H. Miss Crump, Nelson and Bobby of Seatte as guests. They will return home Mr. Smith To Wed

At a military wedding this afternoon, Miss Maxine Crump, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Crump, will become Mr. Ervin Richard Smith's bride. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Scott Smith. The First Christian church will be the setting for the ceremony with Rev. Guy Drill reading the 4 o'clock service.

Mr. Elton Benedict will sing "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly" and Mrs. Benedict will be the accompanist. The church altar will be decorated with baskets of white asters, gladioluses and white candles. Mr. Boyd Van Santer of Camp Murray will light the tapers.

Mr. Crump will give his daughter in marriage. Her wedding gown is of white taffeta fashioned with a shirred, floor length skirt. The bodice is made with a sweetheart neckline and extends to a point at the waistline. The long sleeves are puffed at the shoulders.

Her fingertip length tulle veil will be held in place with a cluster of orange blossoms. She will carry a bride's bouquet of vellow roses and gardenias. Miss Geraldine Crump will be her sister's only attendant and she will wear a pink taffeta frock designed similar to the bride's. She will carry a bouquet of pink gladioluses. A Ring Bearer

Shirley Smith, niece of the bridegroom, will be the ring bearer. She will wear a pastel green silk dress and will carry the ring in a lily.

Mr. Dave Talmadge will stand with Mr. Smith as best man and the ushers will be Mr. Clifford Foster, Mr. Jay Crump, brother of the bride, and Mr. Elmer Smith, Astoria, brother of the groom.

Mrs. Crump will wear a blue silk crepe afternoon frock for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Smith will wear black lace and velvet. They will have corsages of yellow roses. There will be a reception in the church parlors after the wedding. Assisting will be Miss Jean Crump, Mrs. Elmer Smith of Astoria and Mrs. Scott Smith. White asters and Gladioluses will decorate the bride's table. After October 1 the couple will make their home in Olympia. For going away the bride has chosen a black dress and matching princess coat and black velvet hat. Mr. Smith is with the field artillery band at Camp Murray and after January 1 expects to go east to Monmouth, New Jersey for officers training signal corps. Both Miss Crump and

Mr. Smith attended Salem schools. Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sternaman of Springfield, Illinois announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edna Sternaman of 468 North Winter street, to Mr. Edward Prince, son of Mr.

and Mrs. Jess Prince. No date has been set for the wedding.

Members of the Salem Saddle club will hold a meeting on Monday night at the fairgrounds stadium. The meeting, presided over by Abner Kline, president, will feature plans for the year.

Rev. G. H. Quigley and daughters, Mrs. Roy Nelson of Salem and Mrs. Arthur E. Kenman of Grand Island, Neb., are leaving Monday for a motor trip to Minneapolis, and other midwest points. They will be gone a month.

