

NEWCOMERS

Full Freshman Days There'll Be a Dance

Several hundred new college students, will be on the Willamette university campus Monday for the opening of freshmen days and on Wednesday the sophomore and upperclassmen will arrive for registration.

Also being welcomed on the campus are the new professors and their wives who have taken up their residence in the capital. President and Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf expect to arrive September 9 and will occupy University House.

Dr. and Mrs. J. W. C. Harper and their young daughter, Miss Joyce Harper, have arrived from Chicago and will be at home at 445 Oxford street later in the week. Miss Harper will enter Willamette as a freshman tomorrow. The Harpers have another daughter who is taking graduate work at the University of Chicago this year.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lantz and their two children are here from Lincoln, Nebraska and have taken a house at 1910 Laurel. Dr. and Mrs. Robert H. Tschudy are now at home at 738 North Cottage street.

The first social event on the calendar for the freshmen students will be the informal faculty reception Monday night in the school gymnasium at 7:45 o'clock. Miss Bernice Orwig is making arrangements for the affair.

Greeting the students at the door will be Mrs. Maurice Brennan, Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mrs. Leland Shinn and Miss Charlotte Killander. Mrs. Roy S. Keene will introduce the students to the faculty line. Assisting in the entertainment will be Miss Constance Fowler, Miss Gail Curry and Miss Marion Morange.

Assist at Reception
Presiding at the punch bowl will be Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver, Mrs. Howard Maple and Mrs. Melvin Geist.

Dr. R. Franklin Thompson, freshman advisor, is in charge of the brief program and Dean Geist is arranging several musical numbers. Coach Roy S. Keene will give a short talk and the evening will close with singing of Willamette songs.

Registration is on Tuesday's calendar and will take place in the school library. In the evening there will be a musical program in the chapel with Dean Geist in charge. Faculty and new students will participate.

For Wednesday night the campus YMCA and YWCA will be hosts for informal parties. All freshmen girls will be entertained at the school gymnasium and the men will hold their party at the city YMCA.

The first all school event will be on Thursday night when the freshmen, sophomores and upperclassmen dress in formal attire for the annual YMCA-YWCA reception in the gymnasium. The hours are from 8 to 10 o'clock and Miss Glennerva Harnsburger is in charge of arrangements.

On Friday night's calendar is the Willamette-College of Idaho game with a sports dance for all members of the student body following the game. The affair will be held in the gymnasium with Chuck Regon's orchestra playing. Miss Marjorie Waters, vice-president of the student body, is general chairman of the dance and Robert Voigt is arranging the decorations.

The Gamma Phi Beta alumnae will have their first fall meeting on Monday night at the home of Mrs. Frank H. Spears, 1309 Chemeketa street. A 6:30 o'clock dinner will be served followed by a business meeting. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mrs. J. J. Morritz and Mrs. LeRoy Grote.

Monday, Salem Rebekah lodge will celebrate the 90th anniversary of the founding of Rebekah Odd Fellowship. Mr. Fred Neiderhiser will give a history during the program which will follow the regular lodge meeting. Members of Chemeketa lodge have been invited.

A birthday party will honor Rebekahs whose birthdays are in September: Mr. Jim Smith, Mrs. Sylvia Daley, Miss Charlotte Jones, Mrs. Pearl Wilson, Miss Phoebe McAdams, Mrs. Ida Steele, Mrs. Hannah Beard, Mrs. Almeda Beckman, Miss Ella Cort, Mrs. Cora Smith, Miss Sophia Heckman, Mr. J. E. Kirkpatrick, Mr. George Henderson, Mrs. Mae Hill, Miss Dorothy Estes, Mrs. Maude Rogers and Mrs. Viola Burns.

Members of the AAUW child study group are scheduled to meet at Collins hall on the Willamette campus on Monday night at 7:45 o'clock, room 124. A movie "Milk Goes to Town" will be shown by Fred Klaus, and Mrs. Preston Doughton will talk on consumer buying of dairy products. All mothers of children under junior high school age are invited to these meetings.

Still Take Leads in Drama

Willamette graduates from the dramatics department have been doing things this summer, and are continuing to accomplish things in their line of work, which looks well for the department.

Arthur Olson, play contest winner of last year, of "Little Brown Jug" fame, is playing the lead in "RUR" with the community players in Long Beach, California.

Mary Elizabeth Kells and Betty Irvine are playing the part of the sisters in "The Barretts," playing at the University of Washington's Showboat theatre.

Everett Andrews is in "Bertha the Beautiful Sewing Machine Girl" at the Seattle Repertory theatre. He is also theatre electrician.

D. DeLancey, who took the lead in many Willamette plays, has been leading man at the Barn theatre in Cleveland.

Helen Newlands, another of Willamette's favorite leading ladies, won a scholarship at the Pricilla Beach theatre colony at Plymouth Rock, Mass. She was one of the few to be cast every week and was given the lead in "Fresh Fields" along toward the last of the season.

Genevieve Oppen, head of the department at Willamette for several years, and an excellent actress in her own right, won a reading fellowship at the University of Oregon and will study at the northern university toward her master's degree. She has been given a year's leave of absence. Her position will be filled by Mrs. Margaret Ringnalds, who taught dramatics in California before moving to Salem.

GENEVIEVE OPPEN

Council Members Hear Talks

At the meeting of the Salem Council of Women's Organizations on Thursday members learned the need, aim, procedure and classification of agencies of the Community Chest, as outlined by Mr. E. E. Thomas, publicity director for the Chest.

Carl Charlton, assistant chief of police, gave a report of facts by Don Orput, recreational representative, for the army about the proposed cantonment. He said that Salem would face a great obligation both civic and social in coping with the congestion which would follow the release each day of about 5,000 soldiers seeking diversion.

The FOE auxiliary met on Tuesday night at K.P. hall with Mrs. Elwood Gettman presiding at the business meeting. Several reports were made by members. Later in the evening refreshments were served by the men in their hall. The auxiliary will furnish refreshments at the next meeting, for both the men and women.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Vinton Scott have returned from the Pendleton Round-up. Enroute home they went to Grand Coulee dam and visited friends in Washington and Oregon. Their sons, Vernon and Vinton have returned to Pacific Union college to continue with a pre-medical course.

They often went to Mexico and to the races at Agua Caliente . . . They had company from Salgem practically every weekend . . .

Junior Women to Be Dinner Hosts

New members and guests of the Salem Junior Woman's club will be honored at a no-host buffet dinner Monday night at the clubhouse, 460 North Cottage street, at 7 o'clock.

Each member may bring a guest and reservations should be made by Monday noon with Miss Maxine Rogers, 5285. Miss Rogers is arranging the affair and is membership chairman of the club. Her committee includes Miss Phyllis Gardner, Miss Hattie Bratzel, Miss Maria Dare and Mrs. Joseph Felton.

The guest speakers are Mrs. Ralph Barnes and Mrs. George F. Buxton of Corvallis. Mrs. Barnes is the widow of the late war correspondent who was killed last winter. She will relate her experiences on the European continent. Mrs. Barnes left for Europe in 1926 and lived in Paris, Rome, Moscow, Berlin and London. She and her two daughters came to the United States in 1940. Mrs. Barnes attended Salem high school and Willamette university and was married in New York in 1924.

Mrs. Buxton is the junior past president of the Corvallis Junior Woman's club and a graduate of Oregon State college. For several years she was a specialist in extension work in clothing at Oregon State college. Her topic will be "Choosing Your Wardrobe, Good Grooming and Personality." Accompanying Mrs. Buxton will be the present president of the Corvallis Junior Woman's club, Mrs. Clyde Richards, and several of the club members.

Other guests include Mrs. George H. Swift, president of the Salem Woman's club, Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson, junior past president of the Salem Woman's club, and junior club counselor, and Mrs. Percy Kelly, a member of the Salem Woman's club board of directors.

Dinner Honors Mr. Kennedy

A delightful dinner party honoring Mr. J. W. Kennedy was that for which Mr. and Mrs. Carl V. Booth were hosts Friday night at their country home on Summit road.

Mr. Kennedy, Marion county rural school supervisor, has been granted a leave of absence to attend University of Oregon where he will work this year toward a degree.

In the group at the Friday dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy and son Jack, Mrs. Cora E. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Harding and children, Loris and Keith, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weddle, Mrs. Leta Porter and Mr. and Mrs. Booth and son Herbert.

The Council of Church Women executive meeting will be held at the YWCA on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. W. A. Barkus will preside and plans will be made for the October meeting.

Reception at Art Center Thursday

Announcement has been made of a reception to be given by the Art Center in honor of Alfred Lauraine, member of the Art Center association since its beginning, on Thursday at 8 o'clock in the main gallery of the Center. Mr. Lauraine who spent the past year in Los Angeles studying with the South American Dance, has returned to reopen his dance studio.

During the reception hours Mr. Lauraine will tell what the new South American steps are and demonstrate how they are using the rumba, tango, samba and marcha. Additional numbers on the program for Thursday evening will be a group of songs by Dean Melvin Geist, accompanied by Mrs. Geist.

While in Los Angeles Mr. Lauraine was engaged as special ballroom instructor for Elisa Ryan. He gave private instruction to Barbara Allen, known to radio audience as Vera Vague, Shirley Temple, Mrs. Guy Kibbe and Tony Kilborn.

Arranging the Affair
In charge of the general plans for the Art Center reception for Mr. Lauraine is Mrs. Otto K. Paulus. Her assistants are Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre, Miss Josie Acklin, Mrs. W. T. Jenks and Mrs. Melvin Geist.
