Cordially Invite You to "FALL OPENING"

look Fall-ward to ALWAYS BEING DRESSED YOUR BEST

Where clothes have so much to offer, in silhouette interest, in fabric riches, and color vitality, you have every reason to pick each and every "item" for your new-season wardrobe as an art collector . . . a fashion connoisseur. Here are the lissome-hipped dresses; the gracefully moving coats, fabulously furred; the many-purposeful costume suits, and hats whose brims lift in line with the typically American, confident tilt of your chin. They are all for you, designed and fashioned within our native shores.

ACCESSORY MAGIC

Curtain raisers, are these scene-setting fall accessories. Handbags turned out with dressmaker design: jewelry that brings East to West in oriental splendor: gloves detailed by artful hands. It's color . . . color . . . and more color to costume you for your fall fashion role!

These new fall fashion numbers in footgear by PEACOCK, too, are not only sleek looking, but smooth fitting as well. RED CROSS and NISLEY show "what's what" in footliners, also. We bid you shop this store for exciting accessories.

Fall Fashion Hints . . .

Generous ripple collar atop a slim wool-coat. Jewels glint on smart bodice tucks . . . Fan pleated felt profile hat to set off new fall clothes. Pull-on luxuriously long suede gloves. Clip a pair of wild geese or a fawn to your lapel. Thrust a gigantic envelope bag 'neath your arm.

Fall Opening Window!
Miller's seventeen windows will be resplendent with the modern touch of FALL 1941. An invitation to attend the opening and view the windows is extended to all by Miller's with the hope that you will come early and stay late.
