Benefit Proceeds at Woodburn Used For Convent

WOODBURN—Committees engaged in various activities in preparation for the Woodburn Community fair to be held here October 3 and 4 were announced as follows:

Agricultural exhibits, C. G. Rue; textiles, Mrs. Helen Guiss; commercial, Killian Smith; corn seed, Henry Panelek; housing, Jess Fikan, Earl Houseweart, Fred Evenden, J. Melvin Ringo and H. D. Miller; entertainment, John Ramage, Winton Hunt; children's parade, Fred Weber, Mrs. Nellie Muir; publicity, Fred Hecker; finance committee, H. M. Austin, M. D. Perd, Clarence Hammett, H. E. Hicks, Gordon Klamp, Lewis Paulson, Kenneth McGrath and Elmer Mattson.

Textile displays will be upstairs in the armory. Mrs. Helen Guiss will be assisted by girls from the home economics club of Woodburn high school.

In this department prizes are being given for pillow slips, luncheon sets, table cloths, towels, bed spreads, quilts, rugs, wall hangings, knit garments, crocheted garments and dollies, collection of six). Committees will be in charge Thursday to receive entries. All entries must be in by 5:30 p.m. Thursday.

St. Luke's parish will hold its first card party of the season in St. Luke's hall Tuesday beginning at 8 o'clock. Pinochle and 500 will be in play.

Proceeds will be for the benefit of the new sisters' convent. Theodore Serres has donated for that purpose the house immediately north of the St. Benedict's school.

The committee in charge for the party are Mrs. A. P. Zuber, chairman, Mrs. E. S. Donnelly, Mrs. T. C. Gowman, Mrs. Otto Miller, Mrs. Morris Susie, Mrs. L. Petshaw, Mrs. Joe Oicher and Mrs. John Kesse.

Students Attend Other Schools

UNION HILL—Several pupils are attending high school from here and Silver Falls this year.

Those going to Silverton are Lenora Fester, Donald Peters, Wilbur and Leonard Seeley, Mildred and Ernest Carlson.

From Silver Falls are Fern Ellen Fields and Billie Strom. Marjorie Tate is attending the Parrish junior high school, Salem.

Max Hafner, of Independence school district, is attending the Union Hill school this year.

Gertrude Sprout, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. B. E. Bower, returned to her home in Salem.

Relatives Visit Keizer Woman

KEIZER—Guests at the home of Mrs. Edna McLeod are Mrs. Edith Keyes of Port Angeles, Wash., and Mrs. Anna Cobb of Bellingham, Wash. Mrs. Keyes is a sister of Mrs. McLeod and Mrs. Cobb her cousin.

Today Mrs. McLeod and her guests will leave for Newport to visit in the home of Dr. O. C. O'Neil, and when they return they will visit at Vancouver, Wash.

Gives Farewell Party

SILVERTON—Mrs. Gordon Randall and Doris Kruger, Salem, were guests at dinner at the S. A. Gay home Monday night in farewell to Bernice Gay, who leaves during the week for the University of Oregon where she resumes her studies as a junior.

On the Beam, Soldier—Ya Got Two Left Feet?

"Get on the beam, soldier. [You got two left feet?]" Camp Callan, Calif., drill sergeants may be using that type of swing language these days. Lieutenant Colonel Maaly B. Gibson (left) has hooked up an electric metronome to click out steady one-two marching rhythm.

With 35,000 Toothpicks—Plus

It required 35,000 toothpicks, a bottle of glue and an infinite amount of patience for Richard Liephart, 19, of Lancaster, Pa., to build these skillfully-made models of the famous Eiffel tower and a ferris wheel. Liephart worked for 10 months in spare time to finish them.

School Enrollment Noted at Hubbard

HUBBARD—The Hubbard public schools opened the second week with 70 enrolled in the high school and 86 in the grade school.

If present plans hold there will be a jamboree at St. Paul tonight under the lights with Hubbard, St. Paul, Gervais and Woodburn B participating. The Hubbard team will be light and green this year, not many of the last year's team being on hand.

The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Irvine will be held in the Hubbard Congregational church October 12, beginning with a no host dinner in the Odd Fellows hall at noon, and the service in the church about two in the afternoon.

School Short Teachers

PEDEE—School opened here Monday with only two teachers present, half the usual number. Ina Belle Cox, Airline, took charge of all eight grades but the school board secured the services of Mrs. Claude Skinner, Independence, who took over the primary work Tuesday. The high school board expects to have their second teacher soon.

Talbot People Deer Hunting

TALBOT—Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Belknap and Ida left last Thursday for eastern Oregon on a deer hunting trip. They will be joined at Prineville by E. H. Belknap, Ernest Freeman will join Mr. and Mrs. Kent Freeman, Portland, Friday to hunt in the eastern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. George Marlatt are hunting in the Burns community.

Mrs. Gilbert Belknap and Mrs. D. E. Blinston will be hostesses October 1 at Mrs. Belknap's home for an all day meeting of the Talbot Women's club. A cooperative dinner will be served at noon. This will be the first club meeting since the summer vacation.

Fairview Home Enrolls 250

FAIRVIEW HOME—School began on September 9 with an enrollment of 250. Mrs. Norris Joyce has been added to the faculty as the kindergarten teacher. Phyllis Corbett, a social worker, has taken over the placement of students who have completed their schooling and training. This makes a total of six teachers and the principal.

Dr. Sidney Kay, assistant resident physician, and Mrs. Isla Boulter, nurse, have been added to the hospital staff. The grounds are in excellent condition, with new grass covering the recently completed heating system.

School Girls Help With Harvest

HILLCREST SCHOOL—Girls of Hillcrest school helped to harvest the hops, beans, fruit and berry crops of the Willamette valley this year and in the process earned $350 for themselves and $130 to be spent for books for their library. They were transported to the scene of the harvest work in groups of about 20, under supervision.

Regular school work will start October 1. This year two new teachers have been added to the faculty. Mrs. R. D. Budrow will teach the grade school work and Betty Brown will assist Ruth Read in the high school subjects. The school rooms have been remodeled and new lighting installed.

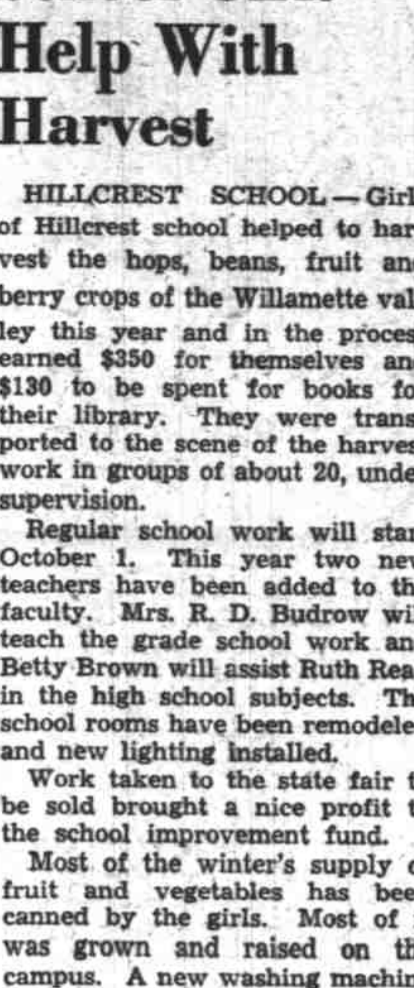

Work taken to the state fair to be sold brought a nice profit to the school improvement fund. Most of the winter's supply of fruit and vegetables has been canned by the girls. Most of it was grown and raised on the campus. A new washing machine has been added to the laundry. One of the biggest improvements this summer was the remodeling and modernizing of the dispensary. Adequate cupboards have been installed and a new dentist chair, provided by the last legislature, set in place.

Nurse Called to Mother's Home

SILVERTON—Mrs. Sickenger is replacing Mrs. Pearl Stinger at the Alex Knutson homes as nurse. Mrs. Stinger has been called to the home of her mother, Mrs. O. G. Olson, who is reported critically ill.

Knutson, who sustained a broken back two years ago as he fell from a roof, is reported as about the same. He is continuously confined to his bed and is under the care of a trained nurse at all times.

Bride Victim

While still celebrating her marriage nine hours before to Lee Sherman, 26, a clerk, at Dubuque, Ia, Mrs. Catherine Sherman, 26, was shot and killed in Chicago by a former suitor, Ronald Toft, 35, who then killed himself, according to police. Toft had been at the wedding party, police say, and had wished the newly-married pair "all the luck in the world." Two hours later he shot her with a rifle through a window as she approached a buffet table.

Valley Events

October 3-4—Woodburn fair.
October 3-4—Turkey Grading school, Albany.
October 4—Marion county convention of Farmers' Union, Mt. Angel.
October 11—State Mink Breeders school, Tillamook.
October 13—Oregon Fox and Mink Breeders school, Chamber of Commerce rooms, Salem.

Harvest Holds Back Start Of School

WALDO HILLS—Evergreen school did not open Monday morning as at first reported. Instead, classes will begin here on September 29. A number of hop yards finished Saturday noon and late in the afternoon, and patrons felt they needed a week to get things in readiness for opening school.

Frank A. Riches, now of Buena, Wash., but a former Waldo Hills cattleman, is sales manager of the Northwest Hereford Breeders association for both its Portland and Spokane sales. Riches reports that this fall's sale at the Pacific International Livestock exposition at Portland on October 10 will see by far the best group of cattle that has ever been offered by the association. Also, says Mr. Riches, there will be more of them. Riches is the son of C. R. Riches, Waldo Hills.

North Santiam People Hunt

NORTH SANTIAM—Several people in this vicinity are deer hunting. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Hammer and Henry C. Condit, who are in central Oregon, and Louis Scofield, Clarence Gavotte, Alfred Hofmann and Merle Crane, who are near Bend.

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lundeen, Monmouth, will be pleased to know of the birth of a baby daughter to them recently. The baby has been named Nancy Ann. Mrs. Lundeen will be remembered as Hazel Hatch. This is the Lundeen's first child. School opened here September 15 with only a few absent who are working in the harvest. Mrs. Lois Clark is in charge of the primary room and Lucille Lewis, Lyons, in the upper grade room. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Morgan have moved from West Stayton to the Mack home here.
