"It means the same in any language—
You can't make a bad cup of M-J-B"

—Ella Neal tells Walter Abel, while filming Paramount's "HOLD BACK THE DAWN"

WALTER: What means the same in any language?
ELLA: First, notice that this coffee is strong, but not bitter.
WALTER: Of course—it's M. J. B.
ELLA: Right! And notice that this coffee is full of flavor, even though it's made weaker.
WALTER: Sure—it's M. J. B., too.
ELLA: That's the point! "M. J. B." means "good coffee"—any way you make it, in any language.

Here's why it never fails! Make your coffee with the same care as you have in the past. These two exclusive M. J. B. features—a richer roast—and double blending—will give you the finest cup of coffee you ever tasted!

GUARANTEE. Buy a pound of M. J. B. Try it for a week. If you don't agree it's better than any other coffee—return the lid to M. J. B. Co., San Francisco, and we will refund double your purchase price.

GOOD ANY WAY YOU MAKE IT

SOFT GRIND...for drip or glass coffee makers. REGULAR GRIND...for percolator or coffee pot.

A. Mills, Mrs. John Jelders, Miss Ida May Smith, Miss Mary Eye, Miss Joy Hills, Mrs. Victor Phelps, Mrs. Harry Kenney and Mrs. G. Dods.

A motion picture and lecture program will be given tonight at the Art Center by the navy recruiting service. A detailed showing of planes and submarines will be followed by a more general depiction of the whole fleet, particularly the battlewagons in action, under the film titles, "Submarines at Sea," "The Eyes of the Navy," and "The First Line of Defense."

The lecture subject will be discussed by Chief Yeoman J. L. Sugg of the United States naval reserve of Portland. The program will begin at 8 p. m. in the main gallery of the Center and is free and open to the public.

Mrs. R. L. Wright, chairman of Salem unit of Pro America Republican Women, attended a board meeting of Oregon Chapter of Pro America in Portland Monday.

Miss Lorraine Space left Thursday night for a several days sojourn in San Francisco.

The first fall meeting of the Hollywood Lions auxiliary will be held on Monday afternoon at the French Fryer, 1610 North Cottage street at 1:15 o'clock. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Don Patton, 3448.

Mrs. James Brand is leaving today for Marshfield, her former home, to visit for several days. On Monday she will give a paper at her study group, the Progress club.

How to make Pillsbury's Fudge-Spice Cubes! for lunch boxes!—for picnics!

"Easy-to-bake" recipe:
1. Sift and measure 2 1/4 c. Enriched Pillsbury's Best Flour add 1 1/4 tsp. soda and 1/4 tsp. salt; sift three times. (The enrichment of Pillsbury's Best does not affect its appearance, flavor, or nutritional baking quality, but adds two important B-vitamins and iron you need every day.) 2. Cream 3/4 c. shortening with 1/4 c. sugar gradually; cream well. 3. Add 2 eggs, one at a time; beat 1 min. after each. 4. Add 3 tsp. (3 sq.) unsweetened chocolate, melted and cooled; mix well. (This luscious bitter-sweet chocolate in the batter means rich color and real fudge flavor in your cake!) 5. Add dry ingredients alternately with 1 1/4 c. buttermilk and 1 tsp. vanilla; mix well after each addition; beat well as add. (Did you ever see such light, fluffy batter... such velvety smoothness? Pillsbury's Best always works that way—it's baked-proved for your protection! Every single hour during milling, samples of this fine flour are tested to assure an appetizing, creamy whiteness... a baking quality you know is right, no matter when you use it. Moreover, actual baking tests are made four to six times daily!) 6. Turn into greased, lined 12 x 9 x 2-in. loaf pan. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 40 min. 7. When cool, frost with a spiced butter frosting. Cut in squares... and stand by for the loveliest, the tenderest, the most unusually moist cake you've ever tasted! Pillsbury's Best is made from only those choice, fine wheats which give you moist, tender cakes that stay fresh... pastry that's rich, crisp, and flaky... bread that's golden-topped, even-grained. With Pillsbury's Best, you take no chances. It's the flour you can narrow on for everything you bake!

And... in every bag of Enriched Pillsbury's Best... MORE BAKE-PROVED, JURY-PICKED RECIPES FOR YOU!

VALUABLE PREMIUMS... silverware, towel sets, kitchenware, etc... yours for 1941! Buy 25 lbs. packed with Pillsbury's Best Flour... BAKE-PROVED to protect your baking!
