Chair Car Seats To Be Reserved, Says Railroad

Beginning Sunday all chair seats on Southern Pacific's southbound Beaver will be numbered and reserved, according to an announcement made by J. A. Ormandy, general passenger agent for the road. Passengers should make their reservations in advance. There will be no charge.
Also effective Sunday are numerous schedule changes of interest to travelers. The Beaver will leave here, southbound, at 6:57 instead of 7:22 p. m. Northbound, it will arrive here at 1:59 p. m. instead of 1:11 p. m.

The Oregonian will leave here at 11:38 p. m., ten minutes later than formerly, and 15 minutes will be cut from the southbound schedule of the West Coast, through train to Los Angeles, which will leave here at 12:02 a. m. instead of 11:47 p. m.
The southbound Klamath will leave Salem at 10:30 a. m., 30 minutes later than now applies. Northbound it will arrive here at 7:10 instead of 6:37 p. m.
The Rogue River, overnight train to southern Oregon, will leave here at 9:35 p. m. instead of 9:04. Northbound it will leave Salem at 8:38 instead of 6 a. m.

Two Hi-Y Clubs Name Officers

Ronnie Clark and Roger Wagner were elected presidents Wednesday night of Harrison Elliott and Abel Gregg chapters, two of three Hi-Y clubs which year. The Arthur Cotton group are to be conducted in Salem this is to meet today to elect.
In addition to accepting the council's recommendation of three clubs instead of four, the joint assembly voted to select new members this fall by invitation rather than by group assembly. Meetings are scheduled for Wednesday nights.
Other new officers are:
Harrison Elliott—Bland Simmons, vice-president; Frank Bennett, secretary; Bob Smith, sergeant-at-arms.
Abel Gregg—Brenner Luthi, vice-president; Bill Egan, treasurer; John Caplan, secretary, and Lloyd Griffiths, sergeant-at-arms.

Judge E. M. Page Orders Probe By District Attorney When Suit Testimony Differs

Diametrically opposed testimony presented by one party and one witness in a civil damage action heard in Marion circuit court Thursday without jury caused Judge E. M. Page to call District Attorney Miller B. Hayden in to investigate what he termed "definite evidence of perjury."
The case, that of Beulah Campbell vs. Jean Eggers, centers around injuries plaintiff alleges she received in an accident 3 1/2 miles west of Silverton on the Silverton road, January 28, 1940. Damages totaling $5070 are sought.
