Sermon Given For Children

West Salem Methodisi Church Announces Plans for Week

One of the interesting parts of each morning worship at the West Salem Methodist church, corner Third and Gerth streets, is a special sermon preached for the children.

This five minute sermon is of material to appeal to boys and girls who look for it eagerly. On Sunday, the topic is to be "Traveling Light."

The adult subject for the morning will be "Loyalty to Christ." Church school promotion day and church loyalty Sunday will be observed. The mixed quartet of the church will sing "What Is Your Life." This service begins at 10:45 a. m. and closes at 11:45 a. m.

The meeting at 7:30 p. m. is featuring two numbers by the mixed quartet, "Only a Little Way Home" and "His Love Won My Heart." Members of the guartet are Kenneth Abbott, bass; Clarice Henderson, alto; Mabel Huckabes, soprano, and Leighton Dashiell, tenor. Dashiell and Mrs. Huckabee will sing "Be Still and Know." The sermon will be "The Foolish Wise Men of West Salem." Visitors and friends are welcomed.

Rally week services with the preaching, vibra-harp, and concert harp music by Rev. and Mrs. Archie McNeil begin in the. church Monday at 7:30 p. m. and continue through Saturday, October 5.

Public Benefit

DALLAS-The public benefit of civic and service clubs in the community, to be held at the armory Saturday is attracting a great deal of interest according to Joe Card, president of the organization. The club which was incorporated recently, lists Ernie Anderson as secretary-treasurer and Frank Guy, Gordon Akers, Lloyd Cook,
