Marriage of Couple Is Told

Of interest to their many friends is the announcement being made by Mrs. Leonard Wagner of the marriage of her daughter, Miss Eleanor Wagner, to Mr. Robert Callahan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Callahan. The news was told to a group of the bride's friends at an informal party at the Wagner home Friday night.

The wedding was solemnized on June 14 in Camas, Wash., at the First Presbyterian church with Rev. J. F. Phipps officiating.

The bride wore a white dress with navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias and rose buds. Attending the couple were Mrs. J. L. Moertel and Mr. Norman Wagner, brother of the bride. A wedding dinner followed the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Callahan are now at home at 1165 Columbia street. They are Salem high school graduates and he attended San Mateo junior college. Mr. Callahan is now with Ladd-Bush branch, United States National bank.

At the announcement party Mrs. Wagner and Mrs. J. L. Moertel assisted informally. Games were in play during the evening and at a late hour refreshments were served. Place cards with the theme, "cat's out of the bag," revealed the news. Bouquets of pink and white baby chrysanthemums provided the decorative note about the rooms. Thirty friends were bidden to the affair.

Buying a box of cooking and eating apples starts a long series of adventures in the kitchen. There is no more versatile fruit than apples.

Let's begin with a good sounding recipe, that frankly we've never tried but always wanted to.

APPLES IN BLOOM
Cook red apples in boiling water until soft. Have the water come up halfway on the apples, and turn often. Remove skins carefully from apples, so that as much red color remains as possible. Arrange on a serving dish.

To the water in the pan add 1 cup sugar, grated rind of one lemon and the juice of an orange. Simmer until reduced to one cup. Cool and pour over apples. Serve with cream sauce.

CREAM SAUCE
Beat the white of one egg until stiff, add well beaten egg yolk and gradually add 1 cup powdered sugar. Add ¼ cup whipped cream and ½ teaspoon vanilla.

Another apple recipe, this time for bread, will be a simple recipe when made at the same time your regular bread baking is done.

APPLE BISCUIT
To one pint of light bread sponge, add ¼ cup molasses, 1 tablespoon shortening, and graham and whole wheat flour to make a soft dough. Beat vigorously and finally work into the dough on a large cup chopped apple. Shape into rolls and put in muffin tins. Allow to rise well before baking.

Apple Charlotte is an excellent recipe for the fruit used as a dessert.

APPLE CHARLOTTE
Soak ½ tablespoon granulated gelatine in ¼ cup cold water. Whip a pint of cream and chill, adding ½ cup powdered sugar, a tablespoon lemon juice and two good sized apples, grated. Dissolve gelatine over hot wa-

Fresh Cookies Are Welcome

Home sweet home seems even sweeter to the boy or girl who returns from school and smells the fragrance of freshly baked cookies when he opens the front door. Warm from the oven they're an ideal afternoon snack with a glass of milk. They're delicious in the school lunch box, too. Cookies made with the addition of dried fruits are stepped up in flavor appeal, nutritional values and keeping qualities.

PRUNE-OATIES
1 ½ cups cooked prunes
1 cup butter
2 cups granulated sugar
¼ cup honey
2 eggs
1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
½ teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
2 teaspoons cinnamon
¾ to 6 cups quick-cooking oats
¾ cup chopped walnut meats

Pit one cup prunes and cut into small pieces. Cream butter, add sugar and cream thoroughly. Add honey and prunes and mix; add beaten eggs and beat. Add flour sifted with salt, soda and spice and mix. Add oats and nuts and stir until well blended. Drop in small mounds on greased cookie sheets. Fit remaining ¾ cup prunes, cut into pieces (about 5 to the prune) and place a piece on top of each cookie. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375 to 385 degrees) 13 to 15 minutes. Bake a test cookie; if necessary add a few more oats, as size of eggs and moisture in prunes may vary slightly.

Makes approximately 5 dozen medium-sized cookies.

"Hellzapoppin" Attracts Many

The stage show, "Hellzapoppin," is attracting many Salem folk to the Mayfair theatre in Portland this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad W. Paulsen attended the show Friday night and were the dinner guests of Mr. Robert Kerr. Others at the show Friday night were Mr. and Mrs. John Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Werner Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Halley, Mr. and Mrs. V. E. Kuhn and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Berry are spending the weekend in Portland and will see "Hellzapoppin" tonight.
