

Club Slates First Meet

Jefferson Women Meet Wednesday; Money Given Church

JEFFERSON—The first meeting of the Jefferson Womens club will be held Wednesday in the library rooms. Mrs. Karl Steiwer, Mrs. James Pate and Mrs. John Terhune will be the hostesses. Marguerite Looney is president of the club this year.

Mrs. R. A. Golden came from Portland several days ago to see her mother, Mrs. Julia Anne Vaughn, who fell and broke a rib last week. Mrs. Vaughn and daughter, Flora, returned home with her daughter and sister Monday.

Mrs. Alice Harris, mother of Mrs. Gerald Stowe, left for Oswego Monday.

Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Oldenburg underwent an operation for removal of tonsils and adenoids Monday in Salem.

Orville Rehfeld, Sam Rehfeld, Archie Dowell, and Kenneth Jemlicka, Jefferson boys who are employed in the Boeing plant in Seattle, spent the weekend at their homes here.

Members of the Methodist church enjoyed a 7 o'clock supper in the church recently. Dr. J. Edgar Purdy, district superintendent, conducted the business meeting and also showed slides of the work of the Methodist Missions. It was also decided to paint the church building and $60 was subscribed toward the work.

Mrs. Harold Knight was hostess recently at a shower honoring her sister, Mrs. Burl Ingram of Albany.

Mrs. Herman Harnisch and Mrs. H. E. McKee won prizes. Mrs. Herman Johnston, Salem, assisted Mrs. Knight. Guests included Mrs. Herman Harnisch, Mrs. Clarence Ingram and Mrs. Mary Rainey of Albany; Mrs. E. M. Ackerman, Mrs. H. E. McKee, Mrs. Elmer Knight, Mrs. Guy Johnston, Mrs. Scott Hawk, Mrs. James Hampton, Mrs. Dolly DeVaney, Mrs. F. E. Seehale, and the honor guest, Mrs. Ingram.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKee spent from Sunday till Tuesday at Yachats, at the home of Mrs. McKee's sister, Mrs. Jack Johnson.

Gets Papers

Anne Hanson, Los Angeles singer and dancer, who was "Miss Finland" in 1939, is shown as she saluted the Federal Building flag while taking out her first papers in anticipation of becoming a citizen of the United States.

Yoder Burial Rites Held

AURORA — Services were held Tuesday for Levi D. Yoder, 93, who died Saturday at his home at Yoder.

He was born in Pennsylvania. He came to Oregon 53 years ago, settling at Yoder, which was named for the family, and where he lived until the time of his death.

He was buried in Smyrna cemetery one and one half miles from his home, which he helped to plot, and build a church known as the Symrna church at Yoder.

His wife, Jabosine, died in 1925. Surviving are two sons, J. B. Yoder, Bremerton, Wash., and Grant, Alberta, Can., and five daughters, Mrs. Flora Bock, Elsie Yoder, both of Portland; Mrs. John Watson, Yoder; Mrs. Maude Peck, Stanfield, and Mrs. Bertha Rittenour, Bremerton. Four nephews and nephews-in-law were pallbearers.

Baby Baptized At St. Louis

ST. LOUIS—The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Manning, was baptized this week by Rev. Mollenbeir, Woodburn. It was given the name of Robert Eugene. Francis and Theresa Manning acted as sponsors.

May Manning, St. Louis, left this week for Providence hospital, Portland, where she will be employed.

William Kennedy returned Wednesday to his home in Portland after spending 10 days at the Alex Manning home.
