Reception for Humphreys

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Humphreys are being invited to a reception given by the Macleay grange in honor of their 50th wedding anniversary. Hours are from 8 to 10, on Saturday, at the grange hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys were married in Salem on October 7, 1891 and have lived east of Salem ever since. Their daughters, Mrs. Barkley Newman of Port Angeles, and Mrs. Ralph Westering of Portland will be here to receive with their parents.

Pattern

You always need one moreof those simple, tailored dresses that take the pounds away! Pattern 4884 by Anne Adams depends on loveliness of line and fabric, rather than fussy detail. See how prettily the V-neck is scalloped, how the slightly curved yoke holds in the bodice gathers. Two straight, slim panels in the front of the skirt minimize a wide hipline-and there is one center skirt panel in back. Do as you please with the sleeves — make them short or three-quarter. A brisk vertical striped print will give you a narrow, taller silhouette; pick up the color with three novelty buttons on the bodice-and add a bow if you like! This pattern is so easy to make with the Sewing Instructor to help youwhy not order it today! Pattern 4884 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 31/2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Cooking artichokes long enough is one of the secrets to their success. Put the artichoke into plenty of water, add a little oil to give a gloss to the appearance and drop in a half lemon, or a piece of rind. May add vinegar if preferred. Boil for a good % of an hour, until the outer leaves are beginning to drop off. Serve either hot with butter or cold with mayonnaise. A handful of mixed pickling spice will add to the vegetable's flavor if put into the water.

Remove stems from fresh pepper, cut across in rings. Fry a little bacon or ham or melt some butter in a skillet, add peppers and cook for 5 minutes until beginning to look clear but not brown. Add canned or fresh cooked corn and season. Cover and cook for 12 minutes. Garnish with ham or bacon.

Broccoli, at its winter best, is to be found now. It should be cooked always uncovered and should be dropped into rapidly boiling water. The time of course depends on how young it is, and how good a vegetable man you have. Broccoli is good when partially cooked and then put in a casserole alternately with sprinkled cheese. Brown in

Broccoli is good in salad too. There's celery root in market now, which will be a regular number on the grocer's market shelves all winter. Celery root, peeled and steamed may be served in soup or chilled and
