

Dakota Club Has Meeting

The Dakota club met Thursday night at the WCTU hall for a no-host supper. Mr. L. Ellwell presided at the meeting and appointed a nominating committee including Mrs. Carl Reilly, Mrs. Serrol Gibson and Mrs. Georgia McClean. Election of officers will be held at the next meeting on November 6. The program committee for November includes Mr. Carl Reilly, Mr. John Robins and Mrs. Leonard Gilkey.

The ladies of the Dakota club will meet at the home of Mrs. Roy Taylor, 1919 North 5th street, at 2 o'clock on October 17. Mr. Ellwell is leaving this week for a trip to Minnesota to attend the golden wedding anniversary of relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Bartlett.

Opera Attracts Salem Folk

The San Francisco Opera company has drawn a number of Salem people to Portland this week. Mr. and Mrs. Henry V. Compton, Miss Barbara and Mr. Stuart Compton, saw "Manon" Thursday night. Miss Compton attended "Tannhauser" Friday night.

Among those attending the presentation of "Rigoletto" tonight will be Dr. and Mrs. William H. Lytle, Dr. and Mrs. Herbert Rahe, Mrs. Mabel Powers and Miss Gretchen Kreamer.

Inter-Fraternity Dance Tonight

The Kappa Gamma Rho pledges on the Willamette university campus have invited the pledges of Alpha Psi Delta and Sigma Tau fraternities and their dates to their house tonight for an informal sports dance.

The affair will be from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock and refreshments will be served during the evening. Chaperones will be Professor and Mrs. Robert Lantz and Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth McLeod. Mr. Robert Lee, pledge captain, is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Bowers Fetes Club

Mrs. Floyd Bowers was a dessert hostess Friday afternoon when she entertained members of her club at her home on North 15th street. Several hours of contract were in play after the luncheon hour.

Mrs. Sidney Hoffman was a special guest and members are Mrs. Charles Feike, Mrs. Bjarne Erickson, Mrs. Glenn Paxson, Mrs. Harold Ladd, Mrs. Virgil Sexton, Mrs. Clarke Starrett and Mrs. Bowers.

WOOL OF THE WEST

100% Virgin Wool Blankets

72x90—Extra Long

$9.95

Moth Proofed!

Extra long 90 inches! 100% virgin wool grown in Oregon! Moth proofed for five years! It's the perfect blanket for a cozy sleep! Oregon wool is peculiarly adapted to the use in blankets because Oregon wool does not crush or mat like Eastern wools. It stays fluffy and retains its freshness almost indefinitely!

Now! Buy wool blankets and save! This number is displayed for your special inspection today. A beautiful blanket in delicate pastel tones bound with wide shirred satin. Shop now for gifts!

COSMETIC SECTION MILLER'S

Mrs. George Steelhammer of Silverton has returned home from a trip to San Francisco where she was joined by Lt. and Mrs. Harry Carson, Jr., for the weekend.

SUVER — Ben Aebi and Miss Edith Clark of Monmouth were married September 18 at the Baptist church. They went on a wedding trip to southern Oregon and Crater lake. Mrs. Aebi taught in the Monmouth high school for the past 15 years.

Mr. William M. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Smith, has returned to the Oregon State college campus for his senior year.

Leave for The South

Mrs. John J. Roberts and her daughter, Mrs. Palmer Dawes, left Friday morning for San Francisco to spend several weeks. Later they will go on to southern California where they will be joined by Mr. Dawes, who is coming out from Jacksonville, Florida, to join his wife and mother-in-law.

Mrs. Roberts and her daughter have been spending the summer months at their Agate beach home. Mrs. T. A. Livesley entertained informally at luncheon at Miller's tea room Thursday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Roberts and Mrs. Dawes.
