

Parrish Overpowers Reds, 41-7; Leslie Outruns Brother Greens Triumph, 13-0 On 1st, Last Period Scores

A sustained 65-yard march from the opening kickoff in the first quarter and a 25-yard punch after recovery of a fumble in the final period enabled the Leslie eleven to open its 1941 City Intramural league season with a 13 to 0 victory over the sophomore Greens Thursday at Leslie.

Bud Smith took a reverse wide around end for the final eight yards of the first quarter touchdown, that was not converted.

Fullback Bus Clark punched over from two yards out for the fourth period touchdown, and then hammered outside end for the extra point.

Fumbles by Green backs nullified substantial gains throughout the game, in which just one punt was made and that by Leslie.

Deb McLaughlin, Smith and Clark alternated in eating up the yardage on Leslie's initial 65-yard touchdown march.

Subs for Greens: Ends, Dancer, Zahare, center; Seabe, tackle; Noll, Foran, Robbins, Melhoff; tackle, Rogers; backs, M. Smith, center, Bales.

Officials: Robertson, referee; Toolson, umpire; Richardson, head linesman.

Drynan Eleven Rings up Easy Win in Opener

Tom Drynan's Parrish junior high pigskinners, defending champs of the intramural loop, rolled up a 41 to 7 victory over the sophomore Reds Thursday afternoon in the 1941 "Mural" baptismal for both eleven.

It didn't take long for the Reds to realize the Pioneers have plenty of power in Fullback Jack Posh and Halfback Mickey Tansly—4 the former scoring one touchdown and converting another, while the latter tallied 12 points.

It was Drynan's second stringers, headed by Casey and Coons, however, who moved the Reds about as they chucked up three touchdowns in the final quarter. With but one minute left in the game, Joe Holland's Reds put on a sustained drive downfield that ended with Fullback McHone lugging the ball over and Halfback Vogt converting.

The Parrish crew did not pass once throughout the fracas.

The play of Drynan's seasoned linemen—All-City Bob Morris, Ed Brandie, Eldon Farlow, White, Lambert and Barnes—was especially outstanding.

Game Refugees Set Aside for China Season

Approximately 100,000 acres in the Willamette valley have been set aside by the state game commission, under a Pittman-Robertson project as upland game bird refuges to afford protection to immature birds during the pheasant hunting season.

Through cooperative agreements reached with farmers in the valley, these refuges have been posted with signs on all boundary lines, as well as at 400-foot intervals between the boundary lines. These signs will warn hunters that hunting on these areas is prohibited.

Arrangements have been made for adequate patrol of the area, both prior to and during the pheasant season in the valley on October 22, 23 and 24.

Pupils Have Party, Elect Officers

TURNER—Culminating a week of hilarity and pranks, 16 freshman students were initiated Friday by the sophomore class and given a party, which was well attended by the faculty and high school students.

The student body officers are Wilbur Cox, president; Iris Spencer, vice president; Bonnie Webb, treasurer. At the assembly meeting plans were made for the skating party Friday night in Salem.

Class officers have been elected for the school year. They are: Senior officers, Lorena McClaren, president; Versa Hickman, vice president; Gladys Sunderland, secretary; and Ruth Davis, treasurer. James O. Russell, class advisor.

Juniors, Clarence Cox, president; Morris Peterson, vice president; Hildur Warren, secretary; Melvin Baker, treasurer. Mrs. Lois Barber, class advisor.

Adelaide Ketchum is music director and school librarian, with Lorena McClaren assistant librarian.

Joe's Mom Is Plenty Happy

PORTLAND, Oct. 9—(P)—Elated over what the New York Yankees, including her son, Joe, did to "Dem Bums" in the World series, Mrs. Louise Gordon, Portland, returned from New York Wednesday night.

Mrs. Gordon, mother of the Yankees' second baseman who was selected the outstanding player of the series, admitted, however, that she felt a little "sorry for Mickey Owen when he dropped that terrible third strike Sunday."

"This was the most thrilling of all the World series Joe's played in," she said. "The games were so close and Joe played the best ever."

Club Plans Fall Work

LYONS—The Lyons Woman's club held its first meeting of the fall Thursday. A no-host covered dish dinner was served. Mrs. Percy Hiatt, president, was in charge of the business meeting.

Plans were made for the winter's work and Mrs. Alice Huber and Mrs. Mabel Bass were appointed on the membership drive. It was also planned to have a social meeting one Thursday in the month, with Mrs. Ruth Day and Mrs. Goldie Rambo to have charge. Mrs. Day was also appointed to re-catalogue the books in the library and plans were made to keep the library open one afternoon and night of each week.

Santiam valley grange met Friday. Plans were made for a Halloween party to be held at the social meeting.

Joan Crabtree, Portland, spent the weekend at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Crabtree. Miss Crabtree is a student nurse at Good Samaritan.

Fannie Wilson is visiting in Stayton this week. Miss Wilson is a sister of Mrs. Pat Lyons.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen spent Saturday and Sunday at Belknap Hot Springs.

Delbert Long, principal of the Lyons grade school, spent Saturday and Sunday with his family in Salem.

Detroit Club Plans Bazaar

DETROIT—The Woman's club met at the home of Mrs. W. F. Goodman with Mrs. A. J. McConnell and Mrs. Cora Goodman as joint hostesses with Mrs. Henry Beard presiding.

Plans for a bazaar to be held this fall were discussed and a date will be set. Mrs. Earl Parker was appointed on the bazaar committee.

It was decided to have a birthday fund to be used for "sunshine" for the sick; on this committee are Mrs. O. J. White, Mrs. James Neilson and Mrs. W. F. Goodman.

Present were Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. Matt Geston, Mrs. James Neilson, Mrs. O. J. White, Mrs. William Ficker, Mrs. Mabel Bearden, Mrs. Virginia Gorsline, Mrs. Henry Beard, Mrs. Byron Gray, Mrs. E. G. Phipps and the hostesses. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Matt Geston's home, October 15 at 2 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Felix Sparks have returned after a month's absence. Sparks and a crew of CCC boys built a lookout on Saddle mountain.

Henry Beard is serving as juror on the October term of circuit court from the Breitenbush precinct.

The Bible Study class under the supervision of Mrs. O. J. White has completed the study of the Old Testament and is to begin a new course this week. They have met weekly since September, 1940.

Publication Date Announced for Quarterly

MT. ANGEL—First appearance of "The Rock," national Catholic literary quarterly to be published at Mt. Angel college is set for October 15.

The lead article of the first issue was written by Sigrid Undset, well known Catholic Scandinavian novelist. The other stories, poems, and essays are gathered from literary magazines of Catholic colleges.

Founder and editor of "The Rock" is Alexander Scharbach, professor of English at the college. He is assisted by Walter Poepping, business manager, and William Dooley, compositor.

Stanford Uses Wet Footballs In Practice for OSC Battle

By RUSS NEWLAND

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9—(P)—Two games up, none down and Rose Bowl bound, Stanford causes the far west's football spotlight to focus on the little college town of Corvallis this weekend. The defending champion meets Oregon State there in what some observers predict will be the toughest conference game on the schedule.

Oregon State is primed for this one. It has less to lose and certainly as much to gain as Stanford. Home coming day increases the incentive. The Beavers gained that extra lift last week with their upset win over Washington.

Stanford's Clark Shaughnessy says every game is "tough." He thinks this one may be in a class by itself. The possibility of a wet field has every member of the coaching staff worried, despite apparent outward calm. The team was given plenty of practice this week with footballs soaked in water.

Every opponent has its biggest guns loaded for Stanford. It will be quite a feather in the hat of the coach who outscores the T-formation and becomes the first to topple the champions in two seasons.

The physical set-up favors Stanford. Its line undoubtedly is the strongest in the conference, or out, and it will enjoy a substantial weight advantage over Oregon State. The northern team bulks larger in the backfield and it has two fine ball packing, tossing threats in Halfbacks Don Durdan and Bob Dethman. They'll have to play the finest game of their careers to overshadow Stanford's quarterbacking genius.

be a win for Oregon, which looked powerful while losing to Stanford last month. USC put on a class D showing in its defeat by Ohio State, 32-0.

Santa Clara and California resume rivalry discontinued four years ago at Berkeley, with the former favored. In two previous games, Santa Clara was strictly under wraps. California goes into the game minus its star left halfback, Jim Jurkovich, who has hung up his uniform.

Montana meets the University of California at Los Angeles, in the south, and Idaho takes on Gonzaga at Spokane, in Friday night contests. UCLA may snap out of the doldrums caused by a resounding 23-0 defeat by Stanford last week. Unless it does, there'll be celebrations in the state of Montana. The Grizzlies are experienced and rugged.

Coast Playoff Series Is Tied

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 9—(P)—Seattle defeated Sacramento 4 to 3 to tie up the President's cup playoff series here Thursday night at three wins each. The deciding game for the $5000 pot will be played Friday night. Les Webber hurled the victory over Bill Schmidt and his successor, Al Hollingsworth.

Jo Jo White was the batting star with a triple and double, sparking rallies both times.

The Sacs got off to a run lead in the first off Les Webber but it wasn't long before his mates put him in front, driving Bill Schmidt to cover.

The Solons bounced back in the sixth to score two runs when Stickle threw Guttridge's grounder over Scarsella's head, Guttridge taking second. Wiczorek doubled to left. Kluttz singled to right, scoring Guttridge and when Collins dropped Harris' throw, Wiczorek scored.
