Woman Breaks Hip in Fall

TURNER — Taken to the Deaconess hospital with a broken hip sustained in a fall on slippery pavement near the tabernacle bridge, Mildred Corey is getting along satisfactorily, and hopes to be moved home soon. Her mother, Mrs. Dora Corey, who is ill, has been moved from the Cottage Court to the Turner Memorial Home main building where Mrs. E. J. Gilstrap is taking care of her.

at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. L. M. Small. Mrs. Clara Shields has left for an extended visit in Idaho with her daughter.

Spokane Couple Visit
CENTRAL, HOWELL—Mr. and Mrs. Fred Callister, Spokane, were recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Janz.

Farmers Union News

BETHEL — A well attended meeting, full of interest and good fellowship, was that of the Farmers' union Monday. There were visiting members from Red Hills, Central Howell, Orchard Heights, Fairfield and the Coos Bay local, at North Bend.

requested to attend to this matter, as the graveling was promised at the time the road was improved. Prominent among those present, who made short talks, were Marion County President Ernest Werner, State Junior Camp Leader Mrs. Jessie Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Padrick of North Bend, Mr. and Mrs. Alwin A. Manning of Fairfield. Serving refreshments were Mrs. J. A. Hain, Mrs. George Hain and Mrs. Ralph A. Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Davidson, route 6, were voted into the membership of Bethel local and were given the obligation by the president, Gus Schlicker. A fine oak gavel, beautifully turned and finished, which was made by Vernon Johnson, president of Bethel local Junior group, was presented to Bethel local in appreciation of the cooperation of the seniors in every junior project.

Hillcrest Girls Donate Money

HILLCREST—Girls from the Hillcrest school have taken up a collection among themselves and Monday morning sent a sizeable check into the Salem community chest. Money for the donation was partly saved from that earned by the girls while harvesting the fruit and vegetable crop.

The entertainment feature was the showing of colored motion pictures of the junior state camp at Clewax and of the Farmers' Union oyster beds at North Bend, shown by J. R. Barton, secretary of the Coos Bay local.

School has started with a staff of three teachers and plans are started to complete some branch of NYA work during the winter months.

Plans were made for a pie social to be sponsored by the juniors and to be held at the November meeting of Bethel local, the proceeds to be saved toward the expenses of attending state junior camp next year. Rev. S. Hamrick was song leader with Mrs. Roy Lively at the piano.

A. C. Spranger reported for the dairy committee on the treatment of mastitis and bloating. Theodore G. Nelson reviewed the Wheeler speech. Mrs. J. R. Carruthers and W. R. Baker presented reports of the Marion County convention at Mt. Angel. A discussion was had relative to the need of graveling the shoulder on the opposite side of the pavement from the school. This is necessary as the attendance is so large at the winter meetings that there is not adequate parking space. The county will be
