

Miss Bobbe Beckner Weds

Miss Bobbe Beckner became Mrs. Elwin Doty at a ceremony Saturday night at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George McKenzie. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Beckner and her husband is the son of Mr. Ernest Doty of Bend.

The couple exchanged vows before the fireplace which was banked with pink and white gladioluses. Miss Doris Ritchey lighted the candles on either side of the fireplace and on the mantle.

It was at 7:30 o'clock that Rev. Guy L. Drill read the marriage service. Mrs. Nick Brinkley was the soloist, singing "Because" and "At Dawning," with Miss LaVon Gardner accompanying her.

The attractive, brunette bride wore a lovely white lace gown for her wedding. The dress was fashioned with a floor length full skirt. The tight-fitting bodice was made with a sweetheart neckline and three quarter length sleeves.

For something borrowed she wore Mrs. Byron Roman's three tiered fingertip length tulle veil enhanced with lace. It cascaded from a halo of seed pearls caught with orange blossoms. She wore her sister's single strand of pearls and carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and bouvardia. Mr. Beckner gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Roman, the former Margaret Huckestein was matron of honor and her gown was of aqua blue taffeta designed with a full skirt and short puffed sleeves. The bodice was embellished with tiny self-covered buttons, and Peter Pan collar. Her nosegay was of bronze button chrysanthemums encircled with a net frill.

Mr. Roman stood with Mr. Doty as best man.

For her daughter's nuptials Mrs. Beckner wore a black silk crepe frock with matching accessories and a corsage of roses and bouvardia. Mr. Doty attended his son's wedding and the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Sadie Goetjen of Maupin, was also here for the occasion.

Reception at Home At the reception which was held at the Beckner home after the ceremony the bridal party greeted the guests informally. The bride's table was centered with the wedding cake, pastel flowers and candies.

Mrs. George McKenzie presided at the coffee urn and Miss Mina Beckner cut her sister's wedding cake. Miss Isabelle Creech served ices. Assisting were Mrs. Merle Beckner, Miss Phyllis Gardner and Miss Jean Moyer. Miss Lois Coomer was in charge of the gift room and Mrs. Robert Taylor greeted guests at the door.

When the couple left on their wedding trip the bride wore a pastel blue wool jersey dress with a princess style sash and blue coat with black caracul collar. Her accessories were black.

Mr. and Mrs. Doty will make their home in the capital. The bride attended Salem schools and is now with the Marion county agent's office. Mr. Doty received his education in eastern Oregon and later attended Willamette university.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Jermon of Salem and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plympton. They are now at home in Portland. (Berger photo.)

but . . . let us pay our respects to a very charming lady for a virtue which too many of us lack. Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf has the very unusual faculty of remembering names as well as faces. No better possible way is there to please a person than to know his name. Mrs. Knopf, meeting hundreds of new people, has surprised many by calling them by name the second time she's seen them.

Long time together . . . Salem paid respects to the C. P. Bishops on Wednesday when they celebrated their 65th wedding anniversary. It's always startling to go into the Bishop home, among all those six-foot tall men, but all the Bishop boys have been tall, and all the grandsons too. Mrs. B. started the day with a noon dinner, and at 7 o'clock was still greeting guests.

Happy time . . . There's a Golden Wedding club in Seattle, with membership limited to those who have celebrated their golden weddings. It would be fun to have one here, regular meetings with picnics in the park in summer are features of the Seattle club, which has a large membership.

Last word . . . We've always prided ourselves in being able to say the last word, but there's one class of person with whom we can't cope. It's the anonymous letter writer. Words are inadequate to describe the person who says nasty things (if they were nice he'd sign the letters) and then neglects to add his name. Yes, we got an anonymous letter, about this column . . . Maxine Buren.

Salem Folk at Astoria Rites

Mrs. Prince W. Byrd, Miss Betty Byrd and Mrs. O. K. DeWitt were in Astoria Saturday night for the marriage of Miss Barbara Fulton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fulton, and Mr. Robert Richards.

Enroute to Astoria the Salem folk stopped at the Portland art museum to view the French exhibit. Mrs. DeWitt will spend several days at the Byrd home at Neakowin before returning to Salem.

Bride-Elect Is Feted

Mrs. Doris Barnes entertained Thursday at her home on South 15th street with a miscellaneous shower for the pleasure of Miss Marguerite Lehman, bride-elect of Mr. Jerry Stone of Seattle.

The evening was spent informally and a mock wedding was presented with Miss Alice Lehman, Miss JoAnn Lehman, and Mrs. Herman Lehman taking part.

Those bidden to honor Miss Lehman were: Mrs. Herman Lehman, Miss JoAnn Lehman, Mrs. Bessie Ryan, Mrs. Emil Ronner, Mrs. Otto Lehman, Miss Jean and Miss Delores Lehman, Mrs. W. C. Cavender, Mrs. Fred Lehman, Miss Alice Lehman, Mrs. S. A. Stone, Mrs. Catharine Prankalla, Mrs. George Noack, Mrs. H. E. Donaldson, Miss Marjorie and Miss Dolores Donaldson, Mrs. Carl Bartruff, Mrs. J. R. Campbell, Mrs. Erna Richa, Mrs. L. M. Wilkerson, Miss Marguerite Lehman and Mrs. Barnes.
