By RON GEMMELL

Toppling of the "T" wasn't the only out-of-the-ordinary football frill (and thrill) at Corvallis Saturday...

Frankie Albert, for Stanford, and Don Durdan, for the bustling Beavers, were the southpaw flippers and left-footed kickers...

FRANKIE ALBERT

Durdan also had an edge in the left-footed punting department, getting off five punts (of 36, 39, 55, 20 and 48 yards) for an average of 39.6 per kick...

But that amazing Mr. Albert, who certainly deserves his all-American rating in this writer's book, flipped that football right smack into his receivers arms on his first three pass attempts...

The cat-like little cookie gave the best exhibition of wet-ball pitching yours sincerely has ever seen or ever hopes to see!

Wouldn't Wager

No one so far has attempted to alibi Stanford's loss—every San Francisco bay region writer who wired back his story on the game gave all credit to the Beavers...

Not that the Beves didn't thoroughly outplay the Stanfords, for those sure-tackling, deadly blocking Stinermen were masters all the way...

That Stanford outfit is the most relaxed, businesslike college football team I've ever seen...

With few exceptions, however, Stanford was outplayed in all functions of football...

Pete's Loss Hurt

Kmetovic's loss to the Stanfords can't be underestimated... Retirement of the swifty, who had to leave the game after the first play of the second quarter...

For the benefit of those fans who, midway of the second quarter, saw a Beaver pounce on Durdan's punt...

There is no rule allowing an official to block a safety man, as Field Judge Pete Lenz did Frankie Albert on this play, however.

Church Leagues Defer Action

Definite action, including election of officers, was postponed until the November 3 meeting at Monday night's session of church league basketball representatives at the YMCA.

It was suggested the "B" division start play December 15, the "A" division December 17 and the "C" division December 19...

A meeting of city league representatives is scheduled for next Monday night, October 20.

Teacher's Car Hit

SILVERTON—Gladys Fletcher's automobile was badly damaged in a wreck at Salem Friday morning...

SILVERTON—Notification has been received that District Governor W. R. Dowers, Vancouver, BC, will make his official visit to the Silvertown Rotary club...

Viks Lose Coons for This Week

NO NAME LEAGUE STANDINGS	W	L	Pct.	PP	Pg
Salem	1	0	1.000	40	0
Corvallis	1	0	1.000	40	0
Eugene	0	1	.000	0	1
Kosary	0	1	.000	0	1
Milwaukie	0	1	.000	0	1
Oregeo City	0	1	.000	0	1

Salem high's undefeated, unscorped upon football team will seek its fourth straight No Name league victory without the services of Bud Coons...

Coons suffered a green stick fracture of the ribs in the Albany game last Friday, said the doctor, and will not be able to play this week.

Which means, said Coach Harold Hank, that Bob Warren, the stocky sophomore who scored two touchdowns against Albany...

Otherwise, reported Hank, his Viks came through the Albany game without injury and all other hands should be in top shape for the Spartans...

An attempt is under way to move the game up to Thursday night of this week instead of Saturday night, as originally scheduled.

Jennings Wins Golfing Title

PORTLAND, Oct. 13.—(AP)—The Portland golf championship was won Sunday by Lou Jennings...

The boys' city championship went to Steve Milich with a 7 and 5 win over Buck McKendrick and Mrs. Clare Sylvester defeated Mrs. Richard Grubbs 9 and 7 for the women's title.

Breaks Hip in Fall

SILVERTON—In serious condition in a local hospital is C. B. Hawes, 37, who fractured his hip when he fell at Silver Creek state park Sunday.

Second: Won by Dr. Harold Olinger over Millard Pekar.

Third: Won by Elton Thompson over Bud Waterman.

Fourth: Won by "Buzz" Fisher over Al Petre.

Fifth: Won by Dr. R. E. Joseph over G. Phetteplace.

Fights Begin Outside Ring For Promoter

SEATTLE, Oct. 13.—(AP)—It seems Promoter Nate Druzman has more battles on his hands than he can put into the ring for his boxing show at the civic auditorium Tuesday night.

First, he's had quite a time of it with the father of Danny Gill, Los Angeles middleweight who is matched for a 10-rounder with Harry "Kid" Mathews...

Pape Gill has been sounding off that son Danny would knock Mathews into the second row seats, and even went to the boxing commission in an effort to get the match for his boy.

Then Arnold Gertram, manager of little Ken Lindsay, is holding out for the final spot on the card for the Lindsay-Black Joe bantamweight 10-rounder.

Mathews-Gill bout last.

Student Stiner Tells Old Prof He Likes The Way His Bevos Blocked and Tackled

By WHITNEY MARTIN NEW YORK, Oct. 13.—(Special to The Statesman)—The Old Professor was pretty well wound up—almost tight, in fact—as he assembled his Monday morning class of football...

It was a muffled sob here and there breaking the stillness. The windows and doors were closed, but there must have been quite a draught through the keyhole, as the Old Professor swayed like a cornstalk in a gale.

Old Professor—Please excuse my condition, gentlemen. I was watching a game Saturday and suddenly everything went black. When I came to a fellow was holding a jug to my mouth and saying, "Here, take a sip of this." Strongest water I ever saw. Strongest fellow, too. Couldn't hardly get the jug away from him. Been dizzy ever since.

Bob Zupke, Illinois—Don't talk about dizzy, please. That Minnesota team ran us that way. That's the most powerful team I've seen in my whole career. They're big, and they're not big, they're this. This man Smith, and played alert, aggressive football. We got some breaks, but we hustled for them.

Old Professor—Mr. Leahy, please quit stroking that rabbit's foot.

Frank Leahy, Notre Dame—I need it, professor. We were lucky to beat Tech. What a game! Don't let the score fool you. That Tech team fought until the last second.

Old Professor—Mr. Luster, what are you doing with that map?

'Cats to Be at Full Strength For Whittier Clash Friday

Undeclared, unscorped upon Willamette at full strength when the Californians meet the Oreons on Sweetland field here Friday night, said Coach Spec Keene following Monday afternoon's Bearcat workout here.

Teddy Ogdahl won't be able to take part in scrimmage this week, but I look for him to be in shape to go Friday, said the 'Cat mentor, whose team has rolled up 1830 yards to four opponents' 291 yards thus far this season.

The Whittiers, who whipped Willamette 14-7 last season, will come to Salem with victories already established over Pomona, the California Aggies and California Tech.

Wade's chief hobby is golf. He can be found on the links practically every day during the off season. And he occasionally takes time out for a hunting trip when football is over, that is.

Duke Devils off to Another Big Year Under Wallace Wade

By JOHN A. GILES AP Feature Service DURHAM, N.C.—(AP)—"Don't sell the old man short."

That's the chorus from the Southern conference. The "old man" is 49-year-old Wallace Wade, whose Duke Blue Devils are the favorites (as usual) to annex the loop flag and go far in national competition this fall. The "old man" title probably came out of respect for Wade's record, which already this year reads three straight wins.

The conference coaching fraternity will put "the old man's" 800 percentage figure up against any other big time mentor in the business.

To be specific, Wade's record—covering his 22 years of coaching up to 1941—is 168 victories, 35 defeats and eight ties.

His 10-year record at Duke's is 76 wins, 18 losses and three ties. At Alabama—where he made the Tide a football great—he won 61, lost 13 and tied three.

Wade won conference titles for Alabama four times, for Duke five times. His teams have played in the Rose Bowl five times, won thrice, lost once, and tied once.

"The old man" has a weather-beaten appearance and his once brown hair is rapidly graying and thinning. He seldom has much to say—on football or anything else.

"Yep, the old man takes his football seriously," the hefty Blue Devil players tell you. "It's really hard work to play under Wade but he isn't lacking in understanding."

When Wade came to Duke he was amazed to find his players oftentimes more interested in dances and the social graces. First Wade edict was that there was to be football and studies for his men—and nothing else.

'T' Conquerors Take Vacation

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 13.—(AP)—Oregon State college's astonishing grid players vacationed Monday.

Coach Lon Stiner ordered a rest for the Beavers, who scored their second straight upset by defeating Stanford, 10 to 0, Saturday. The previous week Oregon State noed out Washington, 9 to 6. The Beavers have an open date this weekend.

Erickson May Be Out, UCLA Game

SEATTLE, Oct. 13.—(AP)—As the Washington Huskies took the day off Monday to rest up from their convincing victory over Washington State last Saturday, good news came from the infirmary. X-rays showed Bob Erickson and Bob Friedman, who were injured
