

BUSY WEEK

Parties Are Varied

Teas for Newcomers

The coming week is filled with social events, teas for newcomers, dances, dinners, parties, a concert and a lecture.

Monday Night Dance

Members of the Monday Night Dancing club will entertain with their first affair of the season on Monday. Guests will gather at the Marion hotel for an 8 o'clock dinner to be followed by an evening of dancing.

The Halloween motif will be used in decorations. Large bouquets of autumn flowers in shades of yellow and orange will be arranged on the tables. Mr. G. Edward Bissell is president of the club.

Among those entertaining before the dinner dance will be Dr. and Mrs. Burton Myers, who have bidden a group of friends to their home on North 24th street. Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Frizzell will also be hosts before the dance at their Court street residence. A small group of friends have been invited to call informally.

Beta Sigma Phi Party

Also on Monday night's calendar is the Beta Sigma Phi Halloween party. The affair, which is a rush party, will be held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Brown on South High street. Guests and members have been invited to a buffet supper at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. John Hughes is in charge of arrangements and the evening hours will be spent informally and there will be a white elephant exchange.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Clarence Emmons, Mrs. Frank Shafer, Mrs. Thomas Drynan, Mrs. George Scales, Mrs. Harry H. Weinstein, Mrs. John Hughes, Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. C. Kenneth Bell, Mrs. O. K. DeWitt, Miss Isobel Mielke, Miss Meredith Lathrop, Miss Viola Crozier, Miss Jane Harbison, Miss Dorothy Blaisdell, Miss Cynthia DeLano, Miss Mary White, Miss Helen Shreeve, Miss Hattie Bratzel and Miss Eleanor Loetterle.

To Welcome Mrs. Little

Mrs. Esther W. Little, the new general secretary of the Salem Young Women's Christian Association, will be the honor guest at a tea on Tuesday afternoon at the YWCA headquarters on State street with members of the board acting as hostesses.

The interested public is invited through the press to call and meet Mrs. Little. Hours are 3 to 6 o'clock. Mrs. Little arrived in Salem this fall from North Dakota to take over her duties at the YWCA.

Mrs. Helen Goodenough will greet guests at the door and Mrs. William E. Kirk will introduce to the receiving line which will include Mrs. Karl G. Becke, president of the YWCA, Mrs. Little and Mrs. J. A. Brownson. Members of the executive board will assist informally about the rooms.

Presiding at the tea urns during the afternoon will be Mrs. James T. Brand, Mrs. Carl Sumner Knopf and Miss Elizabeth Putnam. Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren, Miss Mary Elizabeth Ross and a group of Girl Reserves will assist in the serving.

Mrs. Clifford Brown is in charge of the dining room. The tea table will be covered with a pink damask cloth and centered with a bouquet of purple and pink chrysanthemums, dahlias and asters. Other arrangements of autumn flowers in cut glass vases will be used about the rooms.

Mrs. Breyman Boise heads the directorate for the tea and her committee includes Mrs. Kenneth Bailey, Mrs. William Deeney, Mrs. James H. Jennings, Mrs. Robert Rieder, Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea, Mrs. Edward O. Stadter, jr., Mrs. Ray Yocom and Mrs. Roy S. Keene.

Hostesses Arrange Party

Miss Bertha Babcock and Mrs. Donald W. Poole will be hostesses for a dessert supper Tuesday night at the former's home on South Commercial street. Contract bridge will be in play during the evening and the Halloween motif will be used in the appointments.

Guests will be Mrs. R. Franklin Thompson, Mrs. H. T. Irving, Mrs. Robert Rieder, Mrs. Paul Heath, Mrs. Louis B. School, Mrs. Wheeler R. English, Mrs. Alden Adolph, Mrs. Lawrence Anderson, Mrs. Warren Pohle, Mrs. Nels Tonning, Mrs. Anthony Moore, Mrs. Harris Lietz, Mrs. Glenn Wilbur of Valley Junction, Miss Dorothy Cornelius, Miss Marjorie Van deWalker, Miss Beulah Campbell, Miss Agnes Meyer and Miss Marian Bretz.

Mrs. Spencer Honor Guest

A newcomer in the capital, Mrs. Carlton Spencer of Eugene, will be the guest of honor at the tea for which Mrs. Elmer V. Wooton has arranged for Wednesday afternoon at her home. Guests have been invited to call between 2:30 and 5:30 o'clock.

Mr. Spencer is on active duty with the selective service board and Mrs. Spencer has recently come to Salem to join her husband. Mrs. Wooton and Mrs. Spencer will receive informally in the living room.

Presiding at the tea urns the first part of the afternoon will be Mrs. George A. White of Clackamas and Mrs. L. V. Benson and pouring the last hour will be Mrs. Verden E. Hockett and Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea.

Assisting in the dining room will be Mrs. B. E. Owens, Mrs. Robert Wilson and Mrs. Elmer O. Berg. Mingling with the guests in the living room will be Mrs. Laban Steeves and Mrs. Ralph H. Campbell.

Tea for Miss Drager

Cards are in the mail for an at home for which Mrs. Rue Drager will be hostess on Saturday afternoon, October 25 in compliment to her attractive, engaged daughter, Miss Doris Drager. The bride-elect's fiance is Mr. James H. Nicholson, jr., and the betrothal of the young couple was announced late in the summer.

The tea will be held at the Drager residence on North Capital street and a large group of matrons and maids have been invited to call between 3 and 5 o'clock.

Birthdays Are Honored

Mr. Phillip Barrett and Mr. Oscar Paulson were honored on their birthdays Saturday night when members of their club entertained at dinner at Miller's Tea Room.

The long table was centered with a bouquet of gold and bronze chrysanthemums flanked by white candles. During the dinner hour a birthday cake and a singing telegram were presented to the honor guests. Bridge was in play during the evening at the James Turnbull home.

Places were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Phillip E. Barrett, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Paulson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Barden, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn McDonald and Mr. and Mrs. James Turnbull.

Mrs. Robert Needham will be hostess to members of her club on Tuesday afternoon at her home on North 21st street.

Mrs. F. D. Voigt returned Saturday from Aberdeen, Idaho, where she has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Paul Fugate, and family for the past two weeks.

Riders Plan Busy Time

On Friday night nine members of the Salem Saddle club brought mounts for jumping practice, in preparation for an informal horse show being planned for members of the organization in November. Western drills take place every Monday night, English drills on Tuesday and guest nights on Thursday.

The club members use the stadium at the fair grounds to stable their horses and to ride. This Wednesday night the Oregon mounted posse will not grill as usual, so members are planning a fun night, with tag and musical chairs and other games. Visitors are always welcome to watch the drills, on Thursdays members bring guests to ride.

She's Already Active...

MRS. JAMES T. Brand, although a newcomer to Salem, is already active in club and civic work in the city. She has been honored socially at several affairs by Salem women since her arrival in late summer. Mrs. Brand is a member of the state council for defense saving stamps and bonds, a member of the Salem branch of the AAUW. She was elected to the executive board of the Salem Community Concert association this week. She was a Pi Beta Phi at Oberlin college. Mrs. Brand formerly lived in Marshfield, where she was on the library board, a member of AAUW, president of the Woman's

Civic club and on the county welfare commission. Her greatest love, says Mrs. Brand, was her work in the city council of Marshfield, where she served for 11 years. But all Mrs. Brand's interests are not in civic and club life, for she's the wife of Judge James T. Brand, newly appointed associate justice of the Oregon supreme court and the mother of two. Fourteen-year-old Tom is with them here, but their daughter, Morley, a graduate of Oberlin college, is on the staff of the Norcross Card company in New York, where she composes verses for greeting cards. ## Miss Carper Is Betrothed

Announcement of the engagement of Miss Ellen Carper, daughter of Mrs. Lola Carper, to Mr. Carl S. Gretzinger, son of Mrs. Martha Gretzinger, was told informally Friday night at a party for which the bride-elect was hostess at her home. No date has been set for the wedding.

The bride-elect attended Dallas schools and is now with the unemployment compensation commission. Her fiance attended Salem schools and is with the Salem post office.

Betrothal cards were hidden under favors at each plate. A late supper followed an informal evening. The table centerpiece was of white dahlias and autumn flowers.

Mrs. Espey Is Hostess

Mrs. Gladys Espey was hostess for a turkey dinner Thursday night at her North Commercial street home in compliment to the birthdays of Mrs. Leon Jones and Mr. Fred Gilbert.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Leon Jones, Miss Margaret Shepard of Hood River, Mr. Fred Gilbert, Mr. Michael Espey, Mrs. Margaret Polaire and Mrs. Espey.

Mr. George Otten, jr., is home for the weekend from Eugene where he is attending the University of Oregon. Saturday he attended the Oregon-California game and is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Otten.

Mothers Club Entertained

The Sigma Tau mothers met at the fraternity house Friday afternoon for a 1:30 o'clock luncheon. Mothers from other cities were also present for the occasion.

Autumn leaves and fall flowers provided the decorations. Hostesses were the officers, Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, president; Mrs. Elmer Smith, vice president; Mrs. L. M. Ramage, secretary. They were assisted by Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, sr., and Mrs. Arthur Utley, Mrs. R. M. Gatke, Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver and Mrs. Daniel Schulze met the guests at the door.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Roswell Waltz, Forest Grove; Mrs. Fred Graham, Mrs. J. L. DesJardine, Mrs. C. E. Hadley, Longview, Wash.; Mrs. F. R. Coleman, St. Paul; Mrs. John Glasse, Albany; Mrs. Harry Miller, Mrs. L. E. Summers, Portland; Mrs. Bayard Findley, Rickreall; Mrs. E. W. Rickey, Mrs. Arthur White, Mrs. W. L. Habernicht, Mrs. Richard Casteel, Mrs. Robert M. Gatke, Mrs. Egbert S. Oliver, Mrs. Daniel Schulze, Mrs. D. C. Roberts, Mrs. Homer McWain, Mrs. Lloyd Hill, Mrs. E. T. Barnes, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. Lloyd Springer, Mrs. Howard Pickett, Mrs. C. L. Blodgett, Mrs. Paul Hauser, Mrs. Elmer Smith and Mrs. L. Morrill Ramage.

Don't Look Now..

but... the Barretts had a blowout—practically. Rumor has it that Mama Barrett went off to work, Helen Barrett (efficient though she is) left town to attend a Zonta convention around somewhere. The cleaning woman came to work, heard some banging in the pipes, found the water heater on and the house about to be blown to bits. Our information department was called, we told 'em to turn off the heater and on the faucets, and enjoy a nice hot bath because it was Saturday anyway. Everything is now under control and aren't we handy to have around the telephones? No excuse... for school teachers who get to concerts late. High Fliers... Mrs. Glenn Paxson, past president of the Woman's club got a thrill when she met Captain Alfred P. Kelly, intelligence officer at the Portland air base and the officer who accompanied him, as they arrived in their flying togs at the air field. She took them to the Woman's clubhouse, where they changed to civilian clothes. Captain Kelly spoke to the Woman's club and she took him back to the airport again. No more peace... Pianists may have souls, in their fingertips (if what the music

Recent Bride Is Feted

Mrs. Howard Boomer entertained with a bridal shower Friday night at her home in compliment to her new sister-in-law, Mrs. Robert Duke (Irene Warren). Miss Frances Duke assisted the hostess informally.

Chrysanthemums decorated the guest room and a crystal shower honored the bride. Games were in play during the evening with prizes awarded to Miss Marcelle Herberster, Mrs. Stanley Neuens and Mrs. Charles Warren. A late supper was served by the hostess.

Honoring Mrs. Duke were Miss Marcelle Herberster, Miss Bonnie Goldbeck, Mrs. Robert Siewert, Mrs. Stanley Neuens, Mrs. Charles Warren, Mrs. J. P. Duke, Mrs. Howard Boomer and Miss Frances Duke.

Miss Arbuthnot Will Speak

Woman's association of the First Presbyterian church will meet on Wednesday at the church at 2 o'clock with an executive board meeting preceding at 12:30 o'clock. Miss Katherine Arbuthnot of the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth will speak on "My Impressions of Palestine." Mrs. James E. Stone will play a group of flute numbers. Miss Alice Cray Brown will be the accompanist. Hostesses for the tea hour will be Mrs. E. M. Parsons, Mrs. C. B. Johns, Mrs. C. E. Siegmund, Mrs. J. J. Fitzsimmons, Mrs. Arthur Bates and Mrs. R. J. Gillon.

Couple Will Reside in Capital

Salem will be the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moore Fisher. The marriage of Miss Enid Claudine Clifford, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Claude William Clifford of Portland, formerly of Salem, and Mr. Fisher, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel K. Fisher, took place Friday night at the Westminster Presbyterian church in Portland.

Dr. Perry Hopper read the service at 8:30 o'clock and the organist was Mrs. S. Siegfried. Harp numbers were played by Miss Verda Griesinger.

Dr. Clifford escorted his daughter to the altar. Her handsome gown was of bridal-white faille taffeta, designed period style with a yoke of sheer, marquisette. A folded bow of the faille joined the yoke and hasque bodice which was trimmed in tiny covered buttons. The full skirt, which terminated in a long train, was caught with matching folded bows.

Bridal illusion formed her fingertip length veil and it cascaded from a coronet of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of white Ophelia roses and bouvardia.

Preceding the bride to the altar was Miss Marjorie Fendall, the maid of honor, Miss Frances McKenna and Miss Barbara Bain, bridesmaids. They wore identical gowns of spruce green faille taffeta. They were fashioned with full skirts, slightly entrain and a basque waist enhanced with tiny covered buttons. The sleeves were three-quarter length and the neckline was sweetheart shape. They carried bouquets of white gladioluses.

Attend the groom

Mr. Alan Fisher was best man and seating the guests were Mr. Samuel K. Fisher, jr., Mr. James G. Smith, Dr. Henry G. Stoffel and Dr. James Myles.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Clifford wore a mahogany velvet gown and Mrs. Fisher was gowned in green silk jersey.

The Clifford home was the scene of the wedding reception where the bridal party received informally. Presiding at the urns were Mrs. Lillian Taylor, aunt of the bridegroom, who came west from Philadelphia for the wedding, Mrs. Henry G. Stoffel, Mrs. Kenneth Murdoch, Mrs. Walter Griesinger, Mrs. Antone Mickelsen, Mrs. Sam Raddon, jr., Mrs. Lester Jones, Mrs. M. P. Monroe and Mrs. Roland Jones.

Mrs. T. J. Graves was in charge of the dining room and Mrs. W. R. Fifer was in the gift room. Mrs. W. L. McFarling passed the guest book. Assisting in the serving were Miss Helen Fifer, Miss Jane Reynolds, Mrs. William Ferguson, Mrs. Malcolm Colgan, Miss Jean Langille, Miss Jane Stidd, Miss Florence Shull and Miss Frances McBroom.

The newlyweds are graduates of Oregon State college and Mrs. Fisher is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Mrs. Jessie Dent left Saturday for Walla Walla and Snake River, Washington. She will visit her son and friends and will be gone about two months.
