Exciting Week for Coeds Dances Follow Banquets

Formal preferential dinners at the Willamette university sororities brought to a close rush week on the campus Saturday night. This morning pledge services will be held at the chapter houses and later the groups will attend church in a body. Following the dinners Saturday night the sorority coeds invited their dates to informal dances at their houses.

Miss Clare Weds Mr. Kendall

Peach and blue was the color scheme Miss Margaret Clare chose for her wedding Saturday night to Mr. Gerald Kendall. Her gown was of white satin and the attendants wore peach and blue frocks. The American Lutheran church was decorated with salmon gladioli and chrysanthemums, blue delphinium and a few white chrysanthemums. The altar was banked with greenery and lit by tall white tapers in candelabras.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Clare and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. J. Kendall of Camas, Wash. It was at 8 o'clock that Rev. Frank S. Belstel of Eugene read the marriage ceremony.

Mrs. J. A. Sholest sang "Calm as the Night" and "Because" before the bridal party entered and Miss Ruth Bedford was the organist.

The Bride's Gown
Escorted by her father the bride made a lovely picture as she approached the altar. Mrs. Clare made her daughter's wedding dress which was fashioned with a paneled skirt and ended in a train. The long sleeves were gathered at the shoulders with a point over each wrist. From neckline to waist in the back was a row of tiny buttons. The bodice was shirred and the neckline was sweetheart shape.

Her fingertip length tulle veil was designed with a face veil and fell from a tiara of seed pearls. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of rapture rosebuds and humboldt bouvard.

Proceeding the bride were the two bridesmaids, Mrs. Carroll Courtwright and Miss Marilyn Clare, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Leonard Howe (Nina White) the matron of honor.

Mrs. Howe's dress was of peach chiffon made with a full skirt gathered onto the waist. The sleeves were Bishop style and the high neckline was drawn by a satin cord. The cuffs and girdle were enhanced with quilted satin of the same color.

Bridal Party
The bridesmaids wore identical frocks of pastel blue taffeta designed princess style. The full skirts were embellished with a matching ruffle and the gathered bodices were made with sweetheart necklines and short puffed sleeves edged in ruffling. All the attendants wore garter-denials in their hair and carried nosegays of blue delphinium, white and salmon chrysanthemums to harmonize with their frocks.

Mr. Floyd Kendall of Camas stood with his brother as best man and the ushers were Mr. James Pike, Mr. Robert Worrall, Mr. Leonard Howe and Mr. William Noll.

Mrs. Clare wore a black crepe model and a corsage of red roses and bouvardia for her daughter's marriage. Mrs. Kendall wore navy blue crepe and a corsage of roses and bouvardia.

The bridal couple greeted their guests at a reception at the Clare home after the ceremony. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with the tiered bride's cake encircled with Cape Jasmine.

At the Reception
Mrs. Mayme Ball of Portland, cousin of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. O. S. Olson served the ices. Mrs. A. A. Carper presided at the coffee urn and serving were Mrs. Robert Worrall, Mrs. James Pike and Miss Beth Billings.

Mrs. Eileen Traver was in charge of the gift room and Miss Mary Shreve the guest book. Miss Barbara Gesner passed the dream cakes.

When the bride left for her honeymoon she wore a dusty rose silk crepe dress with navy blue princess coat and navy accessories. On her shoulder was a corsage of gardenias. The newlyweds will go to Seattle and along the Washington and Oregon coast on their trip. They will make their home in Salem at the Van Orsdal apartments.

The new Mrs. Kendall attended Salem schools and has been with the state bonus commission. The groom attended Valley City normal school in North Dakota and is now with the Shell Oil company.

Members of the Ministers' Wives association will meet on Tuesday at the YMCA at 1:30 o'clock and go together to the home of Mrs. Worth Mackie at Chemawa. Mrs. S. Raynor Smith will give a book review on "Queer Women" by Lizzie Forman.

theme of the Alpha Phi Alpha dinner. The table centerpieces were palm trees, figurines and bouquets of chrysanthemums. Special guests bidden were Mrs. Carl S. Knopf, Miss Olive M. Dahl and Mrs. W. E. Kirk, house mother. The toastmistress was Miss Gayle Dennison, president of the house. Toasts were given by Miss Dolly Cullens, Miss Oliva Olson and Miss Mary Barker. Miss Olive M. Dahl also spoke informally to the girls. Mr. Donald Wilson gave a group of vocal selections.

Alpha Phi Alpha
Miss Dorothy Tate was in general charge of the dinner and assisting her were Miss Helen Davis, Miss Marie Baughman and Miss Barbara Viesko.

Honor guests at the dinner were the Misses Jean Alice Carlin, Dorothy Arnold, Mary Bennett, Marjorie Bergsvik, Marjorie Bressler, Frances Hughes, Betty Provost, Donna Belle Savage, Salem; Lucille Appleman, Betty McMillan, Portland; Virginia Barber, Grants Pass; Janet and Janrose Blake, Camas; Ruth Burgoyne, Marshfield; Dorothy Burton, Lebanon; Margaret Anderson, Pauline Olson, North Bend; Florence Elliott, Dallas; Doris Holmes, Marian Francis, Cottage Grove; LaVerne Harnsberger, Independence; Virginia Loop, Brownville; Louise Hoford, Waldport.

Beta Chi sorority coeds gave their new pledges tiny old fashioned nosegays on wrist bands to feature the Willamette centennial, 1842-1942. Large nosegays of chrysanthemums, asters and dahlias in pastel shades were arranged on the long tables. Other old fashioned bouquets and candles were used about the rooms.

Beta Chi
Special guests were Mrs. Maurice Brennen, Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mrs. George Abbott and Mrs. Charles McCargar. Miss Barbara Hollingworth, house president, welcomed the guests. Mr. Michael Carolan was the guest soloist and Miss Jean Jackson played piano numbers.

Miss Beulah Briggs arranged the dinner and assisting were the Misses Mary Jean Huston, Lois Phillips, Doris Laney, Susanna Schramm, Lois Gladden, Cleo Nissen, Barbara Pitts, Margaret Sehon, Barbara Kester, Ruth Finney and Betty Jeannot.

Pledges who were honored included the Misses Jane Cameron, Dorothy Koschmidler, Stella McKay, Nancy Stricklin, Florence Duffy, Emma Lou East, Joyce Harper, Aileen Hutchinson, Mary Laughlin, Mary McKay, Mary Jean McKay, Marjorie Maulding, Pollyanna Shinkle, Patricia Skaling, Salem; Lucille McIntyre, Betty Andrews, Louise Cutler, Portland; Patricia Tracy, Dallas; Virginia Jarman, Santa Monica; Nancy Austin, Bettie Browne, Tacoma; Kay Shank, Longview; Rosella Bell, Stayton; Lois Butler, Lake Grove; Phyllis Flynn, Seattle; Jacqueline McBee, Jean Wing, Medford; Peggy Newlee, Bremerton; Dorothy Jean Van Skyke, Huntington Park; and Charlotte Woodward.

Delta Phi
Silver and white, the traditional color scheme for the Delta Phi formal dinner, was used in the table appointments and decorations. Bouquets of white pom pom dahlias and chrysanthemums and silver leaves provided the decorative note.

Miss Joan DuRette sang a group of numbers for the guests and Miss Esther Gunnedal, president, presided at the dinner. Miss Chloe Anderson was general chairman of the affair and her committee included the Misses Iris McCurdy, Louise Lucas, Betty Marie Keller, Carol and Corliss Clark and Mrs. Robert Rieder.

New pledges attending the dinner were the Misses Frances Kells, Virginia Steed, Betty Burkhart, Shirley Hunt, Martha Lowrey, Sally McClelland, Elaine Murray, Margaret Tomsett, Margaret Wunderlick, Carol Young, Salem; Dorothy Calderwood, Grace Stowaser, Portland; Evelyn Wiley, Roseburg; Norma Calbom, Longview; Margaret Hood, Newport.

GAME NOTES ... It seemed like half of Salem was in Corvallis last week for the Stanford-Oregon State game ... Standing by the gates we saw

"We are the problem generation, not the girls of today! We're drinking the most and leading the most unsettled lives," silver-haired Dr. Gertrude Boyd Crane declared Saturday afternoon as she addressed a luncheon meeting of Salem branch, AAUW, at the Marion hotel. Dr. Crane, professor of psychology at Pacific university, who places herself among the women who were girls in pre-World war days, maintained that the girl of today is "desperately serious. ... more honest than we, a true realist who wants marriage, a home and children. ... is lacking in spiritual values, because we've had none to give to her. ... deeply interested in religion. ... rootless and lacking in an understanding of problems of the past. ... and really hungry for leadership."

In a smoothly-flowing presentation of the modern young woman as she is seen by an understanding teacher and counselor, the speaker's humorous turn of phrase and occasional recourse to apt illustration held her audience of 200 women in rapt attention. "Don't quote authority to youth," she advised. "Youth will question the best you can find; it must be shown. It won't fight with us, but will merely tolerate us," she declared, urging that only a "way of life that with advancing years gives us poise, depth and charm" is acceptable to a young woman. Opening of a Spanish class, sponsored by the branch, next Thursday night at 7:30 at the public library and of a radio class in world problems the second Wednesday in November at the home of Mrs. Guy Hickok were announced. A silver tea, complimenting new members and open to the interested public is planned for next month's meeting, to be held November 15 at the Salem Woman's club. Dr. Carl Sumner Knopf is to be the speaker. Scarlet salvia, with baby zinnias, dahlias and marigolds blending from flame into gold, were used in profusion about the dining room.

Dr. and Mrs. L. O. Clement have entertained as their house guests Dr. Clement's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Clement. The visitors have returned from an eastern trip and are now enroute to their home in Medford and California where they will spend the winter. The Alpha Phi Alpha mothers will hold their postponed meeting Tuesday afternoon at the chapter house on Court street at 1 o'clock. Mrs. F. W. Kirk will preside at the business meeting.

Why Gamble without a Gain?

Sometimes people reason that because of the high ethical standards we maintain, our prices must be away out of line. On the contrary, it costs no more, and sometimes less, to have prescriptions compounded here. That's because prescriptions are our primary business. Large volume means low overhead. Quick turnover, assures fresh, potent drugs in every instance. And finally, it is our policy to fill prescriptions exactly as the Doctor directs. Don't gamble. Bring us your prescriptions.
