

Miss Gillies Weds Mr. McClay

The home of Mr. and Mrs. R. McClay was the setting for a lovely wedding Saturday night when their only son, Mr. W. T. McClay, took as his bride Miss Jean Gillies, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gillies of Lethbridge, Alberta, Canada.

Rev. Irving Fox read the service at 8:30 o'clock. The couple exchanged their vows before an improvised altar with a black velvet backdrop centered with a large mirror and guarded by tall floor baskets filled with red dahlias. Other bouquets of autumn flowers were used about the rooms.

The bride, given in marriage by her cousin, Mr. George Windecker, wore a floor length frock of dusty rose taffeta fashioned with full skirt and short puffed sleeves. The yolk and girlie were of a darker shade of velvet. She carried an old fashioned bouquet of flowers and wore a matching band of flowers in her hair.

Miss Myrtle McClay, sister of the groom, was the maid of honor and wore a floor length dress of aquamarine taffeta made with a jacket and puffed sleeves. She also carried a colonial nosegay.

Mr. Luther Melton, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man.

Reception Follows

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Gillies wore a black crepe frock with corsage of red roses and bouvardia. Mrs. McClay wore a French blue crepe frock and a corsage of pink roses and bouvardia.

A reception followed the wedding and Mrs. Clare McCandlish, cousin of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Luther Melton and Miss Dessy McClay, sisters of the groom, served the coffee and ices. Miss Lola Windecker passed the guest book.

The bride is a graduate of Canadian schools and is an accomplished musician. She received her degrees from the Royal College of Academy of Music in London, England. She has made her appearance as concert pianist in Canada.

Mr. McClay is a graduate of Salem schools and is now with the state highway department. The couple will make their home at Madras. For travelling the bride wore a dusty gold wool frock with brown tweed coat embellished with a fur collar. Her accessories were brown.

Guild Members Give Dinner

Friday night the Amica and Stirling guild of the Calvary Baptist church were hostesses at a Central Associated banquet. The motif of the banquet was autumn. The tables were centered with autumn flowers, trailing vines, gourds and candles.

Fall Cooking Found Well Liked

Fall cooking, the kind we like to do these crisp mornings, and the kind we like to eat these chilly evenings, is quite different from that of a month ago.

Corn on the cob takes on new significance when it's served with husky foods, steamed puddings taste good at the end of the meal.

Let's look to our autumn cooking. For salads, lovely orange colored persimmons have appeared in market. Especially good in salad with avocado, they go with French dressing.

Figs make a good early autumn dessert when made into a steamed pudding:

STEAMED GINGER FIG PUDDING

1 cup dried figs
1 egg
1 cup light molasses
1/2 cup melted butter
1 cup hot water
2 1/2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1 tablespoon ginger
1 teaspoon soda
Rinse figs, drain, cut off stem ends, and chop. Beat egg, add molasses, melted butter, figs and beat thoroughly. Add hot water, flour sifted with spice and soda, and mix well. Pour into small greased molds, cover and steam about one hour. Serve with lemon sauce. Serves 6 to 8.

STUFFED PORK CHOPS WITH APPLES

6 rib chops, 1 1/2 inches thick
1 cup dry crumbs
1/4 cup chopped celery
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon minced onion
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
3 apples
Split chops to make a pocket. Make dressing of crumbs, celery, salt, butter, onion and seasoning. Cook 5 minutes. Fill chops with dressing. Sprinkle with salt and flour. Brown both sides. Place in covered baking pan. Place a half apple, cored, but not pared, on each. Cover closely; bake at 350 degrees about 45 minutes.

Cider Served Well Heated

Autumn's favored beverage is mulled cider, preferably served hot. Try it with fresh doughnuts.

MULLED CIDER

1 gallon cider
1/2 cup sugar (less if to be served cold)
3 tablespoons stick cinnamon.
1 tablespoon whole cloves
Heat together and pour cider off spices as served.

Fruit Dressing On Salad

Cranberry jelly added to mayonnaise makes a good dressing for fruit salad:

CRANBERRY MAYONNAISE

1 cup mayonnaise
1 cup cranberry jelly
1/2 cup cream, whipped
Blend well, serve on fruit salad. Especially good on avocado.

To Help Prevent COLDS from developing

Put a few drops of Vicks Vapo-nol up each nostril at the very first sniffle, sneeze or sign of nasal irritation. Its quick action aids Nature's defenses against colds. Follow directions in folder. VICKS VAPOR-NOL
