

Independence Church Observes 60th Anniversary In Ceremony

Special Services, Open House Slated Sunday and Monday; Historical Record Related

INDEPENDENCE — Calvary Presbyterian church will observe its sixtieth anniversary October 26 and 27.

The plan for the two day program: Morning and evening services, 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m., with James W. Palmer, Portland, guest speaker; special music by the vested choir; and historical record by Dr. George C. Knott.

Sunday an "at home" will be held at the manse from 2 to 5 p. m., honoring the older members of the church, with all members and friends invited; Monday at 6:15 p. m. the first men's fellowship dinner will be held. Rev. James Millar of Portland, field man of christian education for Oregon and Washington, will be guest speaker.

At 8 p. m. Monday a Scotch concert will be given by Mrs. Wallace Spence, LRCM, London; R. S. McAuley, accompanist; and Elizabeth Reger, all of Portland.

The church was organized September 9, 1881, with Mr. and Mrs. William Riddell, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Godley, Mrs. Mary Whyte, Mr. D. Rae, Mrs. Julia E. Whiting, Mrs. L. A. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Denman and Mr. C. C. Godley as charter members.

The meeting was held at the M. E. church south, and Rev. Anthony Simpson, Member of the Presbytery of Oregon was moderator.

All member and friends are invited to the two-day celebration.

INDEPENDENCE—Mrs. Hugh Van Loan, worthy matron of Adah chapter, order of the Eastern Star, will honor all affiliated members at the meeting Tuesday at the Masonic hall.

A Halloween party will follow. All members are asked to come dressed informally to take part in the games and stunts.

Hosts and hostesses will be Mr. and Mrs. Miles E. Branch, Miss Beverly Branch, Mrs. Belle McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. John Donaldson, Mrs. Charlotte Colgan, Mrs. A. U. Foster and Mrs. Howard Morlan.

Community Clubs

HAZEL GREEN—The community club will assemble for its first meeting of the season Friday at 8 o'clock.

4H club work will be the topic and Wayne Harding is to be the speaker. Marie Phillips will report on the 4H, summer school at Corvallis.

The school is sponsoring a carnival to raise money for school purposes.

Refreshments will be sold and coffee served by Mrs. Otis Phillips and Mrs. Charles Van Cleave.

MACLEAY—Macleay community club will meet at the school-house Friday.

The program will be put on by the school children after which lunch will be served and a sale put on.

A special invitation is extended ten new families in the community. Committees are: Program, Mrs. A. Johnson and Mrs. J. J. McGovern; luncheon, Mrs. A. Baker and Mrs. Wilbur Miller.

MACLEAY—The following program will be put on at the community club meeting Friday: Hallowe'en Surprise, school recitation, Francis Wodzowoda; vocal trio, Francis and Patricia Wodzowoda and Delbert Johnson; vocal solo, Hubert Aspenwall; skit, Button Button, Mike McGovern and Mamie Jean McGool; vocal duet, Mollie and Gertrude Hernert, accordion music, Ann Marie Doerfler and June Stowell, and piano solo, Mrs. C. Barrows.

BETHEL—The Community club meets Friday. Entertainment will feature an address by a speaker from the secretary of state's office and musical numbers. Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Matten will be in charge.

Diplomat Is Back From Moscow

W. Averell Harriman, head of the American delegation of the British-American mission to Moscow, is greeted by his daughter on his return to London. The mission went to Moscow to plan for all possible war aid to the Soviets.

Service Men

Where They Are What They're Doing

Height requirements for men enlisting in the navy have been changed to a minimum of 5-foot-2 and a maximum of 6-foot-4, according to Chief Quartermaster Robert B. Fallon, in charge of the naval recruiting station here. The former requirements were 5-foot-4 and 6-foot-2.

Enlisted through the local navy recruiting station and sent to the naval training station, San Diego, for six weeks training were Walter Clyde Landon, Scotts Mills, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Clyde Landon; Vernon Adair Morton, son of Mrs. Rosamond Ashmon, Salem; George Calvin Almond, Salem; Clare Hilton Jarvis, jr., Salem. The group was enlisted through the American Legion post in connection with the recruiting campaign to enlist 140 Oregon men as a company to be sent to the naval training station at San Diego.

Ralph Eugene Cox, route No. 3, Salem, is spending 10 days with his parents. Cox enlisted through the local station and after six weeks training entered the navy electrical school. He will be assigned to one of the ships of the Pacific fleet after his return to San Diego, according to Chief Quartermaster R. B. Fallon, Salem naval recruiter.

Assignment to the 248th coast artillery at Fort Worden, Wash., has been given to Capt. Louvera B. Schmidt of Salem, dental corps.

A six weeks course in army administration at Arlington can-

Farmers Union News

MARION—The Friday meeting of Marion local was attended by visitors from Santiam local, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Mullen, A. C. Hymen and Leland Chambers.

Mrs. Homer Smith was song leader with Mrs. Claud Overholson pianist. Reports from both the Marion and Linn county conventions were given by Mr. and Mrs. Homer Smith and Mrs. Warren Gray.

President Louis Scofield announced a chicken noodle supper to be prepared and served by the men November 15 for members and invited friends only.

The colored pictures of the oyster beds at North Bend and the junior camp at Cleowax, shown by J. R. Barton and Fred Roberts were enjoyed. Barton and Roberts are two of the promoters of the Coos Bay Farmers' Oyster co-op.

This local voted to have the secretary write senators and congressmen urging them to work for the passage of the Andress and Gillette bill, which would make oleo stand on its own feet as a food product.

Today is meeting date for the ladies' club and October 30 is Red Cross day.

dream girl in Salem, Ore., awaited his discharge from the army. That is, until she read of the Eugene chamber's search and Private Chuck Green's apparent happiness. "Now," wrote the second Chuck Green, "what are you going to do to get back my dream girl?" The chamber doesn't know.

Dorsey L. Tweedie, son of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Tweedie, has returned to Hamilton Field, Calif., where he is a member of the 56th air base squadron, after a vacation here. Tweedie enlisted through the local army recruiting office.

Tech. Sgt. Willis S. Estep, who has been at the induction center in Portland, has reopened the army recruiting station in the post office.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22—(AP)—Officers ordered continued on active duty with the army for another year Wednesday included: First Lieut. Willard J. Chandler, medical corps, Woodburn, Ore., at Fort Lewis, and First Lieut. Floyd L. Siegmund, field artillery, Salem, at Geiger field, Spokane.

Services Due Thursday. DAYTON—Funeral services will be held Thursday at 2 p. m. at Whitfield's chapel in McMinnville for C. A. Wilson, 69, who died at his home in the Webfoot district Sunday.

Wrist Infected. MARION—Stanley Russell is at a Salem hospital being treated for an infected wrist. Jake Knelling has a fractured leg, and is convalescing at the home of his parents at Marion.

Vets to Hold Annual Meet

Members of Salem's old Company M, volunteers of 1917, will hold their 24th annual reunion Saturday night, with a banquet at 6:30 at the Senator hotel. Twenty four years ago the company, under the command of Capt. Roy Neer, entrained along with the 162nd Infantry from Clackamas.

Formerly the Third Oregon, the 162nd was the first regiment in the northwest to reach full wartime strength.

Many Salem men appear on the roster of the old company. Among them are Paul Wallace, Carl Hultenberg, Phil Ringle, Frank Prince, Frank Zinn, Roy Garde, Roy "Spec" Keene, Floyd White, Earle Headrick, Jacob Fuhrer, Harry Plant, Eugene Ecklin, Chester Horner, Archie Holt, Max Alford, Carl Abrams, Breyman Boise, Byron Conley, Virgil Golden, Paul Hendricks, Ed Payne, Frank Rosebraugh, Roy Remington, Elmer Ross, Herbert Savage, Emil Sundberg, Aubrey Tussing, Henry Neiger, Theron Hoover and others in nearby communities.

This year's reunion is headed by Phil Ringle.

Willamette Valley Briefs

SPONSORS FOOD SALE. TURNER—Women of the Methodist WCS are sponsoring a cooked food sale Saturday from 10 a. m. to 5 o'clock at the Townsend grocery. Mrs. William Spiers, Mrs. Stella Miller and Mrs. M. E. Townsend are on the committee.

PLEASANTDALE—Mrs. Bert McFarlane entertained the Aloha Needle club Thursday. Mrs. Joe Russett became a new member. Mrs. Will Dennis, Mrs. Henry Freshour, Mrs. H. Murphy, Mrs. J. A. McFarlane, Mrs. Howard Lockwood, Mrs. Russett and the hostess were present.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE. DAYTON—Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Cooper entertained with a no-host supper at their home Wednesday. Two tables of bridge were in play. Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londershausen won high. Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Dower won low. The next meeting will be with Mr. and Mrs. Dower.

Wrist Infected. MARION—Stanley Russell is at a Salem hospital being treated for an infected wrist. Jake Knelling has a fractured leg, and is convalescing at the home of his parents at Marion.

Tree Chopper "Pays" State

An Albany resident, conscious stricken because he cut down two fir trees on state property without consent of the proper officials, Wednesday sent three one-dollar bills to the state highway department.

"I hope this will cover the cost of the trees and square my conscience with the state," an accompanying letter read. The letter was unsigned.

Deaf School to Get Beauty Shop Course

Beauty culture is to be taught at the state school for the deaf here, the state board of control decided at a meeting Wednesday.

The board approved the employment of a woman instructor who will work 30 hours a week at the school.

Goes to Los Angeles

TURNER—Mrs. Lloyd Duncan and daughter of Los Angeles left Monday on their return home, after spending the past week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Given, who have lived on the Duncan farm here for a number of years.

Spends Week in Seattle

PERRYDALE—Charlie Strickwerda left Saturday for Seattle for a week's visit with relatives and bring his small son, Chuckie, home.

Rhododendrons Bloom

AUBURN—Eastern people always say that the Oregonians claim more unusual weather than any other state in the union, but here is something very unusual. The rhododendron bush in the yard at Mrs. Clara Massey's is in bloom now, this being the second blooming this year.

Watson Will Accept Court Tax Ruling

Attorneys for Tom Watson, Multnomah county assessor, will not file an answer in event the state supreme court overrules their demurrer to a mandamus proceeding to compel Watson to comply with a recent order of the state tax commission directing a method for levying the 1941 property assessments, Arthur Benson, court clerk, announced here Wednesday.

John Logan, attorney for Watson, announced during the mandamus arguments Tuesday, that in case the demurrer was overruled he would file an answer. He later decided not to file an answer and so informed the court, Benson said.

Attorneys for the state tax commission announced that they would stand on the supreme court decision on the demurrer.

Delake Span Temporary

DELAKE, Oct. 22—(AP)—County Commissioner E. G. Calkins said Wednesday that a temporary bridge was being constructed over D river to replace the Oregon Coast highway structure washed out by a tidal wave last week. The span may be open to traffic within 10 days.

WANTED
 Filberts and Filbert Meats
 Walnuts and Walnut Meats
 Cash Paid on Delivery
Kelley Farquhar
 Salem, Oregon

Sparkling GIFTS

Seeing Is Believing

Yes, Folks, we invite you in to see for yourself the beautiful selections of lovely costume jewelry, "gathered from the markets of the world," as Hollywood would say.

Costume Jewellery

- Necklaces
- Bracelets
- Brooches
- Ear Rings
- Pins
- Compacts

Values to $2.50

Hundreds of Other Gift Items Available on Our Convenient "Lay-Away" Plan.

BROWN'S
 JEWELERS OPTOMETRISTS

Salem's Leading Credit Jewellers and Optometrists
 Liberty and Court St. Phone 4129

Friday, Saturday, Monday ONLY!

Oct. 24, 25 and 27

LOWEST-EVER PRICE ON INNER ROLL

ROME QUALITY

SAVE 1/3

$19.88

Mattress or Box Spring

"Simmons" BEDS or SPRINGS $6.88

ROME DeLuxe Unit
 (Regularly Valued at $26.95)
 Save $7.07 Now!

Specifications—

- 8-Oz. Woven Stripe Ticking (Hotel type.)
- 220 Deep, Resilient, Oil-Tempered Coils
- Fully Guaranteed
- Pre-stitched Border

Note:—Box Spring Same Price

Free Chenille Bedspread
 When Combination Is Purchased

← $2 Down Delivers

Open Saturday Nights Until 9:00

WOODRYS FURNITURE COMPANY

PHONE 6414 LADD & BUSH BANK

THREE BLOCKS SOUTH

Woodry's (474 So. Com'l. St.) Special

SALE OF WOOD CIRCULATORS

Exactly as Illustrated

- Eastern Made
- Porcelain Enamel (All the way around.)
- Designed especially for western use. (Very large door.)

Regularly Sold for $75.00 - You Save 17.62 *Slightly Chipped

39.88

Liberal Terms as Always

Woodry's Are Now Authorized Dealers for the Famous

DUO - THERM OIL CIRCULATOR
 and Duo-Therm with "Power-Air"

Duo Therm Models Priced from $36.95

20% Down Balance as low as $5 Per Mo.

WOODRYS FURNITURE COMPANY

PHONE 6414 LADD & BUSH BANK

THREE BLOCKS SOUTH