Booster Night Program Due

Sixteen Register for First Aid Class; Motorists Fined

WEST SALEM—A "booster night" program will be presented in the city hall auditorium Saturday at 8 o'clock with Mrs. Phil Hathaway in charge and members of the home economics club of the local grange assisting.

The speaker will be R. C. Shepherd of Brush College. Special music and a pantomime are on the program to which the public is invited.

Sixteen adults registered Tuesday at the city hall to attend the advanced first aid course taught by Dr. A. F. Goffrier.

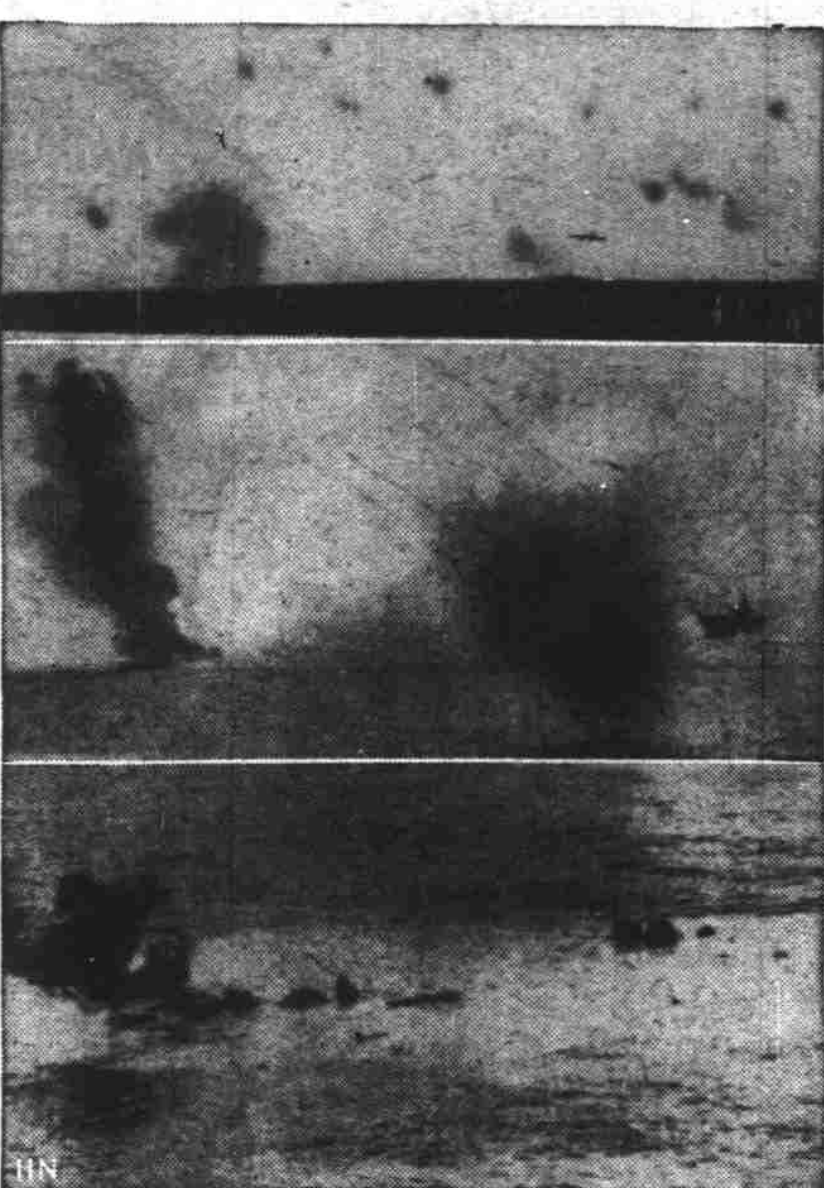

The group practiced bandaging. The fifth, sixth and seventh chapters will be reviewed at the next meeting.

Attending were Mrs. Charlotte Lightfoot, Mr. and Mrs. D. I. Henderson, Mrs. Collet Rust, Mrs. Merle Swearingen, Robert Pattison, Mrs. Pearl McVey, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Abbott, Mrs. A. Bailey, Mrs. Malcolm Mitchell, Floyd Steward, Mrs. Russell Smith, Mrs. Fay Winchester, Claud Boyd and Emmett Dickson.

Motorists fined in justice court recently were Robert Henry, Portland, for overload on truck, $8.85; Sam McCune, Portland, same offense, $8.85; Roy Turner McPherson, Salem, no clearance light on truck, $7.35; Robert Kerestes, Salem, reckless driving and driving through a stop light, $9.85; William Avison, Molalla, speeding on street, $11.95; H. W. Whitney, Salem, driving 55 miles an hour on the highway, $13.85; J. L. Buskirk, driving 40 miles an hour in a 25 mile zone, $8.05; Harry Tobias, Tillamook, and Jack Freeman, H. O. Oswego, are cited to appear for reckless driving. Both posted $25 bail each.

Italian Plane Downed at Sea

Lower Classmen Plan Willamette Homecoming Stunts, Contests

Freshman and sophomore classes are making plans to compete against each other in a greased pole contest and a bag rush scheduled for Saturday of Willamette university's 20th annual homecoming celebration, November 7 and 8, Dick Stacer, homecoming chairman, announced Thursday.

The two classes will come to grips in the greased pole contest when the freshmen attempt to break through the sophomore lines to capture the sophomore class colors waving at the top of the nine-foot greased pole. Clarence Wicks of Albany heads this contest.

In the other event, two teams of 15 men each from the freshman and sophomore classes will engage in a rough and tumble bag rush. Freshmen will fill the bags with leaves during the campus cleanup Friday morning. Dave Putnam of Salem is arranging the details.

The contests will be staged on Sweetland field at 2 p. m. Don Burton of Salem, sophomore class president, and Bob Weaver of Ashland, president of the freshman class, will direct the activities of their respective classes.

Rules for the annual sign contest to be staged during homecoming, November 7 and 8, were issued Wednesday to Willamette university's sororities, fraternities and Lausanne hall, women's dormitory, by Bob Blanding of Portland, chairman of the contest.

Signs will be judged according to the use made of the 1941 Homecoming slogan, "Shellac the Lumberjacks," theme for the

Open Concert Slated Tonight at Waller

An open concert, featuring organ numbers by Prof. T. S. Roberts of Willamette, a Portland high school choir and the Linfield college a cappella choir, is scheduled for Waller hall at 8 o'clock tonight under auspices of the Oregon music educators, in session here.

Several other numbers are to be on the program, according to the announcement of Melvin H. Geist, dean of the Willamette university music school.

Plans Made for Annual County Tuberculosis Seals Campaign

Plans for the Marion county tuberculosis seal sale drive, which opens November 25, were made at the monthly meeting of the Marion county public health association Thursday noon.

Mrs. Glenn Seeley, general chairman of seal sales for the county, and Robert L. Elstrom, Salem seal sale chairman, made reports on the progress of seal sale arrangements.

Miss Genevieve Morgan was appointed publicity chairman for the drive and her co-chairman will be Mrs. Robert Sprague.

Mrs. Nova Young, nursing supervisor at the Marion county department of health, announced that two x-ray clinics are held each week. Funds derived from the sale of seals make possible these clinics.

Mrs. Saida Orr Dunbar, executive secretary of the Oregon Tuberculosis association, was the guest speaker. She stated that Oregon is one of 11 states in the United States having the lowest death rate.

Police Will Return Auto Theft Suspect

George Edwards and Hobart Kiggins, Salem police department inspectors, are expected to go to The Dalles this morning to return with two youths apprehended there early Thursday morning with an auto stolen here from Brewer Mills, 215 East Lincoln street.

Report of the theft was broadcast by the state police whose officers in The Dalles arrested the boys, said to be Salem juveniles.

Funeral Rites For Dr. Riley Slated Today

Funeral services for Dr. P. O. Riley, state department employee who died here early Wednesday, are to be at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the Clough-Barrick chapel.

Active pallbearers will be David Hoss of Portland, Judge E. M. Page, Frederick S. Lamport, E. A. Miller, George L. Arbuckle and Secretary of State Earl Snell, all of Salem.

Trade Bureau Gets Thanks On Closings

Appreciation for closing of Salem stores on Armistice day, voted by the Salem Retail Trade bureau, was expressed Thursday in a letter to the bureau from the Federation of Patriotic Orders, signed by B. E. Owens, president, and L. L. Pittenger, chairman for the holiday.

The letter reads: "The Federation of Patriotic Orders of Salem wishes to express their appreciation of the splendid spirit of cooperation shown by the retail merchants of Salem in offering to close their various places of business on November 11 in celebration of Armistice day. The 19 organizations represented by the federation do appreciate this recognition of the day."
