

Homecoming Weekend Activities Start Tonight at Monmouth

Frosh Bonfire and Rally Slated Before Dance; Saturday Events Include Banquet, Football Game

MONMOUTH — Homecoming weekend at Oregon College of Education starts tonight with a frosh bonfire. A rally and serpentine will lead the crowd to Campbell hall auditorium where Al Neet, Fall Creek, will be master of ceremonies. A dance at recreation hall will end events until Saturday morning.

Scheduled for Saturday are a breakfast at 8:30 for Theta Delta Phi, men's honorary, in the training school social rooms. From 9 until 11 a. m. will be registration for the alumni in the administration building. Two luncheon groups will meet at noon, former Jessica Todd hall women students and West House men.

The big event of the afternoon is a football game between Reed college and OCE at 2 o'clock. At 9 p. m. all students and alumni will enjoy a dance in the physical education building. Dick Allen's orchestra from Oregon State college will play. Earlier in the night, Crimson O dramatic club, old and new members, will banquet at Monmouth hotel.

Two Sunday morning breakfasts are scheduled at 9 o'clock: Staff and Key and Collecto co-eds, women's service clubs. Co-chairmen for the weekend are Alma Jean Watkins, Rock Creek, and Barbara Ruef, Independence. Eva Neely, Portland, is rally chairman, Evelyn Treacy, Portland, dance chairman, and Tom Wilson, Lowell, publicity.
