

Au Revoir Party on Friday

Mrs. Ralph Eggstaff entertained with an au revoir party Friday night at her home on D street. The affair complimented Mrs. Luella Fruit who is leaving Tuesday for a three months sojourn in Hawaii.

Guests were invited to a dessert supper and several hours of contract, bridge followed. A handkerchief shower honored Mrs. Fruit.

Sally Eggstaff, in Hawaiian costume, greeted the guests at the door. The Hawaiian and travel theme were carried out in the table centerpieces. Bouquets of autumn flowers were used about the guest rooms.

Honoring Mrs. Fruit were Mrs. Dwight Lear, Mrs. Floyd Utter, Mrs. Arthur Green, Mrs. Clarence Pike, Mrs. James Hardie, Mrs. J. Deane Patterson, Mrs. Peggy Cook, Mrs. Earl Stewart, Mrs. Herma Pfister, Miss Lola Schulz, Miss Isobel Mielke and Mrs. Ralph Eggstaff.

Sylvia Wolfe Is Betrothed

Miss Sylvia Ann Wolfe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Wolfe, announced her engagement to Mr. Robert H. Cutler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cutler, at an informal party for which her mother was hostess Wednesday night.

No date has been set for the wedding and the couple will make their home in Salem after their marriage. Miss Wolfe and her fiancé are graduates of Salem high school. Mr. Cutler is now associated with Mr. Donald Cannon of the Texaco service station.

Miss Dorothy Arnold, Miss Muriel Smith and Miss Irene Howe won prizes in the various contests played during the evening.

The table, from which supper was served at a late hour, was covered with a lace cloth and the Halloween motif was carried out in the arrangement of the centerpiece of tall tapers in tiny orange and black balloons. Cleverly decorated match cases at each place revealed the names of the couple.

Mrs. Era Rush assisted Mrs. Wolfe during the supper hour. Bouquets of chrysanthemums and other autumn flowers decorated the rooms.

Bidden to the announcement party were Mrs. Herman Cutler, Miss Pauline Cutler, Mrs. Mae Heibert, Mrs. B. B. Williams, Miss Irene Howe, Miss LaVerne Dumas, Miss Madeline Simmons, Miss Elsie Snyder, Miss Pat Ryer, Miss Muriel Smith, Mrs. Theis Matherly, Miss Dorothy Arnold, Miss Francis Hughes and Miss Georgine Nadon.

Word has been received of the birth last Sunday at St. Joseph's hospital in Lewiston, Ida., of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Tower (nee Marjorie Tryon), former residents of Salem and graduates of Salem high school and Oregon State college. The little girl, named Diane Elizabeth, has a sister, Margene, and is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Tower and of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Tryon, all of Salem.

Mrs. Tryon is in the Idaho city at the home of her son-in-law and daughter.

Interesting visitors in the capital the past week have been Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Eveland of Aruba, West Indies. They were the house guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. McGrew at their country home. The travelers have been vacationing in the states and left Friday for New York where they will visit before returning to the West Indies where Mr. Eveland is with the Standard Oil company.

Attending were Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Mary Rauch, Mrs. Carrie Beecher, Mrs. Effie Dunlap, Mrs. T. M. Davies, Mrs. A. A. Lee, Mrs. H. A. Smart, Mrs. R. J. Hendricks, Mrs. Mae Ivy, Mrs. Ida Trallo, Mrs. Addie Curtis, Mrs. Elizabeth Perket, Mrs. Mary Maun, Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mrs. Addie Mills, Mrs. Ada Kennedy, Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Minnie Humphreys.

Attending were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kinzer, Mrs. Amy Muncie, Mrs. Laura Johnson, Mrs. Mary Fugh, Mrs. Lillian Hixon, Mrs. Mary Aplin, Miss Daisy Hayden, Mrs. Alice Davies, Mrs. Dorothy Wilson and Miss Lorraine Patterson.

The Cootiettes met at the home of Mrs. Ralph Harlan on Wednesday for a social evening. Plans were made for the next meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Frank Prince, 650 Electric street, with Mrs. Allie Murphy as co-hostess.

Later in the evening luncheon was served to the following members: Mrs. Walter Wickert, Mrs. David Furlough, Mrs. Charles Crary, Mrs. Frank Prince, Mrs. Allie Murphy, Mrs. Arwin Strayer and the hostess, Mrs. Harlan. Later they were joined by the Cooties.

New Book Club Organized
A group of business and professional women of Salem gathered at the home of Marie Thompson, Thursday, to organize a book club. The purpose of the club is both educational and social, as the group plans to buy books and lend them within the club. The club will meet on the second and fourth Wednesdays of the month.

The following officers were elected: Lucille Kennedy, president; Ina Boyer, treasurer and librarian; Leona Hopkins, secretary and reporter. Other members are Kathryn Ragsdale, Ruth Winegar, Marie Thompson and Grace F. Borig.

Kings Will Be Hosts to Club
Dr. and Mrs. A. Terrence King will be hosts to members of their club for a buffet supper Sunday night at their Fairmount Hill home. Contract bridge will be in play after the dinner hour.

Covers will be placed for Mr. and Mrs. Bradford Collins of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. James J. Hague, jr., Dr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Purvine, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Needham, Dr. and Mrs. Stuart Lancelfield and Dr. and Mrs. King.

JEFFERSON—Of interest is the announcement of the marriage of Delavon Thomas of San Pedro, Calif., which took place Friday night. Mr. Thomas attended school here. He attended Aero Technical institute at Los Angeles, took a course in electrical welding, and is now working at the California Shipbuilding company. The couple will live in San Pedro.
