

Mill City Woman's Club Gives Money to Fire Department; Red Cross Sewing Available

MILL CITY—At the meeting of the Mill City Woman's club, held at the home of Mrs. Albert Millispap, the club voted to donate $100 to the fire department to buy hose. It was also decided to purchase two $75 defense bonds.

The program, in charge of Doris Morris and Alice Rupp, included a solo by Madeleine Yamone, a teacher in the Gates school and a talk by Mrs. Sager, state leader of home demonstration agents, Oregon State college. Her subject was, "What Democracy Means to Me."

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Albert Millispap and Mrs. A. A. Holthouse. Present were Helen Bany, Alice Smith, Mrs. William Quinn, Mrs. R. F. Saucier, Daisy Hendricson, Mrs. R. P. Veness, Mrs. Clayton Baltimore, Mrs. D. W. Reid, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. D. B. Hill, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Charles Porter, Georgia Shane, Mrs. A. R. Hoening, Mrs. Curtis Cline, Mrs. W. W. Allen, Mrs. William Witt, Mrs. T. W. Allen, Mrs. Lee Morris, Mrs. Edwin J. Rupp, Mrs. James Dinit, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mary Young, Madeleine Yamone, Mrs. Blanche Sears, Mabel Needham, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Sager and the hostesses.

In the line of defense work, Red Cross sewing and knitting material is on hand and can be obtained every Tuesday afternoon at the Mill City fire hall. There is a large amount of work to be done and more material is to be sent to Mill City immediately. Everyone is urged to help out by coming to the fire hall on Tuesday afternoons to work or to get material to take home.

First aid classes are being conducted Thursday nights under the direction of Earl La Fond, Red Cross instructor. This is a standard course and 20 hours of classwork must be completed before examinations are given.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. John Swan with Mrs. A. Catherwood assistant hostess. The topics for the month are India and Alaska. Mrs. Frank Smith read several articles about mission work in those countries.

Mrs. A. A. Wolfe extended an invitation to attend the Sunday morning service. It was announced by the president, Mrs. Lee Morris, that the annual silver tea will be given at the church Wednesday afternoon the program to begin at 2 o'clock.

Members and guests present were: Mrs. Herbert Schroeder, Mrs. James Swan, Mrs. Clyde Rogers, Mrs. Charles Porter, Mrs. Lee Morris, Mrs. Wells, Mrs. Clayton Baltimore, Mrs. Frank Bass, Mrs. Miller, Mrs. Thompson, Mrs. W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Otto Witt, Mrs. Will Witt, Mrs. Oliver, Mrs. James Dinit, Mrs. Frank Smith, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Mrs. Louis Verbeck, Mrs. Kerr, Mrs. A. A. Wolfe, Pearl Lomker, Grandma Swan and the hostesses.

Community Clubs

BETHEL—Autochrome moving pictures of Oregon scenes were shown at the Friday meeting of the Community club by John C. Kerrick, manager of the drivers license division of the department of state. E. E. Matten was program chairman. The flag salute was followed by patriotic singing, led by Rev. S. Hamrick with Mrs. Cass Nichols at the piano. Additional numbers on the program were piano-accordion selection by Mrs. R. V. Lively; vocal duets by Simpson Hamrick with guitar and piano accompaniment, with Lillian Hamrick at the piano, and a humorous reading by Clorus Hageman.

Allison "lung conducted the business session, assisted by Jean Hain, secretary. A one-act play is to be ready for presentation at the next club meeting. The teacher, Pauline Riensche, will be asked to direct a junior chorus. Mrs. E. E. Matten and W. R. Baker were appointed to prepare and present the first issue of a neighborhood news sheet.

Serving refreshments for the November meeting will be Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Carruthers, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bucurehch, Rev. and Mrs. S. Hamrick.

WACONDA—The first fall meeting of the Waconda Community club was held at the home of Mrs. E. A. Miller in Mission Bottom. A 1 o'clock covered dish luncheon was enjoyed and 500 was in play in the afternoon. Prizes were won by Mrs. F. P. Runcorn and Susie LaFollette.

Present were Mesdames Robert Fromm, Salem; F. P. Runcorn, B. J. Miller, A. J. Rasmussen, Allyn Nusom, Henry Stafford and the hostess, Mrs. E. A. Miller.

The next meeting will be held November 5 at the home of Mrs. E. J. Becker, 1511 S. Liberty, Salem.

Aumsville News

AUMSVILLE—Funeral rites were held Friday for Fred Wallace Potter, who died here Wednesday at the Weddle funeral home in Stayton, with Rev. Hamilton of the Methodist church, conducting the service.

Mrs. Lester Solman, Mrs. Betty Rush, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain sang. Interment was made at the Stayton cemetery. Pallbearers were Grover Phelan, W. J. Roberts, Charles Martin, William Forgy, Albert Ham, Lester Ellis.

Mail Carrier Buys Car

ELDRIDGE—M. J. Mahoney, mail carrier for Gervais, is driving a new car which he purchased this month while on an extended trip with Mrs. Mahoney through eastern and southern states.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Goffin were guests Sunday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Goffin in Portland.

Norris Becker, Salem, a former resident here is home from the hospital following treatment for a kidney ailment.

Mrs. Redmond, Sioux City, Ia., visited last week with Mrs. Maude Timm at the A. W. Nusom home. She plans to visit with Mr. and Mrs. Alvan Brundidge here before returning to her home the last of this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles La de Route and family moved recently from the St. Louis district to the Mission Bottom hop yard where La de Route will work for Mr. Stutesman.

DAYTON—The annual homecoming of Naomi Rebekah lodge, Dayton, was observed at the Odd Fellows temple, Friday with more than 150 attending. Many more sent letters and Mrs. Ella Harris, Portland, who was the first noble grand here, was one in this group.

Mrs. Low Hadley, Dallas; Mrs. Alice Horde, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Paul Parker, Salem, were former members from out of this area who were present. Madalene Rossner, Dayton, who returned Friday morning from a week's trip that took her to Redding, Calif., and Twin Falls, Idaho, was present.

A surprise handkerchief shower honoring Mrs. Herman Louis, who has served as musician more than 10 years, preceded the program. Mrs. D. C. Clark and five of her students gave orchestral numbers. Mrs. Austin Stevens and Adaline Spooner gave a skit. Six members gave a comedy play.

Rites for Farmer Slated Today

AURORA—Henry Alfred Gilbertson, 57, farmer living one mile north of Aurora, died Saturday morning at the Portland General hospital.

He was born in Woodville, Wis., March 20, 1884, coming to Oregon with his parents when a boy. They located at Barlow, where he resided for a number of years before moving to Aurora, where he has lived for the past 20 years.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Cora Flowe Gilbertson, five children, Stanley, Gladys and Doris, Oregon City, Kenneth and Jewel, Aurora; one sister, Mrs. Laura Thorsen; two nephews and one niece.

Funeral services will be conducted Tuesday at 2 o'clock from the chapel of the Ransom-Miller funeral home. Interment is to be in the Norwegian cemetery, Aurora.

Hunting Season Ends Peacefully

SILVERTON—Hunting season ended peacefully Sunday night with no accidents reported from the hospital as a result. Sunday saw the greatest number of hunters out with a number reporting successful trips.

Farmers in rural Silverton expressed pleasure that the season was so short this year and that it did not open before 8 o'clock each of the three mornings.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Yost report the birth of a daughter at the Silverton hospital Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madsen and three children, Hillsboro, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. O. Satern. Mr. and Mrs. Satern have just returned from a month's vacation in Minnesota.

Teachers' Salary up NORTH HOWELL—At a recent meeting of the North Howell school board, an increase in salary was voted the two teachers.

New pupils in the primary room are Jimmie and Betty Klang whose family are living in the former A. B. Wiesner home.

Home From Hospital WHEATLAND—Clyde M. LaFollette, Wheatland, who spent several days in a Salem hospital for back sprain, was brought home Friday.

SHRYDER Truck & Transfer Furniture Moving - Paid On Daily Trips to Portland Phone 686 235 S. Cottage

Sign of the Times in 1941 Toys for Christmas

Santa Claus has gone military this year and his workshop is chock full of toys which feature miniatures of army and navy equipment. The toys pictured above were previewed in New York. Billy Nevard, playing the role of a home defense guard, fires a model coastal defense gun at an imaginary enemy. Bruce Birkenhead takes aim with a submarine that actually fires toy torpedoes. Craig Smith banks a turn with his airplane.

Grangers' News

SIDNEY-ANKENY — The annual fair and bazaar of Ankeny grange was held at the hall Saturday.

The hall was decorated in keeping with the fall season. Fine exhibits from farm and flower garden were judged with the following awarding of ribbons:

Squash, field, J. O. Orr, first, having a giant chili weighing 147 pounds; Rex Hartley, second, with one weighing over 100 pounds; S. F. Johnston, canning variety, first, first Danish second. Mrs. J. O. Farr, table queen, first.

Onions, Mrs. J. O. Farr, first; cucumbers, three varieties, Mrs. J. O. Farr, first prize. Peppers, two varieties, Mrs. Farr, first; Mrs. George Marlatt, second; carrots, Mrs. Farr, first.

Melons, two varieties, C. F. Johnston, two firsts; J. O. Farr, second. Corn, C. F. Johnston, first, shelled corn, Donna Wiederkehr; flax, C. F. Johnston, first; coffee corn, C. F. Johnston, first; popcorn, C. F. Johnston, first; cabbage; two varieties, C. F. Johnston, first; Mrs. George Marlatt, second.

Beans, Mrs. George Henderson, first; tomatoes, Mrs. George Marlatt, first; walnuts, J. O. Farr, first; Rex Hartley, second. Beets, Mrs. George Marlatt, first; beets with foliage, Mrs.

George Henderson, first; potatoes, C. F. Johnston, first; corn on stalk, C. F. Johnston, first; J. O. Farr, second.

Roses, Mrs. J. O. Farr, first; bouquet, Mrs. J. O. Farr, first; Donna Wiederkehr, second; chrysanthemums, Louise Johnston, first; Mrs. George Henderson, second.

Dahlias, Mrs. Rex Hartley, first; Mrs. George Marlatt, second; Mrs. John Zehner, first; cosmos, Mrs. Rex Hartley, first; straw flower, Louise Johnston; first; raspberries on vine, C. F. Johnston, first; jelly, F. B. Simpson, first; canned fruit, Donna Wiederkehr, first; wood work, Wayne Johnston, first.

A table of antiques, some dated back for 100 years, was interesting, also handwork made from material bought in Norway, made by Mrs. Rex Hartley's mother.

A fine exhibit of hand weaving was shown by Mrs. Louis Johnston, Roberts grange. Proceeds received from the sale of candy, fancy work and supper was satisfactory.

On the program were Donna Wiederkehr, Donna Zehner, Carolyn Gilmour, Ido Joe Henderson, Dale Gilmour, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Johnston, Gaynel Cole, Shirley Gilmour, Donald Cole, Mrs. J. O. Farr, Rex Hartley.

Old fashioned dances were enjoyed with Mr. and Mrs. George

Huntley Rites Held Sunday

HUBBARD — The funeral of Mrs. Molly Huntley was held Sunday in the Ransom Funeral home of Aurora, Rev. J. S. Van Winkle officiating. Mrs. Lois Miller sang.

Mrs. Huntley was born February 14, 1864 in Nebraska and died October 23 in Salem. She was married in 1924 to Joseph Huntley, who survives her.

She had lived in Hubbard more than 30 years and has been a member of the Rebekah lodge No. 191, for the past 30 years. Also she was a life long member of the Methodist church.

Saturday a homecoming of the graduates of Hubbard high school was held. A banquet was served in the Rebekah hall by the Ladies aid society of the Congregational church. Manton Carl, the president of the alumni, was toastmaster. Every class from 1917 was represented. A carnival and program were enjoyed.

Higgins from Roberts grange furnishing the music. County Grange Deputy William Jones and his wife from Macleay grange and Pomona Master Roy Rice and wife from Roberts were guests.

The next meeting of the grange will be held November 1. Home economic club meeting will be with Mrs. Rex Hartley November 21.

Election Tonight Will Decide Bargaining Agent for Timber Company; Lutheran Meet Ends

SILVERTON—Plans are in readiness for the Silver Falls Timber company production employees' labor vote today from 2 to 7 o'clock at the Knights of Pythias hall. The result will give the choice of who shall represent the workers in collective bargaining in the mill.

Women's Press Club Meets

PRINGLE—Mrs. Wendell Willmarth and Mrs. Ralph Curtis were joint hostesses at the Curtis suburban home Monday to members of the Salem Women's Press club.

Fall flowers and jack-o-lanterns were used in decorations. A dessert luncheon was served.

Mrs. Cherrie Dowell was a guest. Members present were Mrs. Paul Harvey, Mrs. A. L. Lindbeck, Mrs. Don Upjohn, Mrs. A. E. Brown, Mrs. C. Jansen and Mrs. Fred Zimmerman.

The club voted to meet the third Monday of every month instead of the customary fourth Tuesday. Mrs. Brown will entertain the group November 17.

Huntley Rites Held Sunday

HUBBARD — The funeral of Mrs. Molly Huntley was held Sunday in the Ransom Funeral home of Aurora, Rev. J. S. Van Winkle officiating. Mrs. Lois Miller sang.

Mrs. Huntley was born February 14, 1864 in Nebraska and died October 23 in Salem. She was married in 1924 to Joseph Huntley, who survives her.

She had lived in Hubbard more than 30 years and has been a member of the Rebekah lodge No. 191, for the past 30 years. Also she was a life long member of the Methodist church.

Saturday a homecoming of the graduates of Hubbard high school was held. A banquet was served in the Rebekah hall by the Ladies aid society of the Congregational church. Manton Carl, the president of the alumni, was toastmaster. Every class from 1917 was represented. A carnival and program were enjoyed.

Higgins from Roberts grange furnishing the music. County Grange Deputy William Jones and his wife from Macleay grange and Pomona Master Roy Rice and wife from Roberts were guests.

The next meeting of the grange will be held November 1. Home economic club meeting will be with Mrs. Rex Hartley November 21.

has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Sara Woodburn, for three weeks.

Genevieve Scharg, who underwent a minor operation recently at Salem hospital is convalescing at her home here.

Bride Feted At Dallas

DALLAS—Mrs. Charley Matresch (Dorothy Larson), McMinnville, was the recipient of many gifts when Mrs. T. A. Fallon, Mrs. Ervin York and Mrs. Ervin C. Baker entertained at the home of Mrs. York.

Bouquets of Dahlias and zinnias were used. Games were played with Velma Schroeder and Mrs. Robert Griffin, Albany, winning prizes.

Those present or sending gifts were Mrs. N. P. Larson, Amity; Mrs. William R. Smith and Mrs. Harold Smith, Glenwood; Mrs. Leonard Smith, Gales Creek; Mrs. William Fischer and Mrs. Robert Griffin, Albany; Mrs. Joe Larson, McMinnville; Velma Schroeder, Gertrude Kliever, Mrs. V. O. Long, Mrs. Eldon Sans, Mrs. Lester Minnick, Mrs. Henry Kliever, Mrs. Norman Gatz, Mrs. Lowell Barlow, Mrs. Frank Farris, Mrs. Will Hayes, Mrs. Joe Unger, Mrs. Del Springsteen, Mrs. Ellsworth Wilson, Mrs. Henry Hoss, Mrs. Fred Robinson, Mrs. Grover McDonaid and the hostesses.

Party Given On Birthday

BRUSH CREEK — Alice Jensen, assisted by Thea Jensen, entertained at her home here Saturday night in compliment to Harold Larsen on his birthday anniversary.

A special feature was the showing of motion pictures taken in Astoria and Alaska by her brother, Reuben Jensen, a teacher in the Astoria high school. Present at the party were Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baxter, Richard and Diane, William Hattberg, Nettie Hattberg, Salem; Lillian Bloch, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hattberg, Mrs. O. J. Hattberg, Anne Hattberg, Althea Meyer, Lillie Madson, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Madson of Hillsboro, Mrs. Anna K. Jensen, Miss Thea Jensen, Alfred Jensen, Reuben Jensen and Miss Alice Jensen.

Both the IWA, affiliated with the CIO, and the lumber and sawmill workers, affiliated with the AFL, have set up offices in downtown Silverton and are distributing literature and contacting workers.

The election will be conducted by the director of the 19th region of the national labor relations board. Those eligible to vote are all production and maintenance employees of the timber company whose names appear on the company's payroll. It excludes clerical employees, executives, non-working foremen and working foremen who spend 50 per cent or more of their time in supervisory work.

The election will be by secret ballot and voters will be allowed to vote without interference. Electioneering will not be permitted in or near the voting place.

An agent will personally hand a ballot to each eligible voter at the voting place. At the close of the voting, the ballot boxes will be sealed and will remain in the custody of the agent in charge of the election. The ballots will be counted by the agent as soon as conveniently possible after the close of the voting.

Royal Neighbors Are Entertained

MIDDLE GROVE—Mrs. Sara Woodburn was hostess Wednesday to the Royal Neighbors Sewing club.

Present were Mary Ackerman, Bertha Loveland, Lenora Hartley, Edna Shephard, Julia Gregorie, Dora Pratt, Margarette Ackerman, Genevieve Olson, Belle Gortmaker, Veda Purvine, Ruth Hall, Katherine Buell, Mrs. Charles South, Edna Olson, Faith Morris, Gladys Youngblood, Lena Witzel, Olive Anderson, Phyllis Kay Morris, Gloria Butler, Gene Youngblood and the hostess, Sara Woodburn.

Mrs. J. S. Craig, Napa, Calif.

You'll enjoy seeing MARJORIE WOODWORTH in the current Mal Roach hit "ALL-AMERICAN CO-ED" released through United Artists.

You'll enjoy Chesterfields, the All-American pleasure smoke with the definitely Milder Cooler Better Taste.

If... like the All-American Girl... you want a cigarette that's Milder

It's Chesterfield

Try a couple of packs. We feel sure you'll be coming back for more... because Chesterfield's right combination of the world's leading cigarette tobaccos makes them so much Milder, Cooler and Better-Tasting that more smokers are turning to them every day.

EVERYWHERE YOU GO

They Satisfy

Yes, the approval of smokers is the big thing that's pushing Chesterfield ahead all over the country.

Copyright 1941, Looney & Mearns Tobacco Co.

This is a bargain in any language!

用款高往市可回開
多大及短及經大下
費城美約羅由車如
分市東芝省三票買
文不多加而潘則來

Vous pouvez aller dans l'Est en passant par San Francisco et Los Angeles sans payer de supplément, avec un billet aller-retour pour New York, Chicago et la plupart des autres villes de l'Est.

Usted puede ir al este desde San Francisco y Los Angeles por ni un centavo mas, si Usted compra billete de ferrocarril ida y vuelta a New York, Chicago y casitadas los demas ciudades del este.

You can go East through San Francisco and Los Angeles for not 1 cent extra rail fare, on roundtrip tickets to New York, Chicago and most other eastern destinations.

S·P The Friendly Southern Pacific

See C. A. Larson, Ticket Agent - Ph. 4488 or, write J. A. ORMANDY, G.P.A., 623 Pacific Bldg., Portland, Ore.