Girl Reserves' Corner

Leslie eighth grade Girl Reserves met Tuesday with Miss Lois Robinson, Miss Rosalie Hoover and Miss Pauline Olson, for a picnic supper around the outdoor fireplace at the YWCA. Goldie Higel was elected president; Arleen Sheldon, vice-president; Edith Stewart, secretary; Frances Baker, treasurer and Florence Gilbert, council member. Next Tuesday they will have a Halloween party from 7 to 9 p. m. and mothers will transport the girls home by car.

Leslie ninth grade Girl Reserves met Wednesday after school with Mrs. Ralph Nohlgren and discussed officers' duties. They elected the following as their executives until spring: president, Betty Manoles; vice-president-social chairman, Joyce Reeves; secretary, Janet Gibson; treasurer, Eva Lou Barrett; council member, Shirley Severin; song leader, Marcia Moore; sergeant-at-arms, Pauline Cutter. The next meeting will be a supper. This group appointed a service program committee to work on programs to be presented at the various state institutions. Marcia Moore is chairman and Pauline Cutter, Jane Action and Dorothy Boyce the committee. The group is planning a barnyard frolic on Saturday, November 1. The committee in charge includes: Joyce Reeves, Betty Manoles, Shirley Severin and Eva Lou Barrett. The party will be in the barn at the home of Eva Lou Barrett. New members in the club are Pauline Cutter and Joyce Reeves.

Members of the Parrish ninth grade-Girls Reserves met with Miss Lois Robinson and Mrs. Esther Little after school on Thursday at the YWCA. After defining the responsibilities of the officers they elected the following: president, Addyce Lane; vice-president, Fran Fidler; secretary, Masako Tsukamoto; treasurer, Shirley Allen; council member, June Young and song leader, Betty Hughes. This group will have a "gypsy supper" next Thursday after school, and learn of things to cook over a camp fire on a stick, of one pot meal and of foods to bake over coals. They will learn new Girl Reserve songs.

The Parrish seventh and eighth grade Girl Reserves will have an organization meeting on Monday after school at the YWCA.

The representatives on the Girl Reserve Inter-club council and the president of each club will meet after school next Friday at the YWCA with Mrs. Little and will meet regularly once a month on the fourth Friday. At this meeting, they will elect a chairman and secretary, decide on uniform dues for all junior high clubs and discuss requirements for membership in order to take part in the Girl Reserve Recognition Service, on Sunday, November 16. They will also plan a tentative year-round calendar of all Girl Reserve activities.

One hundred and fifty girls attended the second general meeting of the Tri-Y Girl Reserve club at the high school Tuesday afternoon. The president, Veta Smith, presided for a short business meeting. Some of the club meetings will be worked out at forums and round tables, at others there will be outstanding speakers; quiz and interview programs will add variety and skits will give those dramatically inclined in the club, an opportunity to take part, according to Delvon Long, program chairman. The program following the business meeting, afforded the club talent an opportunity to entertain. Those taking part were Nellie Jane Pearmine, June Nickel, Ruth Ripple, Anita Meyers, Bonnie Sawyer, Alice Rose and Pat DeSart.

The fall Tri-Y informal dance has been scheduled for Friday, December 12, at the Cherry City hall. Only club members and their guests may attend. It will be chaperoned by the club advisers. The social committee is in charge.

Next Tuesday, immediately after school, the various sections of the club will meet to make the sectional year plans. Girls who have already paid their dues have been placed in the sections of their choice and will act on various committees. Section I will meet in Room 208 with Nancy Brown in charge. Section II will meet with Marion Wampler in Room 108. Section III, Dorothy Dalton's group will meet in Room 221. The leader and place of meeting of Section IV will be announced later.

The Tri-Y cabinet will meet after school Wednesday at the high school with their advisers.
