

Quezon Has One foe in Election

Hilario C. Moncado

Manuel Quezon

Here are two of the three candidates who opposed one another for the office of president of the Philippine Commonwealth at the election, Nov. 4. They include Manuel Quezon, who sought a second term; Hilario C. Moncado, candidate of the Modernist party, and Juan Sunulong, head of the conservative group in the Popular Front party. The issue of whether the Commonwealth's independence, scheduled for 1946, should be welcomed or avoided, played a prominent part in the campaign.

Dallas Property Changes Noted; Car Theft Brings Prison Term; Students Enjoy 4 day Vacation

DALLAS—Mrs. W. S. Martin who recently returned to Dallas from Vallejo, Calif., purchased the Woods restaurant and confectionery from Arthur and Robert Woods, who have operated it since September, 1940.

The dairy store will be moved to the former Baldwin shoe shop location at 515 Main street. The Woods will continue to operate their retail milk route in Dallas and their dairy farm in the lower Salt Creek district.

Mrs. Martin conducted a restaurant here a number of years ago and she will take personal charge of her new restaurant.

DALLAS—A deal was completed Wednesday whereby Mr. and Mrs. Claude Bird, Salem, became the new owners of the Brite Spot.
