Watch them vanish—those extra inches—when you slip into this new frock! Your favorite designer, Anne Adams, planned Pattern 4914 especially to flatter the larger figure. The right side of the dress, cut in one piece from neck to hem, buttons to the left in a gentle curve ending at the waist. The frock is cut gracefully in three sections in the back, and long sleeves are optional. Made in a well-spaced print, with perhaps collar and cuffs of contrasting fabric, it is the ideal frock for household wear.

A street version would be charming in a soft jewel-toned wool, with long sleeves. Let the illustrated Sewing Instructor help you finish this pattern quickly for immediate wear!

Pattern 4914 is available in women's sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric and 1/4 yard contrast.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number.

Just the cream of the 1941-42 fashion crop is shown in the new Anne Adams Pattern Book. Order your copy today—your first look after the original, easy-to-make makes for every age and year. 111 main street, Eugene, Ore. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

SOCIETY MUSIC The HOME

Miss Gerig now Mrs. Rehfeld

The Fruitland Evangelical church was the setting for the marriage ceremony of Miss Thelma Gerig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gerig, and Mr. Orville Rehfeld, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rehfeld of Jefferson. The wedding was an event of November 8 with Rev. William Elmer reading the candle-light service.

Mr. Lawrence Rehfeld sang "God Give Me You" and "Because." Mr. Clarence Fagg sang "Seal Us O Holy Spirit" during the ceremony. Miss Joyce Lively played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a white satin gown designed on princess lines for her wedding. The dress was fashioned with a train, high neckline and long sleeves with points over each wrist.

Her lace edged tulle veil was full length and fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible with a cluster of gardenias.

Miss Gladys Gerig was her sister's maid of honor and she wore a rose taffeta gown and carried a shower bouquet of roses and white chrysanthemums. Miss Evelyn Peterson and Mrs. Hart Barnes were bridesmaids and wore pastel blue taffeta frocks and carried colonial nosegays.

Mr. Francis Rehfeld was his brother's best man and ushers were Mr. Ernest Gerig and Mr. Dale Lively.

A reception in the church parlors was held after the wedding. Mrs. Val Gerig presided at the serving table and Miss Joyce Lively cut the bride's cake. Assisting were Mrs. Lloyd Girod, Miss Inez Runner, Miss Daisy Lambert, William and Lloyd Girod. Mrs. Leon Lambert passed the guest book and Miss Alma Stauffer and Mrs. George Kils were in charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride wore a blue wool dressmaker suit with black accessories and a corsage of gardenias. The couple will live in Seattle at 2863 4th avenue North. Mr. Rehfeld is now with Boeing Aircraft.

Teachers Hold Lunch Meeting

Members of the Salem branch, Oregon Music Teachers' association met at the Argo on Wednesday noon. Miss Dorothy Pearce presided at the business meeting which followed.

Miss Elma Weller was in charge of the program. Members of the group read poems and presented musical numbers about Thanksgiving. A tribute was paid to Dr. P. O. Riley, who died recently, for his devotion and cooperation in the interests of Salem music and musicians.

Present at the meeting were Mrs. T. S. Roberts, Miss Elma Weller, Mrs. T. J. Ampsoker, Mrs. David Eason, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. Mary T. Headrick, Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson, Miss Frances Virginia Melton, Mrs. Grace DeHartport, Miss Dorothy Pearce, Miss Margaret Hogg, Mrs. Bertha Junk Darby, Mrs. Mabel Powers, Miss Ruth Bedford, and guests from Woodburn, Mrs. Gwendolyn Hayden and Mrs. Frank Burlingame.

Party for Doris Drager Tonight

Miss Doris Drager, bride-elect of Mr. James H. Nickelson, Jr., will be honored at a dessert supper tonight when Mrs. Richard Pierce of Portland entertains at the Royal Court apartment of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Van Scoy.

Today's Menu

Veal chops will be baked and apples will go with cream in the day's menu.

Cauliflower salad
Baked veal chops
Turnips and potatoes
Buttered spinach
Baked apples, minted cream

MINTED CREAM

1 cup whipped cream
1 tablespoon confectioner's sugar
2 drops oil of peppermint
1/4 teaspoon vanilla
Mix the ingredients, chill and serve on baked apples.

Hamburgers Are Glorified

Hamburgers, with a little extra dressing up, become a glorified meat dish.

BARBECUED HAMBURGER

1 pound ground beef chuck or flank
2 ounces suet
1 tablespoon salt
1/4 cup catsup
1 tablespoon vinegar
1/4 cup salad oil
1 tablespoon paprika
1/2 teaspoon salt
Pinch cayenne pepper
1 onion

Combine the beef suet and salt. Shape into four 1-inch thick patties. Boil together the catsup, oil and seasonings. Brown the patties in a heavy frying pan. Slice the onion fine and cover the patties. Pour the barbecue sauce over the patties. Cover and cook very slowly 20 minutes. Baste the sauce over the meat 2 or 3 times. Serve hot with toasted buns or hard rolls.

Members of the executive committee of Pro America will meet this afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Alfred Propp. Mrs. R. L. Wright, chairman, will preside when the group discussed plans for the meeting to be held at the Marion hotel on Monday night at 8 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Heath Hall and son, Wallace, of Detroit, spent Armistice Day in Salem at the home of Mr. Hall's mother, Mrs. S. V. Hall.

The meeting of the Junior Woman's club, which was postponed from Monday night, will be held at the club room tonight.

The Just-For-Fun club will have a no-host lunch meeting at the Spa at 1 o'clock today. Guests are invited.

Cookies Easy To Make

Interest centers on cookie recipes these days. Here's one that packs well, is easy to make and good for the eater.

FIG COOKIE STRIPS

1 cup dried figs
1 1/2 cups granulated sugar
1/2 cup butter
3 eggs
2 cups sifted all-purpose flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon lemon extract

Rinse and drain figs, clip stems and put figs through food chopper using a medium knife. Cream together sugar and butter, add well beaten eggs and figs, and mix thoroughly. Add flour sifted with salt and soda, add flavoring and beat well. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto greased cookies sheet and bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 7 to 10 minutes; or spread in thin layer on greased cookie sheet. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) 15 to 18 minutes. Cut into strips. Sufficient to fill a cookie sheet 14x10x1/2 inches.

Add Figs to Frosting

A few chopped figs, some grated lemon rind (about 1/2 teaspoonful) and slivers of toasted almonds give extra fling to confectioner's or boiled white icing spread on white or yellow cake. In fact it makes quite a dessert out of a plain cake.
