

Miss Cole Is Married on Thursday

Thanksgiving night was chosen by Miss Erma Cole and Mr. Emmett Rickard of Ceres, Calif., for their marriage. The lovely ceremony was performed at the First Christian church at 7 o'clock in the evening with the bride's brother, Rev. Howard Cole, officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. Curtis C. Cole and Mr. Rickard is the son of Mrs. Dora Rickard of Ceres, who came north for her son's marriage.

White and orchid chrysanthemums provided the altar decorations and the cathedral tapers were lighted by Miss Beth DeLapp and Mrs. Paul Rickard of Eugene. Mrs. Curtis Cole sang "I Love You Truly" and "I Promise You" before the ceremony.

Mr. Cole gave his daughter away in marriage and her bridal gown was of white velvet designed with a floor length skirt. The bodice was tight-fitting and made with a sweetheart neckline and the long sleeves were leg-o-mutton style.

Her full length tulle veil cascaded from a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of roses and bouvardia centered with a white orchid.

Bridal Party

Mrs. Henry Wenderoth was the matron of honor and her gown was of peach velvet made with a full skirt, three-quarter length sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. The bridesmaids were Mrs. Howard Cole and Mrs. Adrian Fraley, who wore deep rose faulle taffeta frocks, and Mrs. James Whitaker of Eugene and Miss Nola Lee, who were gowned in mist blue gowns. They were made similar to the honor attendant's and they carried arm bouquets of chrysanthemums to match their frocks.

Mr. Paul Rickard stood with his brother as best man and seating the guests were Mr. Myrl McKee, Corvallis, Mr. Harold Scott, Mr. Tom Grinstead, Mr. James Whitaker, Eugene, Mr. Ray Harold, Valsetz, Mr. Adrian Fraley, Eugene, and Mr. Francis Lefer, Stayton.

Miss Ina Harold of Silverton, aunt of the bride, wore a peach chiffon gown and Mrs. Rickard wore a royal blue satin frock for her son's wedding. Their corsages were of roses and chrysanthemums.

The reception for the several hundred guests was held in the church parlors. Presiding at the serving table were Mrs. Arthur Lefer, Stayton, Mrs. E. M. Young, Wenatchee, Wash., aunt of the bride, Mrs. E. J. Reasor, Mrs. Harry Wenderoth, Mrs. W.

Assist at Reception

Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Nellie Harrison, Miss Mary Jo Ladd, Miss Betty Mahaney and Miss Ora Mahaney. Serving were Miss Estella Smith, Miss Joy Cooley, Miss Audrey Jackson, Miss Wilma Harold, Valsetz, Mrs. Erney Chamberlain, Newberg, Miss Elene Douglas, Miss Dorothy Gibson, Eugene, and Miss Helen Rose Lee. Carol Cole of Eugene passed the dream cakes.

When the newlyweds left on their honeymoon the bride wore an autumn brown tulle with pean brown accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Rickard will reside in Lebanon where he is a member of the high school faculty.

The bride attended Willamette university and is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha sorority. She is a graduate of Northwest Christian college in Eugene and attended Phillips college in Enid, Oklahoma. Mr. Rickard is a graduate of the University of Oregon and Northwest Christian college.

Bridge Series Is Planned

Sam Gordon, The Kibitzer, is being sponsored again by the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, for a series of contract bridge lesson-lectures open to the public November 26, 27 and 28 at the Marion hotel.

Mr. Gordon says that the only aim of two partners in a bridge game is to tell each other how many tricks they expect to take and what their best trump suit is. To give that information, a player needs only to learn the few basic rules and signals used by experts and other practical players. Mr. Gordon's method of counting tricks is the natural way any player would use if he were not confused by too many suggestions. Merely total up aces, kings, queens, and the tricks you expect to trump. All other departments of the game are treated in the same vein of simplicity in Mr. Gordon's classes.

Secretary of State and Mrs. Earl Snell and Mr. and Mrs. George Flagg were dinner hosts Thanksgiving day at the Snell home. Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. Fred Thompson and daughter, Ann; of The Dalles, Miss Emma Clark of Portland, Robert McKinney of Payette, Idaho, Mrs. Olive Curry and son, Albert Curry, and Bill Snell.

Ceremony in Portland of Interest

Salem folk will be interested to learn of the marriage of Miss Rose Marie Kronberg, formerly of Salem, and Mr. Emmett Duff Kennelly of Portland. The ceremony took place Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the St. Thomas More chapel in Green Hills, Portland, with Rev. B. V. Kelly officiating.

Miss Julia Query of Bend, formerly of Salem, was the soloist and Mr. Paul Bently was the organist. White chrysanthemums decorated the small chapel.

Mr. Robert A. Kronberg gave his sister away in marriage and she wore a white brocade satin gown with fingertip length tulle veil falling from a long pearl coronet. She carried a bouquet of pink roses and bouvardia.

Mrs. Robert Kronberg gave the honor attendant and she wore a pastel blue chiffon frock with matching satin girdle and a seed pearl Juliet cap. Her bouquet was of pink Gotham chrysanthemums.

Mr. Harry C. Murphy was the best man and ushers were Dr. George McGowan, Mr. Lee Kronberg and Mr. Vern Matthis.

The Aero club was the scene of the wedding reception and a breakfast for the two families and bridal party followed the reception. Assisting were Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer of Salem, Mrs. I. L. McCabe and Mrs. Ralph Dresser.

Mr. Kennelly and his bride left for an Alaskan cruise and for traveling she wore a mixed tweed suit with burgandy accessories. They will return to Portland to reside at 7615 SW Canyon Road.

Mrs. Kennelly made her home in Salem for several years and was a member of the Salem McDowell club. Mr. Kennelly is a graduate of Notre Dame and is now in business in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Siegmund were hosts for a holiday dinner at their home on North 24th street Thursday. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Siegmund, Miss Margaret Siegmund, Mrs. M. Wilson Savage, Mr. and Mrs. Manfred Olson and the hosts.

The regular homecoming dinner for the Degree of Honor will be held at the hall tonight at 6:30. Mrs. Lois Geiser, national officer and regional director is honored guest. Mrs. Francis Kleen will be in charge of the special program to which every one is invited.

St. Joseph's Is Setting For Rites

Miss Monica Hopfinger became Mr. Albert George Boardman's bride at a beautiful Thanksgiving ceremony at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 5 o'clock. The new Mrs. Boardman is the daughter of Mrs. John French and her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel H. Boardman.

Father T. J. Bernards read the rites before the altar banked with white chrysanthemums, palms and cathedral tapers in candelabras. Miss Verna Johns, wearing a blue crepe frock and pink flowers in her hair, lighted the candles. Mrs. Raymond Barton was the organist.

The bride was escorted to the altar by Mr. John G. French. Her bridal gown was of white net with a satin bodice. The skirt was very full and the basque waist was shirred at the square necklines. The sleeves were short and puffed and her only ornament was a strand of pearls.

Her oblong length tulle veil fell from a pearl coronet and she carried a white prayer book topped with white gardenias and a shower of bouvardia.

Mrs. Donald Collins was the only attendant and she wore a pink chiffon frock fashioned with a full skirt, square neckline and puffed sleeves. Her bouquet was of pink and white chrysanthemums and a cluster of the same flowers were arranged in her hair.

Brother Is Best Man

Mr. Kenneth Boardman of Rainier was best man for his brother and the ushers were Mr. Albert Mefford and Mr. Donald Collins.

Mrs. French chose a Nile blue floor length gown enhanced with silver trim for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Boardman wore a rose silk crepe gown and they both had corsages of pink and white chrysanthemums and roses.

The French home was the scene of the wedding reception. The serving table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a bouquet of pink and white chrysanthemums and white tapers in candelabras. Mrs. J. Harry Moran was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Mabel Dugger of Portland assisted in the gift room.

Mr. and Mrs. Boardman are going south on their wedding trip and will be at home in San Francisco after December 1. For traveling the bride wore a brown silk crepe frock embellished with gold nail heads, brown accessories and a Russian squirrel coat.

The new Mrs. Boardman attended Sacred Heart academy and has been connected with the public utilities commission. Mr. Boardman attended Salem schools and Willamette university. He is now with the Southern Pacific company with headquarters in the bay city.

Mrs. Muncey Is New President

Mrs. Ama Muncey was elected president of the FLE & F club for the ensuing year at their meeting Tuesday night held at the home of Mrs. W. J. Peck.

Plans were discussed for increasing the treasury and for providing Christmas cheer to some needy family.
