Many After-Dark Creations Orientally Exotic

Left to right, pink crepe gown with matching hood; petunia silk jersey embroidered in jet, purple wool cape; blue crepe with silver and bead embroidered yoke, turban-like hat.

Glamorous high shades, lavish metallic and bead embroidery are being used for after-dark creations which are frequently fashioned with Oriental exoticism. Fitted silhouettes flare into swirling skirts and are offset by glistening embroidery. First of the gowns shown here, left, has a unique coat-of-mail effect, achieved by hand-crocheting. The dress is a Montell pink crepe and has a matching hood edged with long silken fringe. Long, fitted sleeves, a belt of the same material and full skirt are fashioned with long silken fringe. The dress center is made of petunia silk jersey embroidered in jet, with high draped neckline, clinging waistline and front drape. The long purple wool cape is lined with contrasting lavender, clinging to the shoulders over the shoulders with multi-colored stones. The Oriental influence is clearly seen in the third dress, right. It is a Cooper blue crepe with a silver and bead embroidered yoke, smooth kimono sleeves blousing above gauntlet-length gloves, and two slit pockets at the side seams of the dirndl skirt. The turban-like hat is of the same blue as the dress, and also is bead embroidered, with a soft veil flowing down the back and velvet band that goes under the chin and up over the high crown of the hat.

Pattern

The well-dressed woman has learned that classics are classics because they flatter every figure, every age! Pattern 4812 by Anne Adams is a true-to-form shirtwaister yet it has all the latest details, like the soft, dropped shoulder, the one-button plunging neckline. The three-quarter sleeves are new, too, especially when trimmed with smart elastic stitching to match the collar and bodice. The skirt fits beautifully, and it's cut in only four sections for easy sewing. In fact the whole dress is easy to make... The Sewing Instructor shows how! If you love color contrasts, make the collar and sleeves of another hue. Optional are a self-fabric or bought belt; short or long sleeves.

Pattern 4812 is available in misses' and women's sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, and 40. Size 18 takes 2 1/2 yards 54 inch fabric.

For Holiday Dessert, Tradition Says-Serve Plum Pudding

As traditional to Christmas as turkey for Thanksgiving, is plum pudding with hard sauce. Brought to the table, garnished with wedges of freshly cut lemon and crowned with a snowy hard sauce, this holiday pudding will bring shouts of delight as excited as Tiny Tim's at his first sight of the Christmas goose.

For an especially festive meal and an unusual dessert, place individual slices of this fruit studded pudding on dessert plates. When ready to serve, top each slice with a sugar cube which has been soaked in lemon extract. Touch a lighted match to each sugar cube and bring the lighted pudding to the table immediately. The tiny blue flame flickers a gay "Merry Christmas!" to one and all.

HOLIDAY PLUM PUDDING

- 1/2 cup sliced nuts
  - 1 1/4 cups chopped raisins
  - 1 1/2 cups currants
  - 1/2 cup chopped candied orange peel
  - 1/2 cup chopped candied citron
  - 1/2 cup chopped candied lemon peel
  - 1 lemon
  - 6 lumps sugar
  - 1/2 cup pineapple juice
  - 1 1/2 cups sifted flour

  - 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
  - 1/2 teaspoon salt
  - 1 1/4 cups dry bread crumbs

  - 1/2 pound chopped suet
  - 4 eggs

- Mix together the nuts, raisins, currants, orange peel, citron and lemon peel. Saturate sugar lumps with oil from lemon by crushing the lumps with the lemon. Dissolve in pineapple juice. Sift flour with spices and salt. Mix with fruit and add bread crumbs and brown sugar. Beat eggs until light; add grape juice and pineapple juice in which sugar has dissolved. Add to dry ingredients. Mix thoroughly. Moisten center of a large linen napkin, grease lightly and rub with flour. Mold pudding into a ball and tie lightly into the greased napkin. Immerse in rapidly boiling water, suspending the pudding so it does not rest on the bottom of the kettle. Keep water boiling, adding boiling water as it becomes necessary. Boil 5 hours. Serve with hard sauce.
