Mickey Mouse Club Notes

Christmas greetings, Mice! Yes, sir, it's time for such openings as this. Just three more weeks and it's here! Don't forget, too, that the Mickey Mouse club is going to have one big Christmas party. This year it is even going to be broadcast over the radio. So if you want to put your bid in now to appear on this particular program, see me or the Mickey Mouse secretary, now.

MMC

Just a word, Mice, about courtesy toward the entertainers. Remember, these people make special efforts to practice and rehearse, just to perform for your enjoyment, so let's show them our appreciation by being quiet, and orderly, during the program. You will be making it a lot easier for them, and they'll be able to do a lot better job.

MMC

Just the names of the shows for today is a good hint of the swell time in store for you at today's Mickey Mouse, for it's Bing Crosby and Mary Martin in "Birth of the Blues" and that second hit "Glamour Boy" starring Jackie Cooper. Also, today winds up the last chapter of the "Red Ryder" serial, and we want to announce that next week begins the new serial, "Winslow of the Navy" a real thriller, you'll want to see right from the first!

MMC

We've heard that there's a swell program all set for today, another contest, more singing, more talent, and some all-around good entertainment, but of course that's just a rumor, and you'll want to be there.
