

Black Paces Mississippi To 26-13 Win

By RUSS NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 6-(AP)—Paced by a Seabiscuit in football pants, a human dynamo who went over, under and around his opposition, Mississippi State college scored a 26 to 13 rout over University of San Francisco's Dons in their intercollegiate game here Saturday.

Blondy Black, a halfback who seemed to have wings on his feet, led the Maroons in their devastating attack and the San Francisco Dons, to the last man on the bench, will be tickled pink if they never look at his No. 18 Jersey again.

While Black was only one cog in a well drilled squad of southerners who buckled down to business with the opening kickoff, his speed, poise and all around gridiron ability was the main factor in the one-sided contest.

Black capped his afternoon with an 83-yard run through the entire San Francisco team. It was off a fake punt and the deliberate manner in which he received the ball, surveyed the field and galloped off, was one of the thrilling plays seen here this season.

The Maroons lined up as 3 1/2 to 1 favorites, and justified the odds from the outset. Some 20,000 fans, sitting through a perfect football day, testified to that when they left the field.

They demonstrated, ably and impressively, why they won the Southeastern conference championship and completed their season with but one defeat, that to unbeaten, untied Duquesne.

The Longhorn first team, returned to the fray by Coach D. X. Bible for one last exhibition, obliged with another touchdown.

It drove 43 yards on two passes, one from Layden to Doss who was hauled down on the Oregon five and Layden to Vernon Martin, the Steers' great blocking back, in the end zone. It was Martin's only touchdown of the year.

A final Texas marker came when Texas second-stringers passed 27 yards, Mayne to Sanders, over the goal after halting an ineffective Webfoot pass barrage.

Bevo Hoopers Here Thursday Against Willamette 'Cats

Willamette's once-beaten, once-victorious Bearcat basketballers Thursday night have the honor of becoming the first team this season to test Oregon State's 1941-42 mapleboard edition.

Coach Slat's Orangemen tangle with Howard Maple's 'Cats at 8 o'clock Thursday night on the Willamette floor.

The veteran Beaver coach will be able to floor a near-veteran aggregation, headed by husky John Mandic, rugged center; Paul Valenti, smooth ball-handling guard; Jack Mulder, rangy forward; and George McNutt, clever front-courtman.

Word from Corvallis has it that Gill has worked out a complete new offense for the Beavers, who finished second to Washington State in the northern division, Coast conference race last season.

The Bearcats, who looked considerably better in dropping Multnomah club last Friday than they did in their opener against the Pacific Packards, will be playing their last home game before leaving on a barnstorming tour of Washington, Idaho and Utah.

at a slight angle on his own 19. Later the Aggies worked their way to the Cougar 24 before yielding on downs.

Moser and Daniels started shooting a series of passes in the fourth period. They reached the Cougar six yard stripe before a six yard loss and an incomplete goal line pass ended the threat.

From that point—their own 12—the Cougars made their last stand. Kennedy bucked his way in short drives to his own 30, and Sewell hurled a 15-yard pass to Susoeff and a 17-yarder to Fletcher to advance all told some 55 yards to the Aggie 33.

Then that man Sibley came booming out of the secondary again to grab Sewell's pass on the Aggie 13-yard line, and it was all over a play later.

The air-minded Aggies tried 33 passes, completing 14 of them for 163 yards, including those precision touchdowns yards. Moser threw 23 and Daniels 10. The Aggies outdrew the Cougars 11 to 9, but were outtraded, 86 to 68.

Gentry and Susoeff, the two all-Coast ends from Washington State, were outshone by the array of tall, pass-catching, hard-hitting ends trotted out by the Texans. Moser and Daniels received excellent pass protection, despite the fact Gentry and Susoeff were to rush the passer terrifically. Sewell, on the other hand, had Aggie ends in his hair all afternoon.

Helser Drills Lebanon Team; Has Two Vets

LEBANON—Coach Roy Helser of Lebanon high is having to make wholly new teams in basketball, just as he had to this fall in football. Of the 30 boys turning out, only two, Joe Mangold and Bud Trom, are lettermen.

Lebanon plays in district seven for a chance in the state tournament. Games with Albany, Corvallis, Toledo and Sweet Home are now being arranged. In each case there will be return games.

Other contests with nearby schools are also being scheduled and the full list of games will soon be released by Coach Helser.

In order to give the boys as much opportunity as possible to play in the big games, they are being lined up in squads of eight. Lawrence Page will coach B squad and Emmett Rickard the junior high squads.

New uniforms have been purchased. They are white with the red strawberry on the back and the name Lebanon on the front of the jackets. The jerseys have red numerals on a blue background; the trunks are trimmed with red and blue and the belts are blue.

Bradford's Tip Ducks, 35-33

PORTLAND, Ore., Dec. 6-(AP)—Bradford Clothiers, Oregon AAU champions, defeated the University of Oregon basketball team here Saturday night, 35 to 33.

The Bradford team methodically met the challenge. Deliberate passing set up two crumpled shots that proved the margin of victory, one by Carl McLean and the other by Bill Rolson. Ralph Fuhrman potted a long shot in vain for the Webfoots just before the gun.
