Former Salem Girl Weds

Details have reached Salem of the marriage of Miss Jane G. Robinson of Olympia, daughter of Mrs. Walter B. Robinson of Salem and Glendale, and Lt. Wade M. Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Anderson of Barksdale, Texas. The ceremony took place in the chapel of the 756th Tank battalion at Fort Lewis, on Saturday afternoon, November 29. The wedding, the first to be performed in the new chapel, was solemnized at 2 o'clock.

Chaplain Stevens read the afternoon ceremony, for which the bride wore a white jersey gown with a lace yoke and tucked bodice, full skirt falling into a short train. Her full length veil was caught to a halo of ruching.

She carried an all white bouquet of gardenias, stephanotis and bouvardia, centered with an orchid and showered with white satin ribbon and bouvardia.

Mrs. Carol Smith was matron of honor, wearing pale aqua chiffon with full skirt and princess bodice. Her bouquet was colonial style, of pink rosebuds, violets, bouvardia and white pom-pom chrysanthemums. In her hair she wore a single gardenia and pink bouvardia and white rosebuds.

Miss Betty Boyd and Miss Virginia Lee, the two bridesmaids, wore pale pink gowns with full skirts and carried bouquets identical to that of the matron of honor. They wore shingle gardenias in their hair.

Lt. Carol Smith was Lieutenant Anderson's best man and ushers were Lt. Richard Baudo and Lieutenant Rideman.

After the ceremony, the bridal couple was brought in one of the company's light tanks to Olympia, where the reception was held in the home of Mrs. Max H. Clark of Stratford Place, an aunt of the bride.

Reception follows Mrs. Robinson, the bride's mother, wore dusty rose and blue, with a corsage of gardenias with bouvardia and pink rapture rosebuds.

Asked to pour were two aunts of the bride, Mrs. F. J. Walsh of Tacoma and Mrs. C. E. Illidge of Glendale. Assisting were Miss Ruth Thorsen of Olympia and Mrs. R. Alvin Padgett of Olympia.

The couple left for a short wedding trip to Victoria, British Columbia. They will be at home at the corner of West Conger avenue and Division street in Olympia.

The bride attended Willamette university in Salem and Oregon State college in Corvallis. She is a member of Delta Zeta sorority, PEO sisterhood and Triads. Lieutenant Anderson, a native of Barksdale, Texas, is a graduate of the University of Texas in Austin.

Mrs. F. G. DeLano has bidden members of her club to luncheon and bridge this afternoon at her North Church street home. Mrs. A. A. Gueffroy and Mrs. Cal Patton will be additional guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Sexton will entertain at their weekend guests, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Schumann of Portland.

If your little daughter loves pretty clothes and you love to make them, Pattern 4876 will be your choice! Designed by Anne Adams, it's practical as well as decorative. The jumper has a scalloped bodice front and back that serves as shoulder straps and continues as a panel in the skirt. A belt joins it at either side of the waist in front and ties in back. Do add the button trim. The jumper shows off just enough of the blouse with its round collar and front buttoning. In wool, you'll probably want long sleeves, gathered into a wristband; in cotton, short puff sleeves. Make several blouses—one might be trimmed with baby lace. The Sewing Instructor helps you finish this tiny outfit quickly!

Pattern 4876 is available in children's sizes 2, 4, 6, 8 and 10. Size 6, jumper, takes 1 1/2 yards 54 inch fabric and long sleeve blouse, 1 yard 39 inch contrast.

Send fifty cents (15c in coins for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly size, name, address and style number. Just the cream of the 1941-42 fashion crop is shown in the new Anne Adams Pattern Book. Order your copy today—you'll find page after page of original, easy-to-make modes for every age and hour. Slimming mature-lady frocks. Gay crisp college apparel. Sport clothes for working. For shopping, for sporting, for dress or don't-dress festivities. A complete bridal trousseau. And as an extra feature—a free-for-the-making hat and bag set. Book fifteen cents.
