DeMolay Will Run City for Day As Mayor Issues Proclamation

Youths of the Order of DeMolay today acquired the reins of city government in Salem, with Mark Hatfield as mayor. Members of Chemeketa chapter elected to all municipal offices are to acquire the swivel chairs of their elders at 9 a.m.

Program for the day, in charge of Bill Habernicht, who is serving as treasurer, includes a session of the council at 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers. Closing program will be a dance at the Marion hotel, at which Edith Mohr is to be honored as sweetheart of DeMolay.

A proclamation for the day was issued Thursday by Mayor W. W. Chadwick, stating:

"Whereas, in my capacity as mayor of the city of Salem, I believe it my duty to acquaint the coming generation with the responsibilities and duties of public office; to recognize the existence of an organized representative body of young citizens, namely, Chemeketa chapter, Order of DeMolay, and to do all in my power to aid these young men to realize the importance and significance of local government in the emergency that now confronts us:

"Therefore, with these views in mind, and to aid our younger generation to become an intelligent voting public, I hereby, by the powers vested in me, do proclaim Friday, December 12, to be DeMolay day in the city of Salem."

Other officers chosen are Dr. D. H. Schulze, vice president; Earl T. Brown, treasurer; C. A. Cole, C. A. Keils and James McGilchrist, directors.
